Maul Tricia Sullivan,2013-10-31 The gun straps to the inside of my leg with Velcro It s not the absolute zenith of fashion to do this anymore but girls who wear theirs with leather straps and buckles aren t serious with Velcro you can get at the thing when you need it I also have a pink ammo belt It s heavy but who said fashion was easy In a mall like any other a gang of teenage girls are suddenly caught up in a maelstrom of shopping and violence But as the designer bullets fly it is not only their own lives they are fighting for Unknown to them they are battling for the life of a man trapped in another place in a different world and with very different enemies He is a man they have never met but who represents the future of the human race or could destroy it

Iain Sinclair Brian Baker,2013-01-18 A clearly written comprehensive critical introduction to one of the most original contemporary British writers providing an overview of all of Sinclair s major works and an analysis of his vision of modern London This book places Sinclair in a range of contexts including the late 1960s counter culture and the British Poetry Revival London s underground histories the rise and fall of Thatcherism and Sinclair s writing about Britain under New Labour Sinclair s connection to other writers and artists such as J G Ballard Michael Moorcock and Marc Atkins This book makes a significant contribution to the growing scholarship surrounding Sinclair s work offering the first critical text that covers in detail all of Sinclair s work his poetry fiction non fiction including his book on John Clare Edge of the Orison and his film work

Iain Sinclair: Noise, Neoliberalism and the Matter of London Niall Martin,2015-09-24 For much of the 20th century the modernist city was articulated in terms of narratives of progress and development Today the neoliberal city confronts us with all the cultural noise of disorder and excess meaning As this book demonstrates for more than 40 years London based writer film maker and psychogeographer Iain Sinclair has proved to be one of the most incisive commentators on the contemporary city tracing the emerging contours of a metropolis where the meeting of global and local is never without incident Iain Sinclair Noise Neoliberalism and the Matter of London explores Sinclair s investigations into the nature of conflicting urban realities through an examination of the ways in which the noise of neoliberal excess intersects with the noise of literary experiment In this way the book casts new light on theorisations of the city in the contemporary era

Englishness Simon Featherstone,2009-01-15 This book examines the conflicts dilemmas and contradictions that marked Englishness as the nation changed from an imperial power to a postcolonial state The chapters deal with travel writing popular song music hall and variety theatre dances elocution lessons cricket and football and national festivals as well as literature and film High and popular cultures are brought together in dialogue and the diversity as well as the problematic nature of English identity is emphasised The case studies are linked by their interests in different kinds of performances of being English and by a particular focus upon the voice and the body as key sites for the struggles of modern England The book is a lively contribution to current interdisciplinary debates about Englishness national cultures and postcolonial identities It is relevant to undergraduate students of literature drama film politics and sociology and will also appeal to a general readership Urban Ethic Eamonn Canniffe, 2006 Looks at the development of urban design focusing on four elements the physical dimension of monuments and spaces and the humanist dimension of patterns and narrative in cities

