

Nurses in Europe codesigning an EU value-based health and social care ecosystem

Dr Paul De Raeve, Secretary-General of the European Federation of Nurses Associations (EFN) provides an in-depth perspective on the extent to which nurses in Europe are codesigning an EU value-based health and social care ecosystem

In a European society where a growing number of people live with co-morbidities, non-communicable diseases and need complex care interventions, health and social care systems are expected to give greater importance to value-based outcomes. Value-based health and social care (VBHSC) is based on the patient's experience, with a focus on the quality of life, rather than the length of stay and moving away from medical diagnoses and complications systems (ICD-10 and DRG system) towards achieved outcomes from a patient perspective.

As different dimensions need to be considered in the health and social status, the promotion of healthy lifestyles is to be included in the value-based health and social care systems and as such, patients, providers and researchers should co-design the reforms needed to achieve an inclusive system for both prevention and promotion, so that they are stepping in before you get a disease. This approach refers to both self-management and co-responsibility.

In this context, the advanced role of nurses is necessary to respond to patients and citizens' unmet needs within a people-centred approach, based on the tailored continuity of care pathways which until today, has failed to turn integrated care into a reality, often financed through EU pilots.

However, to ensure a thorough implementation of an EU value-based health and social care ecosystem approach, it is key to shift from a fee-for-service payment system – which prioritises the volume of interventions over effective, efficient and even safe people-centred care – towards bundled payments, prioritising care pathways and continuity of care thus leaving the medical DRG approach behind.

The European debate¹

The current discussion on value-based healthcare, not value-based health and social care, is often approached as a disruptive model of healthcare for Europe, hitting most of the EU policy debates, demonstrating that health is a top concern not only for EU citizens but also for politicians and health stakeholders.

However, a reflection process on disruptive innovation for health in Europe understood as 'creating new markets or add substantial value to the existing market' is too limited for investing in such a fundamental reform. We need to go beyond the market and growth discussion, focusing on improving outcomes for patients and citizens not just in the health sector, but combining health and social care, which are two interlinked sectors.

Add to the value-based equation key components as trust, user-centred innovation and data enabling technology to act, next to teamwork and health literacy, this will make the transformation of the existing models less disruptive for patients, citizens and healthcare professionals committed to their profession in the most complex and difficult working conditions they must operate in. The slogan "take care of those who care" needs to be taken more seriously when designing value-based health and social care ecosystems in the EU.

Social Care In Europe:

Social Care in Europe Brian Munday, Peter Ely, 1996 A comparative study of social care provision in the member states of the European Union After sections on definitions and the context for social care in these countries the authors look in more detail at the institutional framework provided by the European Union itself Long-Term Care in Europe K.

Leichsenring, J. Billings, H. Nies, 2013-02-04 Drawing on research across a wide range of European countries this book analyzes the key issues at stake in developing long term care systems for older people in Europe with a focus on progression and improvement for policy and practice The Transformation of Care in European Societies Margarita

Leon, 2016-04-30 This book aims to explore the nature and extent of the care deficit problem in European societies and how effective the different care systems are in dealing with these problems through policy innovation It combines theoretical and conceptual debates cross national comparisons and analytically driven case studies Reforming Long-term Care in Europe

Joan Costa-Font, 2011-08-24 Reforming Long term Care in Europe offers the most up to date analysis of the features and developments of long term care in Europe Each chapter focuses on a key question in the policy debate in each country and offers a description and analysis of each system Offers the very latest analysis of long term care reform agendas in Europe Compares countries comparatively less studied with the experiences of reform in Germany the UK Netherlands and Sweden Each chapter focuses on a key question in the policy debate in each country and portrays a description and analysis of each system Contributions from a wide range of European scholars for an exceptionally broad perspective The Provision of Public Services in Europe Hellmut Wollmann, Gérard Marcou, 2010-01-01 The book is the first of its kind to provide a comparative analysis of the provision of social and public services in France Italy Germany the UK and Norway This volume co authored by leading national experts topically examines whether when how and why the delivery of social and public services which was historically a responsibility of local authorities has been significantly shifted to marketized and commodified forms However despite this considerable change there have been recent indications of remunicipalisation in some sectors Combining both cross country and cross policy co Older Workers In Europe Chiva, Anthony, Manthorpe,

