Stones Cry Out A Cambodian Childhood 197:

The Stones Cry Out Molyda Szymusiak, 1999 The Stones Cry Out is startlingly good as literature It is also an important addition to a thin historical record Her account of the revolutionary rhetoric set against the reality of what the revolutionaries were actually doing is as macabre as any of the descriptions of bodies The Wall Street Journal This is a powerful and compelling story of terror struggle and death sprinkled with moments of tenderness written by a woman who writes not of politics but only of what she experienced New York Times Book Review In 1975 Molyda Szymusiak her adoptive name the daughter of a high Cambodian official was twelve years old and leading a relatively peaceful life in Phnom Penh Suddenly on April 17 Khmer Rouge radicals seized the capital and drove all its inhabitants into the countryside The chaos that followed has been widely publicized most notably in the movie The Killing Fields Murderous brutality coupled with raging famine caused the death of more than two million people nearly a third of the population This powerful memoir documents the horror Cambodians experienced in daily life The Holocaust in Literature for Youth Edward T. Sullivan, 1999 The Holocaust in Literature for Youth provides classroom teachers and public and school librarians a practical comprehensive resource guide to all of the literature available for children and young adults on the subject Holocaust education should be more than just the study of the names dates and places it must go beyond the superficial highlights of the textbooks An outstanding resource well organized and informative Cassette Books Library of Congress. Affirming Diversity Sonia Nieto, Patty Bode, 2008 In this revision of her best selling book author Sonia Nieto explores the meaning necessity and benefits of multicultural education for students of all backgrounds The book looks at how personal social political cultural and educational factors affect the success or failure of students in today's classroom Expanding upon the popular case study approach the fifth edition examines the lives of 19 real students who are affected by multicultural education or a lack of it Social justice is firmly embedded in this view of multicultural education and teachers are encouraged to work for social change in their classrooms schools and communities Inservice and preservice teachers principals school administrators and anyone interested in multicultural education Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1986 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals The Psychology of Genocide and Violent Oppression Richard Morrock, 2014-01-10 The twentieth century was one of the most violent in all of human history with more than 100 million people killed in acts of war and persecution ranging from the Herero and Namaqua genocide in present day Namibia during the early 1900s to the ongoing conflict in Darfur This book explores the root causes of genocide looking into the underlying psychology of violence and oppression Genocide does not simply occur at the hands of tyrannical despots but rather at the hands of ordinary citizens whose unresolved pain and oppression forces them to follow a leader whose demagoguery best expresses their own long developed prejudices and fears The book explains how birth trauma childhood trauma and authoritarian education can be seen as the true causes of genocidal periods in recent history The Stones Cry Out Molyda Szymusiak,1987-01-01
