Stoney Knows How Life As A Tattoo Artist:

Stoney Knows How Alan Govenar, 2022-06-28 In this updated edition the extraordinary life of Stoney St Clair circus performer turned tattoo artist comes to life in photos tattoo flash and his own words edited by writer and filmmaker Alan Govenar Born Leonard St Clair in 1912 in West Virginia Stoney discovered his passion for drawing at Johns Hopkins where he was being treated for rheumatoid arthritis Not deterred by his disability he joined the circus at fifteen as a sword swallower and then learned tattooing from other circus performers From travelling with the circus to setting up tattoo shops in Tampa and Columbus Stoney met tattooed and worked with some of the greatest Vincent Canby writing in the New York Times described Stoney as an ebullient little man with the gab of a circus tout spoken in the accents of Appalachia and a fund of bizarre stories about tattooing and unrelated matters Stoney Knows how Alan Govenar, 2003 Step into the world of carnival freaks and meet a man who lived and loved it Leonard Stoney St Clair associated himself with various sideshow acts and bestowed his talents on any willing flesh Alan Govenar retells Stoney's story as it was told to him accompanying his text with more than 150 amazing photographs of Stoney's flash and his subjects This fascinating book delves into this subject more than any other of its kind with only the fictional tale The Elephant Man coming close in comparison For designers flash fans tattoo artists and even carnival enthusiasts alike this classic book has been brought back in print to delight and inspire a whole new generation Stoney Knows how Leonard L. St. Clair, Alan B. Govenar, 1981-01-01 The Subcultures Reader Ken Gelder, 2005 Revised and update completely to include new research and theories this second edition of a hugely successful book brings together a range of articles from big names in the field classic texts and new thinking on subcultures and their definitions Jewish Bodylore Amy K. Milligan, 2018-12-27 Jewish Bodylore Feminist and Queer Ethnographies of Folk Practices explores the Jewish body and its symbology as a space for identity communication applying the tools of bodylore the folkloric study of the body to the Jewish body in ways that are in line both with feminist and queer theory The text centers a feminist folkloric approach to embodiment while simultaneously recognizing its overlaps with the study of Jewish bodies and symbols It investigates Jewish embodiment with a keen eye to that which breaks from tradition Consideration is given to the ways in which bodies intersect with time and space in the synagogue within religious movements in secular culture and in childhood ritual Representing a unique approach to contemporary Jewish Studies this book argues that Jewish bodies and the intersections they represent are at the core of understanding the contemporary Jewish experience Rather than abandoning or dismissing Judaism many contemporary Jews use their bodies as a canvas claiming space for themselves demonstrating a deliberate and calculated navigation of Jewish law and engaging a traditionally patriarchal symbol set which in its feminist use amplifies their voices in a context which might otherwise silence them Through these actions and choices contemporary Jews demonstrate a nuanced understanding of their public identities as gendered and sexed bodies and a commitment to working towards increased inclusivity within the larger Jewish and secular communities In the end this book is a foray into the world of Jewish bodies how they can be conceptualized using folkloristics and how feminist methodologies of the body can be applied fairly to Jewish bodies celebrating the multitude of ways in which the body can be conceptualized and experienced Inked: Tattoos and Body Art around the World

Margo DeMello,2014-05-30 In recent decades tattoos have gone from being a subculture curiosity in Western culture to mainstream and commonplace This two volume set provides broad coverage of tattooing and body art in the United States today as well as around the world and throughout human history In the 1960s tattooing was illegal in many parts of the United States Today tattooing is fully ingrained in mainstream culture and is estimated to be a multi billion dollar industry This exhaustive work contains approximately 400 entries on tattooing providing historical information that enables readers to fully understand the methods employed the meanings of and the motivations behind tattooing one of the most ancient ways humans mark themselves The encyclopedia covers all important aspects of the topic of tattooing the major types of tattooing the cultural groups associated with tattooing the regions of the world where tattooing has been performed the origins of modern tattooing in prehistory and the meaning of each society s use of tattoos Major historical and contemporary figures associated with tattooing including tattooists tattooed people and tattoo promoters receive due attention for their contributions The entries and sidebars also address the sociological movements involved with tattooing the organizations the media dedicated to tattooing such as television shows movies magazines websites and books and the popular conventions carnivals and fairs that have showcased tattooing Stoney Knows How , A paraplegic dwarf a carnival sword swallower as a child and a tattoo artist since 1928 the late Leonard St Clair nicknamed Stoney is an ebullient little man with the gift of the gab spoken in the accents of Appalachia and a fund of bizarre stories about tattooing and other unrelated matters