Jill, 2008-11-01 This book brings together an extraordinarily diverse collection of insights from a wide range of experts A broad overview is created by the foreword from Jumbo Klercq This sets the scene for the subsequent chapters which examine more specific approaches and ways of tackling age diversity and ageing in the workplace Older Workers in Europe is ideal for students of gerontology social policy sociology and human resource management It will also be of interest to policy makers and professionals working in the fields of employment and guidance policy economics labour force development and research Book Jacket Long-Term Care and Older People in Western Europe Eloísa del Pino, Francisco Javier

Moreno-Fuentes, 2025-06-30 Based on a comparative study covering 15 Western European countries this edited volume examines the responses of long term care homes for older people to the COVID 19 pandemic It analyses the preparedness of governments and residences and the structural weaknesses revealed and exacerbated by the crisis such as staff shortages the precariousness of employment in the sector and the deficient coordination between the health and caring sectors By examining the governance structures of the care home sector and their performance before and during the crisis the book highlights the institutional organisational and management challenges facing care homes both in continuing to provide services to an increasingly ageing population and in the event of future public health crises

Contemporary Issues in Health and Social Care Policy and Practice Julia Morgan, Vincent La Placa, 2025-02-07 This accessible text presents a comparative analysis of health and social care policy and practice from around the world with learning points drawn out for the UK It supports readers to improve practice by reflecting on differences and similarities in the policies of other OECD countries Divided into two parts the book opens with a focus on core concepts in health and social care policy and practice such as service user involvement the promotion of wellbeing health inequalities funding and integrated care The differing philosophical socio political and historical perspectives that underpin these key areas in different countries are explored in order to develop a greater understanding of the UK system The second part of the book takes a close look at a range of specific contemporary issues such as end of life care long term conditions homelessness refugee and migrant health disability domestic abuse substance use and women in prison These in depth case study chapters enable readers to identify best practices and challenges in relation to specific areas of health and social care policy and practice Ideal for undergraduate students studying health and social care policy from a range of disciplinary backgrounds this practical text provides a deeper understanding of complex health and social care issues and supports the development of a global and comparative skill set

Solidarity in Health and Social Care in Europe W. Arts, R. Muffels, 2013-03-14 OF SOLIDARITY IN UK SOCIAL WELFARE Here then perhaps is a British version of solidarity in social welfare but early there are strong tensions between the powerfully liberal individualistic strands of the British understanding of the functions of the state and the socialistic or communitarian tendency of a commitment to universal welfare provision In the search for the roots of this understanding of welfare we shall survey first the historical background to these tensions in some early British political philosophers starting with Hobbes and ending with Mill We then consider the philosophical and social influences on the Beveridge Report itself and we will trace the emergence of the philosophy of the welfare state in the era following the Second World War Finally we consider the contemporary debate as it relates to the Third Way thinking of New Labour

2 A HISTORICAL SKETCH In the previous section we observed that the philosophy underlying the Beveridge Report could be described as liberal collectivism What are the historical antecedents of this strange amalgam of individualism and collectivism Within the short scope of this chapter any account of the philosophical history must be little more than a sketch but we can perhaps understand most debates in British socio political thought as a continuing dialogue with the well known claim of Thomas Hobbes in Leviathan that all political institutions are founded on egoistic motives