Cultural Analysis Jim McGuigan, 2009-09-26 Jim McGuigan has done it again The complex cultural machinery hiding behind the apparently simple facts of life still fresh in our collective memory has been pulled out from its hiding exposed disassembled and put together again and showed in action of shaping up its products all that done to the benefit of us all simultaneously producers and product of the life we share Another great contribution to cultural studies and to our understanding of the world notorious for defying escaping understanding This is exactly what we need cultural analysis for Professor Zygmunt Bauman Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of Leeds Jim McGuigan is one of cultural studies leading practitioners This volume is a generous and wide reaching exploration of how to use cultural theory to explore a wide variety of topics brought together under the sign of the struggle for a vigorous participatory public sphere Toby Miller University of California This book represents a distinctive approach to cultural analysis using multi dimensional methods for addressing issues of public interest Stressing the impact of both neoliberalism and the formation of a cool capitalist culture that has colonised everyday life around much of the globe Jim McGuigan deploys his original concept of the cultural public sphere within several carefully analysed case studies including celebrity death festivals and urban regeneration race and multicultural controversy popular television social significance of the all purpose mobile communication device in a privatised and individualised way of life riskiness and uncertainty in the creative and media industries This is a radical intervention in the research agendas and conceptual development of cultural policy studies cultural sociology and more generally in the broad field known as cultural studies It offers challenging theoretical arguments that are substantiated with concrete evidence of cultural and social processes British Fiction of the 1990s Nick Bentley, 2007-05-07 The 1990s proved to be a particularly rich and fascinating period for British fiction This book presents a fresh perspective on the diverse writings that appeared over the decade bringing together leading academics in the field British Fiction of the 1990s traces the concerns that emerged as central to 1990s fiction in sections on millennial anxieties identity politics the relationship between the contemporary and the historical and representations of contemporary space offers distinctive new readings of the most important novelists of the period including Martin Amis Beryl Bainbridge Pat Barker Julian Barnes A S Byatt Hanif Kureishi Ian McEwan Iain Sinclair Zadie Smith and Jeanette Winterson shows how British fiction engages with major cultural debates of the time such as the concern with representing various identities and cultural groups or theories of the end of history discusses 1990s fiction in relation to broader literary and critical theories including postmodernism post feminism and postcolonialism Together the essays highlight the ways in which the writing of the 1990s represents a development of the themes and styles of the post war novel generally yet displays a range of characteristics distinct to the decade Iain Sinclair Robert Sheppard, 2007 This study covers Iain Sinclair s major works but also seeks to trace the connections between his writings and earlier books of poetry Vanishing Streets J. M. Tyree, 2016-10-05 Vanishing Streets reveals an American writer's twenty-year love affair with London. Beguiling and idiosyncratic, obsessive and wry, it offers an illustrated travelogue of the peripheries retracing some of London's most curious locations. As J. M. Tyree wanders deliriously in the world's most visited city, he rediscovers and reinvents places that have changed drastically since he was a student at Cambridge in the 1990s. Tyree stumbles into the ghosts of Alfred Hitchcock, Graham Greene, and the pioneers of the British Free Cinema Movement. He offers a new way of seeing familiar landmarks through the lens of film history and reveals strange nooks and tiny oddities in out-of-the-way places from a lost film by John Ford supposedly shot in Wapping to the beehives hidden in Tower Hamlets Cemetery, an area haunted by a translation error in W. G. Sebald's Austerlitz. This book blends deeply personal writing with a foreigner's observations on a world capital experiencing an unsettling moment of transition. Vanishing Streets builds into an astonishing and innovative multi-layered project combining autobiography, movie madness, and postcard-like annotations on the magical properties of a great city. Tyree argues passionately for London as a cinematic dream city of perpetual fascinations and eccentricities bridging the past and the present as well as the real and the imaginary.

Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David

Anderson, 2020-08-27 This book situates the film maker Patrick Keiller alongside the writers W. G. Sebald and Iain Sinclair as the three leading voices in English psychogeography, offering new insights to key works including London, The Rings of Saturn, and Lights Out for the Territory. Excavating social and political contexts while also providing plentiful close analysis, it examines the cultivation of a distinctive affective mode or sensibility especially attuned to the cultural anxieties of the twentieth century's closing decades. Landscape and Subjectivity explores motifs including essayism, the reconciliation of creativity with market forces, and the foregrounding of an often agonised or melancholic. It asks whether the work can collectively be seen to constitute a critical theory of contemporary space and suggests that Keiller, Sebald, and Sinclair's contributions represent a highly significant moment in English culture's engagement with landscape, environment, and itself. The book's analyses are fuelled by archival and topographical research and are responsive to various interdisciplinary contexts, including the tradition of the English Journey, the set of ideas associated with the spatial turn, critical theory, the so-called heritage debate, and more recent theorisation of the Anthropocene. Thinking History 4-14 Dr Grant Bage, Grant Bage, 2014-01-21 In this book, the author looks at the past, present, and the future of history teaching in primary schools in an attempt to provide a practical framework for teachers. Section one reviews relevant literature with an aim to clarify the dilemmas and advance present thinking and practice in history teaching in primary schools. Section two offers case studies, curriculum materials, and designs teaching ideas and methods, teacher development, and curriculum development materials at the same time as tying it in to the existing knowledge base. Section three considers the perennial dilemmas for school history in the 21st century, including how can history survive in an increasingly over-crowded and competitive school curriculum.

