Stoning Mary:

Stoning Mary Debbie Tucker Green, 2005 Debbie Tucker Green's Stoning Mary is a play that explores everyday reality in an unstable war-torn country and asks what it would be like if these things were happening here. The play was first performed at the Royal Court Jerwood Theatre Downstairs London on 1 April 2005.

A Narratology of Drama Christine Schwanecke, 2022-01-19 This volume argues against Gérard Genette's theory that there is an insurmountable opposition between drama and narrative and shows that the two forms of storytelling have been productively intertwined throughout literary history. Building on the idea that plays often incorporate elements from other genres especially narrative ones the present study theorises drama as a fundamentally narrative genre. Guided by the question of how drama tells stories the first part of the study delineates the general characteristics of dramatic narration and zooms in on the use of narrative forms in drama. The second part proposes a history of dramatic storytelling from the Renaissance to the twenty-first century that transcends conventional genre boundaries. Close readings of exemplary British plays provide an overview of the dominant narrative modes in each period and point to their impact in the broader cultural and historical context of the plays. Finally the volume argues that throughout history highly narrative plays have had a performative power that reached well beyond the stage. Dramatic storytelling not only reflects socio-political realities but also largely shapes them.

Contemporary British Theatre V. Angelaki, 2015-12-25 This edited collection brings together a team of internationally prominent academics and delivers cutting-edge discourse on the strongly emerging tradition of experimentation in contemporary British theatre redefining what the dramatic stands for today. Each chapter of the collection focuses on influential contemporary plays and playwrights.

debbie tucker green Siân Adiseshiah, Jacqueline Bolton, 2020-04-15 This long-awaited book is the first full-length study of the work of the extraordinary contemporary black British playwright Debbie Tucker Green. Covering the period from 2000 Two Women to 2017 a profoundly affectionate passionate devotion to someone noun it offers scholars and students the opportunity to engage in cutting-edge critical debate engendered by Tucker Green's innovative dramatic works for stage television and radio. This groundbreaking book includes contributions by a range of outstanding scholars including black playwriting specialists world-leading contemporary theatre scholars and some of the very best emerging researchers in the field. While always focused on the precision and detail of Tucker Green's work this book simultaneously reframes broader debates around contemporary drama and its politics poses new questions of theatre and provokes scholarly thinking in ways that however obliquely contribute to the change for which the plays agitate.

Martin Crimp Sarah Kane Anthony Neilson Mark Ravenhill Simon Stephens Debbie Tucker Green Tanika Gupta and Richard Bean Each essay features A biographical sketch and introduction to the playwright A discussion of their most important plays An analysis of their stylistic and thematic traits the critical reception and their place in the discourses of British theatre A bibliography of texts and critical material

Honouring Mary Gabriel B. Pidomson, 2017-07-20 What this book reveals God Almighty needed a trusted vessel the right body to channel His salvation plan After centuries of search He did settle on Mary a virgin girl that lived in Galilee who had the perfect body the right attitude and sufficient faith Undeniably an imperfect body would have defiled the divine nature of Christ the wrong attitude would have delayed the salvation plan and an insufficient faith would have jeopardized the entire plan When God found the right body He did not only purify it but He also filled it with infinite grace Indeed the salvific project required maximum precision precision that ought to be multimillion times more accurate than sending shuttles into space Fault tolerance for the salvific mission was zero Mary was not only part of the plan but her body attitude and faith were critical to the success of the entire mission While it is true that God prepared Mary she for the role God respected her freewill and sought her cooperation Unlike Eve she cooperated with God and submitted to His will While many Christians do not give Mary her pride of place their disdain does not diminish the unique role she played in the salvific plan Also their disdain does not diminish the favors she gained from God and made manifest by her divine maternity Indeed Mary is blessed above all women not because we think believe or say so but because it is so Indeed the Mighty One has done great things for her and holy is His Name Pidomson navigates on a very high frequency of spiritual plane I commend him for this excellent treatise on the Blessed Virgin Mary It is an area of Christian doctrine that few venture to explore The author has shown that it is not an impossible task Rev Fr Prof John U Gangwari Catholic Institute of West Africa Pidomson's revelatory book gives us the enlightened timeless wisdom of Mariology in a way that helps us to rediscover the original meaning and efficacy of time tested devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary He presents his arguments with clarity and simplicity that transcends theological nitpicking This timeless spiritual message is urgently needed Rev Mesgr Livy Boniko Parish Pastor Immaculate Heart Parish Port Harcourt Nigeria This book is about the Mother of Jesus who has bequeathed to us the lively example of knowing how to continue prodding God for divine compassion and generosity Her intervention in John 2 reveals her to be a catalyst to Jesus extravagant generosity both in quantity and quality that kept the wedding party at Cana in Galilee going These lines beautifully crafted by Dr Gabriel Pidomson encourages us through the example of Mary to know how to nudge God asking what God has in mind for our particular challenges even as She intercedes for us saying They have no wine Rev Msgr Dr Pius Kii Faculty of Canon Law Catholic Institute of West Africa Pidomson's work is a masterpiece The book will go far to touch so many souls believing doubting and seemingly lost I thank God for granting me the opportunity to be thinly associated with this divine message revelation May God bless him for this divine revelation Mr Chris Okonkwo Editor in Chief National Network

