interactivity with audiences Journalistic Practices in Restrictive Contexts Banafsheh Ranji, 2022-09-01 Based on fieldwork conducted in Iran this book discusses how it is possible for journalism to exist and function in a restrictive context. The book brings together a range of structural macro organizational meso and individual micro processes to analyze journalistic practice in a politically restrictive setting a context thus far dominated by structural explanations. Using Pierre Bourdieu's work as a starting point Banafsheh Ranji develops an explanatory framework for how Iranian journalists navigate the daily minefield of their professional environment. The analysis sheds light on the everyday reality of journalism in Iran addressing factors that hinder journalists' work while also showing how journalists use a set of double game strategies to simultaneously circumvent constraints and avoid retaliation. Moving beyond notions of censorship and repression that accompany discussions of journalism in such settings the book instead focuses on how we may think of critical journalism professionalism and journalistic power agency and autonomy in restrictive contexts. Offering powerful insights into the realities of journalism in a tightly controlled environment this book will be a key resource for scholars and students of journalism media and communication studies political science sociology Iranian studies and Middle East studies Women and Media in the Middle East Naomi Sakr, 2004-09-24 Is today's changing media landscape in the Middle East empowering women? This is the first book to address the dynamics of media ecology and women's advancement in the contemporary Middle East. The book spans both the region and media forms from Iran's women's press via Maghrebi women filmmakers and Egyptian political films Palestinian TV and Hezbollah's TV station Al Manar. It takes as its starting point the diverse experiences and multi-layered identities of women and treats media institutions and practices as part of wider power relations in society. By analysing media production consumption and texts it reveals where and how gender boundaries have been erected or crossed Creating the Modern Iranian Woman Liora Hendelman-Baavur, 2019-11-07 A fresh look at Iranian popular culture and women's role within this prior to the 1979 Revolution
