Skating To Antarctica A Journey To The End Of The World:

Skating to Antarctica Jenny Diski, 1997 This travel journal traces a personal journey to Antarctica For over 30 years Jenny Diski was content to leave the question as to whether her mother was alive or dead unanswered Not knowing the fate of the violent woman she last saw shortly after her father's death in 1966 filled her with a sense of relief rather than of loss Then just as Diski is planning a trip to the dream world of ice her own teenage daughter decides to investigate what had happened to her crazy missing maternal grandmother Terra Antarctica William L. Fox, 2011-04-15 How does the human mind transform space into place or land into landscape For more than three decades William L Fox has looked at empty landscapes and the role of the arts to investigate the way humans make sense of space In Terra Antarctica Fox continues this line of inquiry as he travels to the Antarctic the largest and most extreme desert on earth This contemporary travel narrative interweaves artistic cartographic and scientific images with anecdotes from the author's three month journey in the Antarctic to create an absorbing and readable narrative of the remote continent Through its images history and firsthand experiences snowmobile trips through whiteouts and his icy solo hikes past the edge of the mapped world Fox brings to life a place that few have seen and offers us a look into both the nature of landscape and ourselves Creative Writing Jane Yeh, Sally O'Reilly, 2022-11-10 Creative Writing A Workbook with Readings provides a complete creative writing course from ways to jump start your writing and inspire your creativity right through to presenting your work to agents and publishers It covers the genres of fiction poetry and life writing including autobiography biography and travel writing combining discussions of technique with readings and exercises to guide you step by step towards becoming more adept at creative writing The second edition has been updated and in large part newly written with readings by a diverse group of contemporary authors displaying a variety of styles and approaches Each chapter also features an array of inspiring writing exercises enabling you to experiment with different methods and discover your strengths Above all Creative Writing A Workbook with Readings will help you to develop your abilities while nurturing your individual voice as a writer Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This
