Leaders of Learning Richard DuFour, Robert J. Marzano, 2011-07-26 For many years the authors have been fellow travelers on the journey to help educators improve their schools Their first coauthored book focuses on district leadership principal leadership and team leadership and addresses how individual teachers can be most effective in leading students by learning with colleagues how to implement the most promising pedagogy in their classrooms

The Politics Of Education And The New Institutionalism William Lowe Boyd, Robert L. Crowson, Hanne M. Mawhinney, 2015-12-22 This is an assessment of the reluctance of American education institutions to undergo change and reform at a time when it is considered necessary The lack of public confidence in educational institutions is discussed along with the subsequent consequences The Critic, 1991 How Schools Change Tony Wagner, 2002-12-24 The first edition of How Schools Change chronicled the efforts of three very different high schools to improve teaching and learning in the early 1990s. Now in a new second edition Wagner concisely summarizes the decade long history of education reform efforts and revisits the three communities at the beginning of a new century The Stone Trumpet Richard A. Gibboney, 1994-07-22 Educational Administration Judith Chapman, 2020-08-04 Both the theory and practice of educational administration have undergone major changes in recent years. There is now more theoretical diversity in the field than at any other time with influences from traditional and post-positivist science, subjectivism, ethics, critical theory, and cultural studies. Similarly, social, political, and economic factors have brought about new approaches to practice. Schools administration in particular is increasingly being dominated by decentralization and pressures for accountability on curriculum and educational outcomes. Educational Administration is the first Australian text to offer a comprehensive survey of theory, context, and practice. It includes chapters from leading Australian scholars such as Richard Bates, Hedley Beare, Brian Caldwell, Gabriele Lakowski, and Fazal Rizvi The Politics of Education and the New Institutionalism Robert L. Crowson, William Lowe Boyd, Hanne B. Mawhinney, 1996 This is an assessment of the reluctance of American education institutions to undergo change and reform at a time when it is considered necessary. The lack of public confidence in educational institutions is discussed along with the subsequent consequences A Scent of Water Edward Earwood, Phil Suiter, 2012-09-21 A Scent of Water is a message of hope for the Christian school movement, a movement that is currently lacking vision, struggles with enrollment declines, and battles budget limitations. This message derives from scriptural truth and the findings of empirical research and recommends a means for restoring a vision for the ministry. The local Christian school must become the site for transforming the movement into one that focuses upon student learning and a clear delineation of student goals. The authors examine schools as social and cultural systems that must be understood. A Scent of Water describes the type of leadership that must characterize the movement and proposes an active, vibrant, and collaborative role for classroom teachers working with building principals who see themselves as capacity builders building strength and knowledge within the teaching staff to bring a scent of water that will revitalize and transform the movement The Case for Pragmatic Psychology Daniel Fishman, 2016-04-26 The best method is the one that works. Should be read not only by professional psychologists but by anyone interested in the future of mind-related science. John Horgan, author of The End of Science. A cursory survey of the field of psychology reveals raging debate among psychologists about the methods, goals, and significance of the discipline. Psychology's own version of the science wars. The previous unification of the discipline has given way to a proliferation of competing approaches, a postmodern carnival of theories and methods that calls into question the positivist psychological tradition. Bridging the gap between the traditional and the novel, Daniel B. Fishman proposes an invigorated hybrid model for the practice of psychology, a radical pragmatic reinvention of psychology based on databases of rigorous solution focused case studies In The Case for Pragmatic Psychology Fishman demonstrates how pragmatism returns psychology to a focus on contextualized knowledge about particular individuals groups organizations and communities in specific situations sensitive to the complexities and ambiguities of the real world Fishman fleshes out his theory by applying pragmatic psychology to two contemporary psychosocial dilemmas the controversies surrounding the psychotherapy crisis generated by the growth of managed care and the heated culture wars over educational reform Moving with ease from the theoretical to the nuts and bolts of actual psychological intervention programs Fishman proffers a strong argument for a new kind of psychology with far reaching implications for enhancing human services and restructuring public policy The New York Times Book Review ,1992-10 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Prisoners of Time Research United States.
