The Heritage 199:

The Heritage Crusade and the Spoils of History David Lowenthal, 1998-05-13 Heritage has burgeoned over the past quarter of a century from a small lite preoccupation into a major popular crusade Everything from Disneyland to the Holocaust Museum from the Balkan wars to the Northern Irish Troubles from Elvis memorabilia to the Elgin Marbles bears the marks of the cult of heritage In this acclaimed book David Lowenthal explains the rise of this new obsession with the past and examines its power for both good and evil Timely and provocative brilliant and stimulating pyrotechnic everything from the Pilgrim Fathers to the Inuits from Homer s Greece to the rainforests of Brazil Roy Strong The Sunday Times entertaining and enthralling Ben Pimlott The Guardian

The Heritage-scape Michael A. Di Giovine, 2009-01-01 This book explores how the mere designation of World Heritage sites can achieve UNESCO s goal of creating lasting worldwide peace Drawing on ethnography policy analysis and a sophisticated fusion of anthropological theories Di Giovine convincingly reveals the existence of a global heritage scape and provides a detailed yet expansive look at the politics and processes histories and structures and the rituals and symbolisms of the interrelated phenomena of tourism historic preservation and UNESCO s World Heritage Convention

The Heritage Turn in China Carol Ludwig, Linda Walton, Yi-Wen Wang, 2025-10-01 The Heritage Turn in China The Reinvention Dissemination and Consumption of Heritage focuses on heritage discourse and practice in China today as it has evolved from the heritage turn that can be dated to the 1990s Using a variety of disciplinary approaches to regionally and topically diverse case studies the contributors to this edited volume show how particular versions of the past are selected re invented disseminated and consumed for contemporary purposes These studies explore how the Chinese state utilises heritage not only for tourism entertainment educational and commercial purposes but also as part of broader political strategies on both the national and international stage Together they argue that the Chinese state deploys modes of heritage governance to construct new modernities while strengthening collective national identity in support of both its political legitimacy and its claim to status as an international superpower The authors also consider ways in which state management of heritage is contested by some stakeholders whose embrace of heritage has a different purpose and meaning

The Heritage of the English Library Raymond Irwin, 2021-12-12 Originally published in 1964 this volume continues the studies of the history of libraries and incorporates material included in The Origins of the English Library with some additional material It was published at a time when there was a marked revival of interest in the historical background of libraries and reading The book examines the social and intellectual background against which libraries have prospered and the roots in both classical and medieval periods from which they came This book will be of interest to historians librarians and educationalists

War and the Historic Environment Michael Dawson, 2024-07-19 This book explores how societies deal with the effects of war on the historic environment Written by historians archaeologists and conservation professionals it offers a dramatic perspective on the war in Ukraine It reveals the truth behind the Kremlin s just war narrative and touches on the complex relationship between war society and the historic environment with examples of heritage conservation archaeology and political expediency from Europe to Namibia Prompted by the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022 the first section Frontline Ukraine examines the manipulation of history the use of propaganda and the decolonisation of Russian memorials in former Soviet states It highlights how illegal archaeological excavations looting and the removal of museum collections beginning from seizure of Crimea in 2014 until the present day have contributed to an increasingly implausible Russian narrative which attempts to represent an imperial land grab as a just war In the second section Aspects of War the authors provide a wider perspective with chapters on the influence of film the effect of war on conservation forensic archaeology the reconstruction of damaged or destroyed museums as well as the relationship between America and the Hague Convention Topical and lucid this volume will be beneficial to students and researchers of history archaeology politics and international relations The chapters in this book were originally published in The Historic Environment Policy Practice and are accompanied by an updated introduction and a new conclusion

The Heritage of Edirne in Ottoman and Turkish Times Birgit Krawietz, Florian Riedler, 2019-12-16 Modern scholarship has not given Edirne the attention it deserves regarding its significance as one of the capitals of the Ottoman Empire This edited volume offers a reinterpretation of Edirne's history from Early Ottoman times to recent periods of the Turkish Republic Presently disconnections and discontinuities introduced by the transition from empire to nation state still characterize the image of the city and the historiography about it In contrast this volume examines how the city engages in the forming deflecting and creative appropriation of its heritage a process that has turned Edirne into a UNESCO heritage hotspot A closer historical analysis demonstrates the dissonances and contradictions that these different interpretations and uses of heritage produce From the beginning Edirne was shaped by its connectivity and relationality to other places above all to Istanbul This perspective is employed at many different levels e.g. with regard to its population institutions architecture infrastructures and popular culture but also regarding the imaginations Edirne triggered In sum this multi disciplinary volume boosts urban history beyond Istanbul and offers new insight into Ottoman and Turkish connectivities from the vantage point of certain key moments of Edirne's history

The Heritage of Traditional Malay Literature V.I. Braginsky, 2022-06-20 Traditional literature or the deed of the reed pen as it was called by its creators is not only the most valuable part of the cultural heritage of the Malay people but also a shared legacy of Malaysia Indonesia Singapore and Brunei Malay culture during its heyday saw the entire Universe as a piece of literature written by the Creator with the Sublime Pen on the Guarded Tablet Literature was not just the creation of a scribe but a scribe himself imprinting words on the sheet of memory and thus shaping human personality This book the first comprehensive survey of traditional Malay literature in English since 1939 embraces more than a millennium of Malay letters from the vague data of the seventh century up to the early beginnings of the modern literatures in the late nineteenth century The long path trodden by traditional Malay literature is viewed in historical and theoretical perspectives as a development of integral system caused by cultural and religious changes primarily by gradual Islamization This changing system considered in the entirety of its genres and works is seen both externally and internally from the point of view of modern scholarship and through the examination of indigenous concepts of literary creativity poetics and aesthetics The book not only represents an original study based on a specific historico theoretical approach but it is also a complete reference work and an indispensable manual for students
