A Linguistic Description and Computer Program for Children's Speech (RLE Linguistics C) Geoffrey J. Turner, Bernard A.

Mohan, 2014-01-10 This book presents a framework for the linguistic analysis of speech and a computer program to process the results of this analysis The model of description for the linguistic analysis is that known as scale and category grammar It is particularly suited for a study of how people use their language and especially for a sociologically oriented study of linguistic behaviour By incorporating a concept of delicacy it enables the investigator to vary according to his particular interests the amount of detail he enters into at various points in the description The present authors have made use of this facility and discuss the special interests sociological and psychological that influenced their choice of detail The computer program analyzes the grammatical structures written in a linear notation A second version has been written which allows easy modification to handle a variety of grammatical schemes and the program has application to the processing of the analysis of sequential behaviour in general especially where there are complex relations between the units analyzed The Sociology of Education Ivor Morrish, 2019-09-02 First published in 1972 this book aims to provide an introduction to the teacher or teacher in training to society and its relationship to education Although very much a product of its time rather than an instructive text for teachers in the 21st century this work will be of interest to those studying the evolution of the study of Sociolinguistics / Soziolinguistik.
