Palestine on the Air Karma R.

Chavez, 2019-10-15 Few doubt the pro Israel bias of the Western media. It takes the form of overtly supporting Israel's government policies or of maintaining neutrality or silence on issues of Israeli violence, occupation and settlement expansion. Scholar and activist Karma R. Chavez collects eleven interviews that allow dissenting voices a forum to provide rarely heard perspectives on the Palestinian struggle for justice, land and self-determination. This volume in the Common Threads series is a supplement to the Journal of Civil and Human Rights. The conversations within took place on a radio program Chavez hosted from 2013-16. There, journalists, activists, academic figures, authors and Palestinian citizens of Israel shared a wide range of thoughts and experiences. Participants covered topics that include everyday life for Palestinians in the West Bank and in Israel, the Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions (BDS) movement that arose in response to Israel's ongoing actions, the Steven Salaita controversy at the University of Illinois, the pro-Palestine social movement on college campuses, Israel's pinkwashing of human rights abuses, the aftermath of the 2014 attack on Gaza and Chavez's 2015 visit to the West Bank. Mark Adrienne von Speyr, 2012-08-01 These meditations on the Gospel of Mark, with the exception of the second part on the Passion, were given by Adrienne von Speyr between 1945 and 1958 to members of the Community of St. John, which she founded with the renowned theologian Fr. Hans Urs von Balthasar. Adrienne is speaking to young adults who have decided to live the state of the evangelical counsels in a secular profession as part of a recently established secular institute. Nevertheless, this contemplative commentary can be very useful for all who seek to meditate on Holy Scripture. As always, Adrienne here draws from the abundance of her own contemplation, which keeps continually in view the harmonious unity of Christian dogmatic truth; she gives to others what has been offered to her in contemplation without exegetical notes or any attempt at scholarship. Since she is speaking to novices, the train of thought is simple and practical yet rich in depth. The points for meditation are not primarily for spiritual reading but an introduction to personal prayer. They are meant only to point out a path because it is the Holy Spirit who directs contemplative prayer in all liberty. As one reads through this book, he will find in it a kind of synthesis of Adrienne von Speyr's spirituality. This work will also be very useful to preachers, catechists, pastors, communities and institutes who have understood with Pope Benedict XVI that it is time to reaffirm the importance of prayer in the face of the activism and the growing secularism of many Christians engaged in charitable work. The Making of a Refugee Tasoulla Hadjiyanni, 2002-03-30 Through an examination of interviews provided by 100 children of refugees in Cyprus born after their family's displacement, Hadjiyanni illustrates the formation of a refugee consciousness, an identity adopted by many children who never experienced the actual displacement of their family. Focusing on the process by which a child born into a refugee family develops a refugee identity, the book identifies nine dimensions that inform this consciousness. Establishing the family as the primary transmitter of the refugee identity and the child as its constructor, the author points to the power of homeplace in forming and supporting such an identity. The book challenges the notion that refugee consciousness is a separate identity and a crisis by reinterpreting it as a resistance to adversity. Shedding new light on what it means to be a refugee this work is a welcome addition to the field Beginning with a discussion of the meaning of the term refugee and how it has been adopted by the children of some refugees in Cyprus the author moves to an examination of the meaning of past and present to the formation of a refugee consciousness She then looks to the causes of such identity formation focusing on the transference of identity from parent to child and the effects of past loss on children who have not actually experienced displacement Housing issues are also examined as a contributing factor as refugee housing is typically distinct and constrained compared to housing for native citizens of a community The author concludes her work with a discussion of the implications of the Cyprus example for both the future and for general refugee studies

Talking Politics A. W. Sparkes, 2006-06-19 Talking Politics is a philosophical examination of some of the basic concepts of political discourse Its primary focus is on the ordinary on what is said by politicians in newspapers and by people in pubs rather than on the works of political theorists This is a work of but not on political theory Talking Politics is Invaluable as a source of reference for students and contains a detailed index Arranged thematically around topics such as Nation Each entry has copious cross references and suggestions for further reading A W Sparkes is uniquely qualified to write such a book combining some thirty years teaching as a philosopher with wide experience of and a life long fascination with politics His attitude is that of a critical but uncynical observer

Embracing the Tune of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Talk Of The Village

In some sort of used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony produced by the written term frequently fade into the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and interruptions that permeate our lives.