European Playwrights Maria M. Delgado, Bryce Lease, Dan Rebellato, 2020-07-22 Contemporary European Playwrights presents and discusses a range of key writers that have radically reshaped European theatre by finding new ways to express the changing nature of the continent's society and culture and whose work is still in dialogue with Europe today Traversing borders and languages this volume offers a fresh approach to analyzing plays in production by some of the most widely performed European playwrights assessing how their work has revealed new meanings and theatrical possibilities as they move across the continent building an unprecedented picture of the contemporary European repertoire With chapters by leading scholars and contributions by the writers themselves the chapters bring playwrights together to examine their work as part of a network and genealogy of writing examining how these plays embody and interrogate the nature of contemporary Europe Written for students and scholars of European theatre and playwriting this book will leave the reader with an understanding of the shifting relationships between the subsidized and commercial the alternative and the mainstream stage and political stakes of playmaking in European theatre since 1989 A Concise Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Drama

Nadine Holdsworth, Mary Luckhurst, 2013-05-28 Focusing on major and emerging playwrights institutions and various theatre practices this Concise Companion examines the key issues in British and Irish theatre since 1979 Written by leading international scholars in the field this collection offers new ways of thinking about the social political and cultural contexts within which specific aspects of British and Irish theatre have emerged and explores the relationship between these contexts and the works produced It investigates why particular issues and practices have emerged as significant in the theatre of this period Contemporary Women Playwrights Penny Farfan, Lesley Ferris, 2014-01-23 Breaking new ground in this century this wide ranging collection of essays is the first of its kind to address the work of contemporary international women playwrights The book considers the work of established playwrights such as Caryl Churchill Marie Clements Lara

Foot Newton Maria Irene Fornes Sarah Kane Lisa Kron Young Jean Lee Lynn Nottage Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Caridad Svich and Judith Thompson but it also foregrounds important plays by many emerging writers Divided into three sections Histories Conflicts and Genres the book explores such topics as the feminist history play solo performance transcultural dramaturgies the identity play the gendered terrain of war and eco drama and encompasses work from the United States Canada Latin America Oceania South Africa Egypt and the United Kingdom With contributions from leading international scholars and an introductory overview of the concerns and challenges facing women playwrights in this new century Contemporary Women Playwrights explores the diversity and power of women's playwriting since 1990 highlighting key voices and examining crucial critical and theoretical developments within the field Rethinking Character in Contemporary British Theatre Cristina Delgado-García, 2015-11-13 The category of theatrical character has been swiftly dismissed in the academic reception of no longer dramatic texts and performances However claims on the dissolution of character narrowly demarcate what a subject is and how it may appear This volume unmoors theatre scholarship from the regulatory ideals of liberal humanism stretching the notion of character to encompass and illuminate otherwise unaccounted for subjects aesthetic strategies and political gestures in recent theatre works To this aim contemporary philosophical theories of subjectivation European theatre studies and experimental script led work produced in Britain since the late 1990s are mobilised as discussants on the question of subjectivity Four contemporary playtexts and their performances are examined in depth Sarah Kane's Crave and 4.48 Psychosis Ed Thomas's Stone City Blue and Tim Crouch's ENGLAND Through these case studies Delgado García demonstrates alternative ways of engaging theoretically with character and elucidating a range of subjective figures beyond identity and individuality Alongside these analyses the book traces a large body of work that has experimented with speech attribution since the early twentieth century This is a timely contribution to contemporary theatre scholarship which demonstrates that character remains a malleable and politically salient notion in which understandings of subjectivity are still being negotiated Stage Business and the Neoliberal Theatre of London Alex Ferrone, 2021-01-21 This book examines contemporary English drama and its relation to the neoliberal consensus that has dominated British policy since 1979 The London stage has emerged as a key site in Britain's reckoning with neoliberalism On one hand many playwrights have denounced the acquisitive values of unfettered global capitalism on the other plays have more readily revealed themselves as products of the very market economy they critique their production histories and formal innovations uncomfortably reproducing the strategies and practices of neoliberal labour markets Stage Business and the Neoliberal Theatre of London thus arrives at a usefully ambivalent political position one that praises the political power of the theatre its potential as a form of resistance to the neoliberal rationality that rides roughshod over democratic values while simultaneously attending to the institutional bondage that constrains it For of course the theatre itself everywhere straddles the line of capitulating to the marketization of our cultural life Contemporary British Drama David