Appalachian Journal ,1990 Come Round Right Alan Govenar,2025-05-06 New from writer photographer and filmmaker Alan Govenar Come Round Right is a deeply personal novel and a paeon to a pivotal moment in American history when the Vietnam War was raging and the idealism of the 1960s was losing ground to frustration anger and violence Spring 1971 Eighteen year old Aaron Berg is hitchhiking for his life trying to come to terms with the sexual assault he and his new girlfriend survived in Canada five months earlier Determined to reclaim his faith in humanity Aaron s harrowing journey through Appalachia reveals newfound joys and an unexpected truth that changes his life Lyrical and poetic juxtaposing Shaker melodies with a twangy sound and a heavy percussive beat Come Round Right is at once a moving reckoning with the author s own trauma and an expansive novel that speaks to the most pressing issues of our time Boccaccio in the Berkshires Alan Govenar,2022-03-22 Inspired by The Decameron and its dark and satirical novellas Boccaccio in the Berkshires chronicles the foibles of seven women and three men all in their twenties who meet in an online chat room for asymptomatic pandemic survivors They have all endured the deaths of loved ones and decide to shelter together for fourteen days in an Italianate mansion in the Berkshires offered to the group rent free The vacant but furnished villa provides a luxurious yet bizarre setting for members of the chat room who leave their homes in different cities around the United States Over the course of their stay they bond together in unexpected ways as they tell each other stories ranging from the personal to the ludicrous at times riffing on the absurdity of Boccaccio's tales A terrible storm fractures the group and forces the characters to come to terms with their own lives as they pursue love faith and the truth that medieval history ultimately reveals

Anne Morgan Alan Govenar, Mary Niles Mack, 2023-06-28 An inspiring story of an extraordinary woman the youngest daughter of J P Morgan and her commitment to photography philanthropy and advocacy Biographical essays detail Morgan's life and work as well as her use of the photographic image in her philanthropic efforts Includes a facsimile of The American Girl Morgan's social critique and veiled autobiography published in 1916 Untold Glory Alan

Govenar, 2008-12-10 Untold Glory offers a fresh perspective on one of the most fundamental elements of American history the conquest of new frontiers In twenty seven fascinating first person accounts African Americans from different eras backgrounds and occupations explore and reflect on the meaning of frontier both literally and metaphorically This collection chronicles the search for freedom and opportunity and the achievement of success in a wide variety of fields The contributors all pushed beyond self imposed or culturally enforced boundaries to pursue their dreams and ambitions They include Mark Dean an IBM vice president and member of the Inventors Hall of Fame who holds three of the original patents upon which the personal computer is based the civil rights attorney Oliver W Hill one of the architects of the Brown v Board of Education Supreme Court case the classical pianist and museum founder Josephine Love and L Douglas Wilder the grandson of slaves who became the first African American governor of Virginia Illustrated with black and white photographs and featuring an incisive introduction by Alan Govenar Untold Glory is both an important addition to the field of African American history and an engaging eye opening look at some of the nation's most daring innovative and influential pioneers Journal of American Culture, 1982

Freaks, Geeks, and Strange Girls Randy Johnson, 2004 This is a colourful history of the carnival sideshow and its distinctive banner art With one hundred colour photographs the book lovingly surveys this now vanished icon of early rural America counterpointing classic freak show art with contemporary interpretations Fifty archival black and white photos of sideshows provide a historical context for the banner illustrations Written on the Body Jane Caplan, 2021-10-12

Despite the social sciences growing fascination with tattooing and the immense popularity of tattoos themselves the practice has not left much of a historical record And until very recently there was no good context for writing a serious history of tattooing in the West This collection exposes for the first time the richness of the tattoo's European and American history from antiquity to the present day In the process it rescues tattoos from their stereotypical and sensationalized association with criminality The tattoo has long hovered in a space between the cosmetic and the punitive Throughout its history the status of the tattoo has been complicated by its dual association with slavery and penal practices on the one hand and exotic or forbidden sexuality on the other The tattoo appears often as an involuntary stigma sometimes as a self imposed marker of identity and occasionally as a beautiful corporal decoration This volume analyzes the tattoo s fluctuating often uncomfortable position from multiple angles Individual chapters explore fascinating segments of its history from the metaphorical meanings of tattooing in Celtic society to the class related commodification of the body in Victorian Britain from tattooed entertainers in Germany to tattooing and piercing as self expression in the contemporary United States But they also accumulate to form an expansive textured view of permanent bodily modification in the West By combining empirical history powerful cultural analysis and a highly readable style this volume both draws on and propels the ongoing effort to write a meaningful cultural history of the body The contributors representing several disciplines have all conducted extensive original research into the Western tattoo Together they have produced an unrivalled account of its history They are in addition to the editor Clare Anderson Susan Benson James Bradley Ian Duffield Juliet Fleming Alan Govenar Harriet Guest Mark Gustafson C P Jones Charles MacQuarrie Hamish Maxwell Stewart Stephan Oettermann Jennipher A Rosecrans and Abby Schrader

H.C. Westermann at War David McCarthy,2004 This book examines the antiwar work of one American artist in relation to the cultural history of the Cold War The study provides new and detailed information on this important artist while also contributing to the study of masculinity dissent art violence and war in the last half of the twentieth century The study clearly reveals that artists protests against American foreign policy began well before the official U S entry in the Vietnam War and that not all combat veterans looked back fondly on their experience of the Good War Finally in drawing attention to the challenges of being a man in a hostile world Westermann s art enters into a much broader consideration of gender long before this issue became topical in contemporary art director of the American Studies Program at Rhodes College in Tennessee
