Contemporary Migration Lena Englund, 2024-08-24. This book examines contemporary stories of migration belonging to multiple literary genres such as nonfiction, memoir, novel, and essay, and explores the futures they envision for migrants and their surrounding societies. The primary material ranges from personal experiences of migration for professional purposes and of being undocumented without access to citizenship to novels that provide fictional representations of migrants and their complex lives. This study asks how migration as portrayed in contemporary writing addresses personal, social, and political consequences of being on the move. The book is organized around central themes such as the status of being undocumented or aspirations and expectations of both migrants themselves as well as their new environs. The material examined has been published from 2016 onwards, addressing the aftermath of the migrant crisis 2015-2016 as well as the Trump administration 2017-2021.
