What's That Smell? Simon Hajdini, 2024-03-05 How our sense of smell engages with philosophy psychoanalysis and political economy and how it can help enrich our understanding of the nature of truth language economy and sexuality Why is it that in Indo European languages at least we have no language to describe smells leaving us and famously Juliet no choice but to call the scent of a rose simply sweet In What's That Smell a groundbreaking exploration of the intersection between philosophy psychoanalysis and the oft neglected sense of smell Simon Hajdini sets out to answer this complex question Through new readings of traditional and modern philosophical texts Hajdini places smell at the very center of a philosophical critique of the traditional notion of truth challenging the idea that smell is the antiphilosophical sense par excellence Through fresh engagements with fundamental philosophical issues original analyses of modern literature and film and the novel use of scientific research into smell within a humanities context Hajdini situates problems of olfaction at the very point of inception of cultural life He proposes that ontology civilization and capitalist economy alike can be said to amount to shit management And only by following the philosophically most deplorable of the senses the book argues can we better understand the central philosophical psychoanalytical and political issues of truth sex and exploitation Stalking, Tracking, and Playing Games in the Wild Mark Warren, 2020-09-01 Excellence and care guide every quiet step Mark Warren makes to follow him teaches unique wonderful truths about one's connection to the Earth and its inhabitants Rhyse Bendell Medicine Bow summer camper and student Mark leads the modern reader along the almost forgotten paths of wood lore natural medicine and self sufficiency Emily Ghiz baker and Montessori teacher In this third volume of the Secrets of the Forest series outdoor educator Mark Warren opens the door to experiences with wildlife such as how to stalk animals of the wild without being detected by their keen senses This discipline addresses posture clothing diet de scenting and soft walking the ultra slow motion technique that falls below the radar of wildlife's peripheral vision how to read individual tracks and multiple gaits of specific animal species how to convert animal skins into rawhide and leather for crafts and clothing how to differentiate species of snakes and in the process demystify their often misunderstood intentions The second half of the book is dedicated to games Its main purpose is to ensure that young ones under an adult leader simply have fun on an outing and will want to return to nature for another adventure Some of these games come from Native American traditions but many are new and range from high action to pensive around the campfire kinds of activities This volume contains more than one hundred fifty original adventures
