

SONNET 23

As an unperfect actor on the stage,
Who with his fear is put besides his part,
Or some fierce thing replete with too much rage,
Whose strength's abundance weakens his own heart;
So I, for fear of trust, forget to say
The perfect ceremony of love's rite,
And in mine own love's strength seem to decay,
O'ercharg'd with burden of mine own love's might.
O let my books be then the eloquence
And dumb presagers of my speaking breast,
Who plead for love and look for recompense
More than that tongue that more hath more express'd.

O, learn to read what silent love hath writ:
To hear with eyes belongs to love's fine wit.

James, 2022-10-19 Your Sonnet For The Day was inspired by Pratibha's own musings across her childhood which were spent in Scotland Iraq and other countries before she returned to her homeland India The well known sonnet is a short poem of fourteen lines that revolves around love and emotions but it can also be the perfect style for expressing a single idea or thought Pratibha's sonnets go beyond the conventional romantic pentameter and explores strong emotions of life through her quatrains Her sonnet's power comes from her ability to capture the essence of our emotional entanglement with life clearly and succinctly These compositions are well received for its setting in a modern tableau which serves as a wonderful context to introduce poetry for children within the Common Wealth Adults will also find the prose familiar as each sonnet exfoliates the whispers that we all have but rarely find the words to express them Surely this book will awaken the poet in each of us
