Tales from an Old Soldier's Footlocker Logan Barbee, 2024-03-11 In basic training every soldier used to keep a wooden footlocker near the bed. It was a place to store trinkets, memorabilia, photos, and keepsakes. That's how Logan Browning Barbee, a retired U.S. Army colonel who later served as an adviser to the Iraqi government, thinks about this book as a place to hold a hodgepodge of stories. In addition to his career in the military and government, Barbee was a teacher, merchant seaman, county extension director at the University of Florida, family man, and so much more. In this memoir, he shares highlights from his life beginning with his boyhood in the country in Calhoun County, North Florida, to a jarring move as a teenager when he moved to town. He missed country living and went from being an A student to a C student. He also looks back at joining the Merchant Marines, being drafted, serving twenty-two years in the Army, his time in Iraq, and a lifetime of adventures. Join the author as he shares tales from his footlocker that reveal his identity, personality, and legacy.

The Middlepause Marina Benjamin, 2017-03-14 In The Middlepause, Benjamin deftly and brilliantly examines the losses and unexpected gains she experienced in menopause. Menopause is a mind and body shift as monumental and universal as puberty, yet far less often discussed, especially in public, which is what makes Benjamin's work here so urgently necessary. Kate Tuttle, The Los Angeles Times. The Middlepause offers a vision of contentment in middle age without sentiment or delusion. Marina Benjamin weighs the losses and opportunities of our middle years, taking inspiration from literature, science, philosophy, and her own experience. Spurred by her surgical propulsion into a sudden menopause, she finds ways to move forward while maintaining clear-eyed acknowledgment of the challenges of aging: attending to complicated elderly parents and a teenaged daughter experiencing bereavement, her own health woes, and a fresh impetus to give. Benjamin emerges into a new definition of herself as daughter, mother, citizen, and woman. Among The Middlepause's many wise observations about no longer being young: "I am discovering that I care less about what other people think. My needs are leaner and my storehouse fuller. It is not possible to fully appreciate what it means to age without attending to what the body knows. I have always had a knee-jerk distaste for the idea that age is all in the mind. You need a cohort of peers to go through the aging process with you. A cackle of crones. A cavalry." Marina Benjamin's memoir will serve as a comfort, a companion to women going through the too-seldom-spoken-of physical and mental changes in middle age and beyond.

The Last Storytellers Richard Hamilton, 2011-05-26 Marrakech is the heart and lifeblood of Morocco's ancient storytelling tradition. For nearly a thousand years, storytellers have gathered in the Jemaa el Fna, the legendary square of the city, to recount ancient folktales.
