Soulfull Worship Clarence Joseph Rivers, 1974      Let It Shine! Mary E. McGann, R.S.C.J., 2009-08-25 Let It Shine probes the distinctive contribution of black Catholics to the life of the American church and to the unfolding of lived Christianity in the United States This important book explores the powerful spiritual renaissance that has marked African American life and selfunderstanding over the last several decades by examining one critical dimension the forging of new expressions of Catholic worship rooted in the larger Catholic tradition yet shaped in unique ways by African American religious culture Starting with the 1960s the book traces the dynamic interplay of social change cultural awakening and charismatic leadership that have sparked the emergence of distinctive styles of black Catholic worship In their historical overview McGann and Eva Marie Lumas chronicle the liturgical and pastoral issues of a black Catholic liturgical movement that has transformed the larger American church McGann then examines the foundational vision of Rev Clarence R J Rivers who promoted forms of black worship music preaching and prayer that have enabled African American Catholics to reclaim the fullness of their religious identity Finally Harbor constructs a black Catholic aesthetic based on the theological ethical and liturgical insights of four African American scholars expressed through twenty three performative values This liturgical aesthetic illuminates the distinctive gift of black Catholics to the multicultural tapestry of lived faith in the American church and can also serve as a pastoral model for other cultural communities Blending history theology and liturgy Let It Shine is a valuable resource for scholars teachers and students and a practical pastoral guide to bringing African American spirituality more firmly into the sacramental life of American parishes      Uncommon Faithfulness Mary Shawn Copeland, LaReine-Marie Mosely, Albert J. Raboteau, 2009 An engaging study of black Catholics their contributions to the Catholic church and the challenges they face These essays describe the experience of black Catholics in this country since their arrival in North America in the sixteenth century until the present day The essays highlight the difficulties black Catholics faced in their early attempts to join churches and enter religious communities their participation in the civil rights struggle and the challenges they face today as they seek full inclusion in the church whether in terms of liturgical practice or pastoral ministry      Black Hymnody Jon Michael Spencer, 1992      A Precious Fountain Mary E. McGann, 2015-11-20 A Precious Fountain is a work of liturgical ethnography that probes the rich liturgical life of one worshipping community whose roots and practices are at once Black and Catholic using music as a primary lens through which to explore the community's liturgy and embodied theology Our Lady of Lourdes community in San Francisco is part of a larger event in the American church the emergence of a new paradigm of Catholic worship one that is authentically Black and truly Catholic Mary E McGann RSCJ describes how the music worship of Our Lady of Lourdes in San Francisco not only enriches that community but also is an example of how a theology of music is practiced in that parish She offers this new genre of liturgical literature that brings to light how God's Spirit is working in the churches through the idioms perceptions and insights of specific ethno cultural communities in this time of massive cultural change and globalization      Down by the Riverside Larry Murphy, Larry George Murphy, 2000-11 An introductory overview of the development of African American religion and theology Down by the Riverside provides an expansive introduction to the development of African American religion and theology Spanning the time of slavery up to the present the volume moves beyond Protestant Christianity to address a broad diversity of African American religion from Conjure Orisa and Black Judaism to Islam African American Catholicism and humanism This accessible historical overview begins with African religious heritages and traces the transition to various forms of Christianity as well as the maintenance of African and Islamic traditions in antebellum America Preeminent contributors include Charles Long Gayraud Wilmore Albert Raboteau Manning Marable M Shawn Copeland Vincent Harding Mary Sawyer Toinette Eugene Anthony Pinn and C Eric Lincoln and Lawrence Mamiya They consider the varieties of religious expression emerging from migration from the rural South to urban areas African American women s participation in Christian missions Black religious nationalism and the development of Black Theology from its nineteenth century precursors to its formulation by James Cone and later articulations by black feminist and womanist theologians They also draw on case studies to provide a profile of the Black Christian church today This thematic history of the unfolding of religious life in African America provides a window onto a rich array of African American people practices and theological positions      Strong, Loving and Wise Robert W. Hovda, 1981-09 A manual of ideas and experiences emphasizing the fact that a good presider must be aware of what will happen at every planned moment of a liturgical celebration      African American Religious Studies Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1989 This anthology provides a coherent interdisciplinary theoretical base for students of African American religious studies and will assist in the design of programs and courses for lay theological education and training To this end the editor has assembled material from Old and New Testament studies theology church history pastoral counseling worship and social action      To Stand on the Rock Joseph A. Brown SJ, 2011-08-01 If I could I surely would stand on the rock where Moses stood from the Spiritual Elijah Rock Taking its theme from the pastoral letter of the Black Catholic bishops of the United States which spoke of the challenge of being authentically Black and truly Catholic To Stand on the Rock invites us to linger awhile in the garden of our imagination and try to see with the eyes of faith and art how the old ones took a twisted version of Christianity and re twisted it into a culture of liberation transcendence creativity and wholeness Father Brown begins by recalling the religion and identity of those Africans who were brought to these shores in bondage the original source in the quest for what it means to be authentically Black He then explores the style of Christianity they forged through the sufferings of slavery which found expression in the Spirituals Brown then reflects on the struggle of Black Catholics to claim their own style of faith and spirituality and to assert their distinctive gifts to the church universal      Black Catholic Studies Reader David J. Endres, 2021-04-16 This first ever Black Catholic Studies Reader offers an introduction to the theology and history of the Black Catholic experience from those who know it best Black Catholic scholars teachers activists and ministers The reader offers a multi faceted interdisciplinary approach that illuminates what it means to be Black and Catholic in the United States This collection of essays from prominent scholars both past and present brings together contributions from theologians M Shawn Copeland Kim Harris Diana Hayes Bryan Massingale and C Vanessa White and historians Cecilia Moore Diane Batts Morrow and Ronald Sharps and selections from an earlier generation of thinkers and activists including Thea Bowman Cyprian Davis and Clarence Rivers Contributions delve into the interlocking fields of history spirituality liturgy and biography Through their contributions Black Catholic Studies scholars engage theologies of liberation and the reality of racism the Black struggle for recognition within the Church and the distinctiveness of African inspired spirituality prayer and worship By considering their racial and religious identities these select Black Catholic theologians and historians add their voices to the contemporary conversation surrounding culture race and religion in America inviting engagement from students and teachers of the American experience social commentators and advocates and theologians and persons of faith

