Back to the Cross Watchman Nee, 1988-12-01 This volume is a compilation of various writings and addresses given by the great Chinese pastor author Watchman Nee in the early days of his ministry in which he appeals to Christians to seek for higher life and service New Steps in Religious Education Michael Keene, 1999 Teachers can rely on these resources for help in lesson preparation and background research of topics Each topic comprises a range of differentiated copymasters and information for teachers helpfully cross referenced to the Pupils Books More appropriate for a range of pupils than many core text materials as it contains progressive questions and activities The pack fits easily into individual teaching approaches with any other resources Teachers can save time on classroom management as suggested further resources are provided

Death by Appointment Ilora Finlay, Robert Preston, 2020-09-28 This is a book about a controversial issue whether doctors should be licensed by law to supply lethal drugs to terminally ill patients It is written primarily for those who want to find a path through the thickets of a subject that transcends many fields of expertise The authors have considerable experience of the matters about which they write involving both research and hands on medical care of dying people They are not neutral about assisted dying they are not convinced that the law is in need of change However the book employs an evidence based approach and brings much needed clarity to such complex issues as how the existing law works how medical practice operates at the end of life and what has been the experience of jurisdictions that have gone down the assisted dying road Above all the book shows respect for the views of others who may judge the evidence differently Capital.

Illustrated Karl Marx, 2020-01-14 Das Kapital also called Capital A Critique of Political Economy is the most cited book in the social sciences published before 1950 Marx aimed to reveal the economic patterns underpinning the capitalist mode of production in contrast to classical political economists such as Adam Smith Jean Baptiste Say David Ricardo and John Stuart Mill Marx proposes that the motivating force of capitalism is in the exploitation of labor whose unpaid work is the ultimate source of surplus value Das Kapital proposes an explanation of the laws of motion of the capitalist economic system from its origins to its future by describing the dynamics of the accumulation of capital the growth of wage labour the transformation of the workplace the concentration of capital commercial competition the banking system the decline of the profit rate and