Lane,2010-09-09 This book offers an extended analysis of writers and theatre companies in Britain since 1995 and explores them alongside recent cultural social and political developments Referencing well known practitioners from modern theatre this book is an excellence

Contemporary Black British Playwrights L. Goddard,2015-02-17 This book examines the socio political and theatrical conditions that heralded the shift from the margins to the mainstream for black British Writers through analysis of the social issues portrayed in plays by Kwame Kwei Armah debbie tucker green Roy Williams and Bola Agbaje

Staging Black Feminisms Lynette Goddard,2007-04-12 Staging Black Feminisms explores the development and principles of black British women s plays and performance since the late Twentieth century Using contemporary performance theory to explore key themes it offers close textual readings and production analysis of a range of plays performance poetry and live art works by practitioners

Foucault's theatres Tony Fisher,Kéline Gotman,2019-11-01 The volume contributes to a new articulation of theatre and performance studies via Foucault s critical thought With cutting edge studies by established and emerging writers in areas such as dramaturgy film music cultural history and journalism the volume aims to be accessible for both experienced researchers and advanced students encountering Foucault s work for the first time The introduction sets out a thorough and informative assessment of Foucault s relevance to theatre and performance studies and to our present cultural moment it rereads his profound engagement with questions of truth power and politics in light of previously unknown writings and lectures set in relation to current political and cultural concerns Unique to this volume is the discovery of a theatrical Foucault the profound affinity of his thinking with questions of performativity This discovery makes accessible the performance turn to readers of Foucault while opening up ways of reading Foucault s oeuvre theatrically

Black British Drama Michael Pearce,2017-07-14 Black British Drama A Transnational Story looks afresh at the ways black theatre in Britain is connected to and informed by the spaces of Africa the Caribbean and the USA Michael Pearce offers an exciting new approach to reading modern and contemporary black British drama examining plays by a range of writers including Michael Abbensetts Mustapha Matura Caryl Phillips Winsome Pinnock Kwame Kwei Armah debbie tucker green Roy Williams and Bola Agbaje Chapters combine historical documentation and discussion with close analysis to provide an in depth absorbing account of post war black British drama situated within global and transnational circuits A significant contribution to black British and black diaspora theatre studies Black British Drama is a must read for scholars and students in this evolving field

Contemporary British Drama Catherine Rees,2019-11-13 This guide offers a comprehensive account of British theatre from the 1960s to the present day Placing critical commentary at the heart of its analysis it explores how theatre critics and scholars have sought to understand and write about modern theatre from the earliest reviews to revivals appearing decades later With studies of contemporary reviews and archival material Contemporary British Drama offers readers the opportunity to learn about British theatre in its original context and to chart shifting critical perceptions over the decades It provides a crucial juxtaposition between the development of British theatre and its contemporaneous critical response supplying an invaluable insight into the critical climate of recent decades From feminist playwrighting to In Yer Face theatre this is the ideal companion for undergraduate students of literature and theatre in need of an introduction to the debates surrounding contemporary British drama      Modern British Playwriting: 2000-2009

Dan Rebellato, 2013-12-16 Essential for students of theatre studies Methuen Drama's Decades of Modern British Playwriting series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1950s to 2009 in six volumes Each volume features a critical analysis and reevaluation of the work of four five key playwrights from that decade authored by a team of experts together with an extensive commentary on the period Edited by Dan Rebellato Modern British Playwriting 2000 2009 provides an authoritative and stimulating reassessment of the theatre of the decade together with a detailed study of the work of David Greig Nadine Holdsworth Simon Stephens Jacqueline Bolton Tim Crouch Dan Rebellato Roy Williams Michael Pearce and Debbie Tucker Green Lynette Goddard The volume sets the context by providing a chronological survey of the decade one marked by the War on Terror the excesses of economic globalization and the digital revolution In surveying the theatrical activity and climate Andrew Haydon explores the response to the political events the rise of verbatim theatre the increasing experimentation and the effect of both the Boyden Report and changes in the Arts Council's priorities Five scholars provide detailed examinations of the playwrights work during the decade combining an analysis of their plays with a study of other material such as early play drafts and the critical receptions of the time Interviews with each playwright further illuminate this stimulating final volume in the Decades of Modern British Playwriting series      Weathering the Storms Denise George, 2005 Fear Discover how to cultivate healthy God given fears confront unhealthy fears with God's strength and finally experience the new peace of walking daily without fear and anxiety An in depth six week devotional Bible study for women in the Secrets of Soul Gardening series
