The Stone Angel Blyth Festival Theatre Archives (University of Guelph),Theatre Passe Muraille Archives (University of Guelph),Margaret Laurence,1991 Double-Takes David R. Jarraway,2013-05-25 Over the past forty years Canadian literature has found its way to the silver screen with increasing regularity Beginning with the adaptation of Margaret Laurence s A Jest of God to the Hollywood film Rachel Rachel in 1966 Canadian writing would appear to have found a doubly successful life for itself at the movies from the critically acclaimed Kamouraska and The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz in the 1970s through to the award winning Love and Human Remains and The English Patient in the 1990s With the more recent notoriety surrounding the Oscar nominated Away from Her and the screen appearances of The Stone Angel and Fugitive Pieces this seems like an appropriate time for a collection of essays to reflect on the intersection between literary publication in Canada and its various screen transformations This volume discusses and debates several double edged issues the extent to which the literary artefact extends its artfulness to the film artefact the degree to which literary communities stand to gain or lose in contact with film communities and perhaps most of all the measure by which a viable relation between fiction and film can be said to exist in Canada and where that double life precisely manifests itself if at all This book is published in English Unleash Paige Bevans,2020-09-29 It starts as a quiet rebellion stirring in your bones No matter what age you are if you are woman you know the demands placed upon you to be everything for everyone all the time With all her energy going to family career and endless errands it is no wonder she can t shake the feeling that somehow along the way she left behind a piece of herself It may surprise you to know that it is much easier than you think to get back that spark that your younger self had so naturally The way to her is through the Wild Feminine a fire that burns fierce in the hearts of all women While constraints of everyday life may have dwindled that fire it can never be fully extinguished Unleash will take you on a journey within where you will kick up the ashes and find the embers still glowing In understanding how you have arrived in this place the patterns that keep you here and how to break free of them you will see that living life as a passionate and wild female is exactly how your younger self always dreamed you would live You are made of fire Divining Margaret Laurence Nora Foster Stovel,2008-08-19 Margaret Laurence is justly famous for her Manawaka cycle of Canadian novels but her work extends from Canada to Africa and includes poetry and prose children s and adult literature memoir and travel writing An Angel's Sorrow Melquisedec Araiza,2007-11 Have you ever blamed God when your life was turned upside down Our heroin Kristen does after her parents are burned at the stake leaving her lost and abandoned in a Massachusetts forest in 1692 Doubt crawled into her heart and mind Was God really such a merciless being as to kill people just like that for

no reason at all Or was something else behind their murders These and more questions haunt Kristin Malach Elohim everyday in An Angel's Sorrow The more Kristin questions the faster she turns away from God and watched her salvation slowly withers away Will she be able to save her soul in the end Or will the controlling powers of evil bind her to a fiery fate And what does it mean to be a Malach Elohim Melquisedec Araiza's An Angel's Sorrow takes us on a spiritual journey where faith is shaken and friendships decide where our souls will spend eternity Share the joys and pains of Kristin as she is thrust in a spiritual battle for her soul An Angel's Sorrow will leave you mesmerized and frightened as you picture yourself in Kristen's shoes

Critical Approaches to the Fiction of Margaret Laurence C.E. Nicholson, 1990-06-18 The essays collected in this volume offer a range of different approaches to the significance of the work of Margaret Laurence historical feminist descriptive and thematic in which critics from Europe America and Canada offer assessments of this 20th century novelist

The Looking Glass Ricardo Perez, Women in Exile and Alienation Kaptan Singh, 2016-06-22 Since World War II exile and alienation have become two of the most prominent themes in world literature Canadian and Indian literatures are no exception Modern human civilisation is passing through a terrible ordeal following on from the catastrophic consequences of two world wars and many people have been overwhelmed and overawed by the growth of science technology and urbanisation Alienation a feeling of not belonging has filled the life of modern man with uncertainties and disappointments obstructions and frustrations Indian and Canadian literatures are currently two of the most acclaimed forms of global literature with major themes including a search for identity a struggle for survival and self and social isolation and it is not surprising that female writers are major voices in both Indian and Canadian literature There is a heavy imbalance of power between two sexes in both cultures where men are considered to be domineering and the centre of the family while women are regarded as subordinate to men Women's suppression compels them to live in their self exiled and alienated world The works of Margaret Laurence and Anita Desai depict heart rending facts and bitter realities which women have to face in an emotionless modern society Since the patriarchal structure is prevalent in India and Canada women are categorised as second rate citizens and are treated as liabilities by their families due to a lack of financial power In the absence of any economic social emotional and financial support they also consider themselves inferior to men Time and again they revolt against the mechanical and merciless treatment of their family and society and sometimes they choose self exile as a safeguard against the callous and selfish treatment of their family members Their inner desire to revolt against an oppressive society and the prevailing cultural norm only increases their isolation In their works Laurence and Desai have unveiled the tortured psyche of sensitive women who are unable to share their feelings with others and are destined to live an emotionally deprived life
