

HERMANN HESSE

Tales of Student Life

Edited, and with an introduction,
by Theodore Ziolkowski

Translated by Ralph Manheim

Hermann Hesse describes his school years in "Life Story Briefly Told": "In short, for more than four years everything that was attempted with me went wrong; no school would keep me, in no course of instruction did I last long. Every attempt to make a useful human being out of me ended in failure, several times in shame and scandal, in flight or expulsion, and yet everywhere they admitted that I had ability and even a reasonable amount of determination!" Despite the rebelliousness that marked his brief school career, Hesse was fascinated by the institution and the relationships it fosters, and used it as the background for much of his writing. He saw the classroom as an environment that intensifies the natural tensions between discipline and freedom, intellect and sensuality.