The Black Christian Worship Experience Melva Wilson Costen, Darius L. Swann, 1992 Where the Spirit Is R. Shea Watts, 2023-03-06 This dissertation explores the experiential contours of Pentecostalism as a liberative praxis The connection between Pentecostalism and social change is a burgeoning line of inquiry particularly in the Global South but this study focuses on the history of Pentecostalism in the US beginning with the production and circulation of the African American Spirituals Bringing theories of affect into conversation with ritual studies this interdisciplinary work traces personal stories and experiences from the author and examines them in light of Pentecostal traditions that stem from the Azusa Street Revival in Los Angeles California the birthplace of the Pentecostal movement William J Seymour's vision at Azusa was egalitarian and transgressed the societal boundaries and norms of race and gender in the early twentieth century Pentecostalism was and is informed by Black queer female and other voices often silent or rendered invisible Without this representation Pentecostalism is simply one tradition among many co-opted and appropriated for the ongoing colonial projects of the modern Western world Therefore this book explores Blackpentecostal tradition specifically The Fellowship of Affirming Ministries TFAM a predominately Black LGBTQ movement that integrates Pentecostal worship and theology with an inclusive liberative theology Masterworks of God M. Francis Mannion, 2003 Masterworks of God Essays in Liturgical Theory and Practice by M Francis Mannion 2007 Freeing the Spirit ,1981

The Politics of Ritual Molly Farneth, 2023-03-14 Professional athletes taking a knee during the national anthem Student activists holding candlelight vigils to commemorate victims of sexual violence Jewish activists reciting the Mourner's Kaddish on the streets of New York City in the wake of another police shooting Why are members of these groups performing these particular actions to express their political views Noting that these are examples of ritual performance Molly Farneth argues that rituals in general are acts that mark boundaries shape habits and dispositions express commitments and attitudes inculcate norms and create sustain or transform the communities to which the ritual performers belong Because rituals have the potential to either sustain or challenge power relations within communities they are she argues deeply political Drawing on these and other examples this book is an investigation into the inescapable political significance and power of ritual While readily acknowledging that rituals can enable authoritarian regimes and facilitate relationships of domination Farneth here pays particular attention to the rituals of democratic life those that create sustain and transform properly democratic communities contest unjust power relations and political structures and encourage and cultivate habits of participation

Desegregating Dixie Mark Newman,2018-10-04 Winner of the 2020 American Studies Network Book Prize from the European Association for American Studies Mark Newman draws on a vast range of archives and many interviews to uncover for the first time the complex response of African American and white Catholics across the South to desegregation In the late nineteenth and first half of the twentieth century the southern Catholic Church contributed to segregation by confining African Americans to the back of white churches and to black only schools and churches However in the twentieth century papal adoption and dissemination of the doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ pressure from some black and white Catholics and secular change brought by the civil rights movement increasingly led the Church to address racial discrimination both inside and outside its walls Far from monolithic white Catholics in the South split between a moderate segregationist majority and minorities of hard line segregationists and progressive racial egalitarians While some bishops felt no discomfort with segregation prelates appointed from the late 1940s onward tended to be more supportive of religious and secular change Some bishops in the peripheral South began desegregation before or in anticipation of secular change while elsewhere especially in the Deep South they often tied changes in the Catholic churches to secular desegregation African American Catholics were diverse and more active in the civil rights movement than has often been assumed. While some black Catholics challenged racism in the Church, many were conflicted about the manner of Catholic desegregation generally imposed by closing valued black institutions. Tracing its impact through the early 1990s, Newman reveals how desegregation shook congregations but seldom brought about genuine integration.