How can history be harnessed to improvements in literacy and numeracy What should the primary history curriculum contain How can IT secure easier access to historical information and evidence London Peculiar and Other Nonfiction Michael Moorcock,2012-01-25 Voted by the London Times as one of the best writers since 1945 Michael Moorcock was shortlisted for the Whitbread Prize and won the Guardian Fiction Prize He has won almost all the major Science Fiction Fantasy and lifetime achievement awards including the Howie the Prix Utopiales and the Stoker Best known for his rule breaking SF and Fantasy including the classic Elric and Hawkmoon series he is also the author of several graphic novels Now in London Peculiar and Other Nonfiction Michael Moorcock personally selects the best of his published unpublished and uncensored essays articles reviews and opinions covering a wide range of subjects books films politics reminiscences of old friends and attacks on new foes Drawn from over fifty years of writing including his most recent work from the pages of the Los Angeles Times and the Guardian along with obscure and now unobtainable sources the pieces in London Peculiar and Other Nonfiction showcase Moorcock at his acerbic best They include London Peculiar an impassioned statement of Moorcock s memories of wartime London The architectural improvements wrought by the rebuilding of the city after World War Two brought cultural changes as well many to the detriment of the city s inhabitants Review of R Crumb s Genesis previously unavailable in English this lengthy review of the underground comic artist s retelling of the first book of the Bible leads Moorcock to address nostalgia for the sixties A Child s Christmas in the Blitz An autobiographical recounting of Moorcock s childhood in wartime London with memories of the freedom and hardships he encountered during the bombings and the happy times he spent with his parents These along with dozens more make this a collection Moorcock fans won t want to miss and the perfect introduction for new readers who will soon discover why Alan Moore Watchmen says Moorcock seizes the 21st century bull by its horns and wrestles it into submission with a Texan rodeo confidence After-Images of the City Joan Ramon Resina,Dieter Ingenschay,2018-08-06 Criticism on the textual and iconographic construction of the city is extensive yet the problem of historical change in representations of the urban has received little attention Believing traditional accounts are limited by their reflection of a specific historical moment Joan Ramon Resina and Dieter Ingenschay focus by contrast on transition In essays written for this volume scholars of literary and visual studies the history of architecture cultural theory and urban geography explore the ways perceptual or conceptual paradigms of the city supersede or replace others while at the same time retaining the after image of what went before The writers touch on a wide variety of issues related to contemporary urban cultures as they journey through cities including New York Barcelona Madrid Paris Tijuana Berlin and London Drawing on the work of Roland Barthes Walter Benjamin Camilo Jos Cela Honor de Balzac and Alfred Stieglitz their approach is broadly cultural rather than technical After Images of the City takes into account the intrinsic instability of the image and reveals that representations of the modern metropolis cannot be fixed in time and history London Narratives Lawrence Phillips,2006-09-25 The post war redevelopment of London has been the most extensive in its history and has been accompanied by a dramatic social and cultural upheaval This book explores the literary re imagining of the city in post war fiction and argues that the image history and narrative of the city has been transformed alongside the physical rebuilding and repositioning of the capital Drawing on the ideas of Michel de Certeau Henri Lefebvre Anthony Vigler and others as well as the latest work on urban representation this book is an important contribution to the study of the intersection between place lived experience and the literary imagination Texts covered include novels by some of the most significant and lesser known authors of the period including Graham Greene George Orwell J G Ballard Stella Gibbons David Lodge Doris Lessing B S Johnson Sam Selvon V S Naipaul Peter Ackroyd and Iain Sinclair Writing London J. Wolfreys,2004-08-11 Following on from Julian Wolfrey s successful Writing London 1998 this second volume extends Wolfrey s original argument that a new urban sensibility in the nineteenth century had been developed which established new ways of writing about and responding to the city Writing London Volume 2 explores through a range of readings of twentieth century films and texts the complex relationship between the experience of the city the pleasures of the urban text and the solitary nature of these pleasures The book has a broad focus in part dictated not only by the transformation of literary production in the twentieth century but also by the need to respond to the changes in both urban representation and London itself Writers discussed include Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Maureen Duffy Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair and Michael Moorcock The volume covers texts from the late nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth in a critical reading that incorporates the theoretical insights of Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and Jacques Derrida Python beyond Python Paul N.
