The Heart of the Continent Nancy Cato, 2003      The Heart of a Continent Francis Edward Younghusband, 1993 A narrative of travel in Manchuria across the Gobi desert through the Himalayas the Pamirs and Hanza 1884 1894 Reprint 1904 edn 1993 edn      The Heart of the Continent Fitz Hugh Ludlow, 1871      The Heart of a Continent, Etc. (Fourth Edition). Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1904      The Heart of a Continent Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1897 Francis Younghusband was an explorer and soldier best known for leading the controversial British military mission to Lhasa Tibet in 1903 4 In 1886 Younghusband was granted leave from his military post in British India to accompany the explorer H E M James on a seven month journey around Manchuria After completing this expedition Younghusband received permission in March 1887 to undertake an overland journey from Peking Beijing to India Traveling alone with just hired guides Younghusband crossed the Gobi Desert to reach Hami China and proceeded from there over the Himalayan Mountains via Kashgar present day Kashi China and the Muztagh Pass to Kashmir He reached Srinagar on November 2 and his post at Rawalpindi on November 4 exactly seven months after his departure from Beijing Younghusband recorded this journey in the first eight chapters of his The Heart of a Continent In 1890 91 Younghusband undertook further travels to the Pamir Mountains chiefly in present day Tajikistan with parts in Afghanistan China and Kyrgyzstan and the Karakoram Range the unclaimed corridor between Afghanistan and China He and his superiors in the Indian government suspected that the Russians might be looking for an invasion route to India through these mountains and one object of his travels was to search for signs of Russian activity Younghusband recounted these expeditions in the remaining chapters of the book The book provides descriptions of spectacular scenery and of the peoples Chinese Kalmak Kalmyk Kirghiz Kyrgyz Tajik Hunza and others that he meets It also recounts several meetings with Russian reconnoitering parties including one in the Pamir Mountains in August 1891 with a Russian detachment of more than 30 Cossack soldiers that resulted in a diplomatic clash between Britain and Russia After an initial friendly meeting the Russian staff officer in command of the party Colonel Yonoff declared that Younghusband was on territory claimed by Russia and that he was under orders to escort the British intruder across the border to China This encounter led to the lodging of a diplomatic protest by the British embassy in Saint Petersburg and a subsequent apology by the Russian government and an acknowledgement that Yonoff had been operating outside the Russian sphere of influence The book contains illustrations and several maps including a large foldout Map of the Northern Frontier of India Widely praised for his explorations Younghusband was elected the youngest fellow of the Royal Geographical Society in 1890 and named Companion of the Indian Empire CIE in 1891      Encounters at the Heart of the World Elizabeth A. Fenn, 2014-03-11 This Pulitzer Prize winning work pieces together the lost history of the Mandan Native Americans and their thriving society on the Upper Missouri River The Mandan people s bustling towns in present day North Dakota were at the center of the North American universe for centuries Yet their history has been nearly forgotten

maintained in fragmentary documents and the journals of white visitors such as Lewis and Clark In this extraordinary book Elizabeth A Fenn pieces together those fragments along with important new discoveries in archaeology anthropology geology climatology epidemiology and nutritional science The result is a bold new perspective on early American history a new interpretation of the American past By 1500 more than twelve thousand Mandans were established on the northern Plains and their commercial prowess agricultural skills and reputation for hospitality became famous Recent archaeological discoveries show how they thrived and how they collapsed The damage wrought by imported diseases like smallpox and the havoc caused by the arrival of horses and steamboats were tragic for the Mandans yet as Fenn makes clear their sense of themselves as a people with distinctive traditions endured The Heart of a Continent Sir Francis Edward

Spoken from the Heart Laura Bush, 2010-05-04 In this brave beautiful and deeply personal memoir Laura Bush one of our most beloved and private first ladies tells her own extraordinary story Born in the boom and bust oil town of Midland Texas Laura Welch grew up as an only child in a family that lost three babies to miscarriage or infant death She vividly evokes Midland s brash rugged culture her close relationship with her father and the bonds of early friendships that sustain her to this day For the first time in heart wrenching detail she writes about the devastating high school car accident that left her friend Mike Douglas dead and about her decades of unspoken grief When Laura Welch first left West Texas in 1964 she never imagined that her journey would lead her to the world stage and the White House After graduating from Southern Methodist University in 1968 in the thick of student rebellions across the country and at the dawn of the women s movement she became an elementary school teacher working in inner city schools then trained to be a librarian At age thirty she met George W Bush whom she had last passed in the hallway in seventh grade Three months later the old maid of Midland married Midland s most eligible bachelor With rare intimacy and candor Laura Bush writes about her early married life as she was thrust into one of America s most prominent political families as well as her deep longing for children and her husband s decision to give up drinking By 1993 she found herself in the full glare of the political spotlight But just as her husband won the Texas governorship in a stunning upset victory her father Harold Welch was dying in Midland In 2001 after one of the closest elections in American history Laura Bush moved into the White House Here she captures presidential life in the harrowing days and weeks after 9 11 when fighter jet cover echoed through the walls and security scares sent the family to an underground shelter She writes openly about the White House during wartime the withering and relentless media spotlight and the transformation of her role as she began to understand the power of the first lady One of the first U S officials to visit war torn Afghanistan she also reached out to disease stricken African nations and tirelessly advocated for women in the Middle East and dissidents in Burma She championed programs to get kids out of gangs and to stop urban violence And she was a major force in rebuilding Gulf Coast schools and libraries post Katrina Movingly she writes of her visits with U S troops and their loved ones and of her empathy for and immense gratitude to military families With deft humor and a sharp eye Laura Bush lifts the curtain on what really happens inside the White House from presidential finances to the 175 year old tradition of separate bedrooms for presidents and their wives to the antics of some White House guests and even a few members of Congress She writes with honesty and eloquence about her family her public triumphs and her personal tribulations Laura Bush s compassion her sense of humor her grace and her uncommon willingness to bare her heart make this story revelatory beautifully rendered and unlike any other first lady s memoir ever written
