Peter Hutchings

Stolen Faces:

Face/On Sharrona Pearl, 2017-04-12 Are our identities attached to our faces If so what happens when the face connected to the self is gone forever or replaced In Face On Sharrona Pearl investigates the stakes for changing the face and the changing stakes for the face in both contemporary society and the sciences The first comprehensive cultural study of face transplant surgery Face On reveals our true relationships to faces and facelessness explains the significance we place on facial manipulation and decodes how we understand loss reconstruction and transplantation of the face To achieve this Pearl draws on a vast array of sources bioethical and medical reports newspaper and television coverage performances by pop culture icons hospital records personal interviews films and military files She argues that we are on the cusp of a new ethics in an opportune moment for reframing essentialist ideas about appearance in favor of a more expansive form of interpersonal interaction Accessibly written and respectfully illustrated Face On offers a new perspective on face transplant surgery as a way to consider the self and its representation as constantly present and evolving Highly interdisciplinary this study will appeal to anyone wishing to know more about critical interventions into recent medicine makeover culture and the beauty industry

Hammer Films' Psychological Thrillers, 1950-1972 David Huckvale, 2014-02-28 Hammer Film s is justly famous for Gothic horror but the company also excelled in the psychological thriller Influenced by Henri Georges Clouzot and Alfred Hitchcock Hammer created its own approach to this genre in some of the company s very best films This book takes a chronological film by film approach to all of Hammer s thrillers Well known classics such as Seth Holt s The Nanny 1965 and Taste of Fear 1961 are discussed together with less well known but equally brilliant films such as The Full Treatment dir Val Guest 1960 and Michael Carreras Maniac 1963 The films literary ancestry reflection of British society and relation to psychological theories of Freud and Jung architectural metaphor sexuality religion and even Nazi atrocities are all fully explored

Nobody's Home Arnold Weinstein, 1993-03-11 Nobody s Home is a bold view of the American novel from its beginnings to the contemporary scene Focusing on some of the deepest instincts of American life and culture individual liberty freedom of speech constructing a life Arnold Weinstein brilliantly sketches the remarkable career of the American self in some of the major works of the past one hundred fifty years Weinstein contends that American writers are haunted by the twin specters of the self as a mirage as Nobody and by the brutal forces of culture and ideology that deny selfhood to people on the basis of money sex and color of skin His central thesis is that language makes possible freedoms and accomplishments that are achievable in no other realm and that American fiction is a fascinating record of the human fight against coercion of the kinds of maneuvering room that we may find in life and in art This study is unique in several respects it offers some of the keenest readings of major American texts that have ever been written including some of the most significant works of the past decades and it fashions a rich and supple view of the American novel as a writerly form of freedom in sharp contrast to today s critical emphasis on blindness and co option

Stolen Faces Michael Bishop, 1977 Photography Crimes Octavia

Marchand, AI, 2025-02-26 Photography Crimes explores the unsettling intersection of photography and crime revealing how this powerful medium designed to capture reality can be manipulated for deception and exploitation The book highlights photography's dual nature examining instances where photographic evidence has been altered leading to wrongful convictions and how readily available images are used in crimes like blackmail and identity theft It emphasizes the critical need to understand the potential for misuse within photography to combat crime and protect individual liberties The book progresses by first establishing a historical context tracing photography's evolution from documenting crime scenes to modern digital forensics It then delves into three major themes the manipulation of photographic evidence the use of photography as a tool for committing crimes and the ethical considerations surrounding surveillance and privacy Through case studies and legal analyses Photography Crimes provides readers with a comprehensive understanding of the issues connecting diverse fields like law sociology and technology Ultimately this book aims to equip a broad audience from photography enthusiasts to legal professionals with the visual literacy needed to navigate an image saturated world It furnishes practical knowledge for understanding personal rights in public spaces where photography is permitted and illustrates the impact of photography on social media and the role of visual misinformation

Deleuze and Horror Film

Anna Powell, 2005-03-24 The horror film analysed from a Deleuzian perspective This book argues that dominant psychoanalytic approaches to horror films neglect the aesthetics of horror Yet cinematic devices such as mise en scene editing and sound are central to the viewer's visceral fear and arousal Using Deleuze's work on art and film Anna Powell argues that film viewing is a form of altered consciousness and the experience of viewing horror film an embodied event The book begins with a critical introduction to the key terms in Deleuzian philosophy and aesthetics These include subjectivity becoming the body without organs molecularity time duration affect movement rhythm space anomaly and schizoanalysis These concepts are then applied to horror films Themes such as insanity sensory response to film the subject object fractured time the body and cinematography are explored in horror films such as Jacob's Ladder Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Psycho Silence of the Lambs The Fly A Nightmare on Elm Street Alien Resurrection The Others The Shining Interview with the Vampire Bram Stoker's Dracula and Nosferatu Features A substantial new contribution to horror film theory A critical introduction to key terms in Deleuzian philosophy and aesthetics New readings of the classic horror canon and recent films Analysis of horror styles narrative and special effects Deleuze and Horror Film was originally published in hardback in March 2005 The paperback edition was published in November 2006