Care Between Work and Welfare in European Societies

B. Pfau-Effinger, T. Rostgaard, 2011-06-14 This book provides insights into the theoretical framework of tensions related to care for children and the elderly It analyzes if and under what conditions welfare state reforms have contributed to strengthening existing tensions creating new tensions or relaxing such tensions Health Care and EU Law Johan Willem van de Gronden, Erika Szyszczak, Ulla Neergaard, Markus Krajewski, 2011-05-18 The EU has only limited competence to regulate national health care systems but recent developments have shown that health care is not immune from the effects of EU law As Member States have increasingly experimented with new forms of funding and the delivery of health care and social welfare services health care issues have not escaped scrutiny from the EU internal market and from competition and procurement rules The market oriented EU rules now affect these national experiments as patients and health care providers turn to EU law to assert certain rights The recent debates on the draft Directive on Patients Rights further underline the importance but also the difficulty and controversy of allowing EU law to regulate health care The topicality of the range of issues related to health care and EU law was addressed in October 2009 at a conference held in Nijmegen The Netherlands The present volume contains inter alia the proceedings of this conference and invited essays This volume follows the publication of The Changing Legal Framework for Services of General Interest in Europe Between Competition and Solidarity Krajewski M et al eds 2009 T M C Asser Press The Hague and launches a new series Legal Issues of Services of General Interest The aim of the series is to sketch the framework for services of general interest in the EU and to explore the issues raised by developments related to these services The book is compulsory reading for everyone who is engaged in issues relating to health care and EU law Johan van de Gronden is Professor of European Law at the Law Faculty of the Radboud University Nijmegen the Netherlands Erika Szyszczak is a Jean Monnet Professor of European Law ad personam and Professor of European Competition and Labour Law at the University of Leicester UK Ulla Neergaard is Professor of EU law at the Law Faculty of the University of Copenhagen Denmark Markus Krajewski is Professor of International Public Law Faculty of Law University of Erlangen Nuremberg Germany Long-term Care for the Elderly in Europe Bent Greve, 2016-12-01 Long term care is an increasingly important issue in many contemporary welfare states around the globe given ageing populations This ground breaking book provides detailed case studies of 11 EU member states welfare regimes within Europe to show how welfare states organize structures and deliver long term care and whether there is a social investment perspective in the delivery of long term care This perspective is important because the effect of demographic transitions is often used as an argument for the existence of economic pressure on welfare states and a need for either direct retrenchment or attempts to reduce welfare state spending The book s chapters will look specifically into how different welfare states have focussed on long term care in recent years and what type of changes have taken place with regard to ageing populations and ambitions to curb increases in public sector spending in this area They describe the development in long term care for the elderly after the financial crisis and also discuss the boundaries between state and civil society in the different welfare states approaches to the delivery of care Issues and Opportunities in Primary Health Care for Children in Europe Mitch Blair, Michael Rigby, Denise Alexander, 2019-05-06 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access and is freely available to read online This book presents the scientific findings of a three year project across 30 EU and EEA countries assessing primary care for children throughout the life course drawing from 20 academic partners analysis of evidence produced by agents in each of the countries The Sustainability of Health Care Systems in Europe Badi H.

Groups In Europe: Moving Towards Transparency, Efficiency And Quality In Hospitals Busse, Reinhard, Geissler, Alexander, Quentin, Wilm, 2011-11-01 Summary The volumes in the European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies series focus on key issues for health policy making in Europe This book is a joint venture between the WHO EO and the EuroDRG which addresses the challenges of using Diagnosis Related Group systems in Europe Nordic Welfare States in the European Context Johan Fritzell, Bjorn Hvinden, Mikko Kautto, Jon Kvist, Hannu Uusitalo, 2005-07-28 This important sequel to Nordic Social Policy Routledge 1999 compares welfare state development over the last twenty years in Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden with that of Germany the Netherlands the United Kingdom and other Western European countries Topics covered include income distribution health inequalities and gender equality gender policies health and social care services and policy reaction to family changes social security and employment policies financing of welfare states In the context of globalisation ageing populations changing employment patterns and rising inequalities Nordic Welfare States in the European Context offers an empirical analysis of welfare adaptations and a lively discussion of the historical development of European social policy It finds a greater ambiguity regarding variation and trends than is commonly suggested Contrary to expectation there is little evidence of the Europeanisation of Nordic welfare states rather the reverse The comparable and empirical data used in this study make it a unique contribution to understanding current trends in European social policy Local Welfare Policy Making in European Cities Dagmar Kutsar, Marjo Kuronen, 2015-04-24 This book focuses on how EU welfare policies are implemented at the local level in 11 European cities and how local policy making addresses women s care responsibilities The book studies the complex combination of and the relationships between local political processes policies institutions structural conditions and outputs as well as outcomes for the women s labour market integration It demonstrates how cultural settings and multi level governance patterns form the playground for local policy makers to formulate their welfare policies concerning service provision The book further demonstrates how local production systems and the situation of the local labour market influence the prospects that women have in working and caring EU welfare policy promotes the labour market integration of women as well as gender equality The provision of adequate care services is vital in supporting women s employment Within comparative welfare research the focus has been on the national welfare systems and policies even if care services are overwhelmingly provided by local authorities that in many EU member states enjoy considerable autonomy This book fills the gap in understanding local welfare policy making from a comparative perspective
