Tales of the Punjab Told by the People Flora Annie Webster Steel, 1894      Tales of the Punjab Flora Annie Steel, 2021-05-21

Tales of the Punjab 1894 is a collection of stories translated and collected by Flora Annie Steel. Collected while Steel lived with her husband in the north of the Indian subcontinent, Tales of the Punjab was a successful introduction to legends and stories from the Punjab region for children and adults back home in England. Published while India remained under the control of the British Empire, Steel's collection puts a decidedly Western twist on the stories she learned from local women while advocating for education reform. In a village in the Punjab as the sun sets on an exceedingly hot day, the local people return from the fields to prepare dinner and settle down for the evening. As they await the cooling winds of midnight in order to sleep, outside the villagers gather around a local storyteller. Possessing a wide knowledge of legends, tales, and history, he calmly begins to speak to his gathered audience. Sir Buzz is the story of a woman and her son who are left in dire poverty following the death of her husband, a soldier. Although young, the boy dreams of setting out into the world in order to bring something home for his mother. Finding six shillings in the pocket of an old coat, he leaves his home only to run into an injured tigress. Unable to remove a thorn from her paw, she asks the boy for his assistance and offers him a mysterious reward. In The Rat's Wedding, a rat takes shelter underground during a steady rainstorm. In his digging, he discovers a root which he takes with him on his journey homeward. Once the rain subsides, looking forward to using the root for himself, he encounters an old man struggling to light a fire with wood soaked through with rain. Exchanging his root for a piece of food, the generous rat continues on his way. Tales of the Punjab is a collection of forty-three instructive, humorous, and authentic stories translated by Flora Annie Steel. With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript, this edition of Flora Annie Steel's Tales of the Punjab is a classic of Anglo-Indian literature reimagined for modern readers.

Excerpt from Tales of the Punjab Told by the People. Many of the tales in this collection appeared either in the Indian Antiquary, the Calcutta Review, or the Legends of the Punjab. They were then in the form of literal translations in many cases uncouth or even unpresentable to ears polite in all scarcely intelligible to the untravelled English reader for it must be remembered that with the exception of the Adventures of Raja Rasalu, all these stories are strictly folk tales passing current among a people who can neither read nor write and whose diction is full of colloquialisms and if we choose to call them so, vulgarisms. It would be manifestly unfair for instance to compare the literary standard of such tales with that of the Arabian Nights, the Tales of a Parrot or similar works.
