Two months after his birthday he was marching towards the Somme where he was to act as a runner during the key Welsh engagement in the Battle of Mametz Wood. Later he went on to volunteer and train as a sniper. He continued in this role for over a year becoming a lance corporal in the 38th Divisional Sniping Company while fighting on the Ypres Salient. His words emphasise the key role snipers played in the collecting of intelligence about the enemy through close observation and careful reporting. His account stops abruptly in mid sentence just at the point where he indicates he is about to reveal more to us about a new interesting part of the line to be manned by us Snipers. Piecing together clues from his sketches, maps and photos and this book paints a picture of Williams' time during the rest of the war. In 1917 he returned to England to train as a temporary officer in the 18th Officer Cadet Battalion at Prior Park Bath. He came back to the Western Front as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Duke of Wellington's West Riding Regiment where he was seconded to the 15th Lancashire Fusiliers until the end of the war. During this time it is likely that his interest and experience as a sniper continued with evidence that he may have taught at one of the Sniping Schools set up across France.
