Stopping The Torture Trade:

Stopping the Torture Trade Amnesty International, 2001 Torturers rely on foreign governments for the tools of their trade and expertise in how to use them Some governments are directly involved while others turn a blind eye This book provides an account of the trade and traces the governments that have shown the political will to put an end to this trade The

No-nonsense Guide to the Arms Trade Gideon Burrows, 2002 The ending of the Cold War was supposed to increase global security and divert expenditure previously earmarked for arms purchases to more constructive ends Instead the arms trade has flourished Not only conventional arms but also police and surveillance equipment have been provided by Western countries seeking to make a profit from conflict in unstable parts of the world Foreign debt has remained high development has been held back and human rights have been systematically abused all with the connivance of an arms trade prepared to turn a blind eye to the uses to which increasingly sophisticated weaponry is put so long as hefty profits can be reaped This disturbing book names the players in the arms trade and charts the impact that it has had on war human rights and development The financial and trade mechanisms that permit the arms trade to continue are revealed amid sordid tales of bribery and corruption Gideon Burrows concludes his examination by reviewing the ways in which this trade can be controlled or even abolished Stopping the Torture Trade Amnesty International USA., 2001 Part of the Amnesty International s worldwide campaign against torture focusing on efforts to stop countries from selling shackles leg irons and thumbscrews among other such devices Non-lethal Weapons as Legitimizing Forces? Brian Rappert, 2003 As mankind finds ever more impious ways to kill and maim some look to non lethal weapons as a fix Brian Rappert discusses the technologies involved and the ethics of for example blinding someone with a laser leaving them blind forever versus killing them outright Universal Rights, Systemic Violations, and Cultural Relativism in Morocco O. Glacier, 2013-11-06 Are universal rights bound to colonialism Are they culturally imperialistic By juxtaposing Morocco s practice of torture with its discourse of cultural relativism this study links popular resistance to universal rights to a deliberate politics that delegitimizes those very same rights requiring a new more inclusive system of universalism An Introduction to Catholic Social Thought Michael P. Hornsby-Smith, 2006-11-09 An overview of Catholic social thought both official and non official particularly in recent decades first published in 2006 Stop the Killing Train Michael Albert, 1994 This book does not simply say no to the killing train It says yes to justice and liberation offering detailed glimpses of what society could be like and strategic advice for how to get there Chemical Control Michael Crowley, 2016-01-26 This thoroughly researched study highlights the international community s failure to regulate contemporary state research development marketing and or deployment of riot control agents and incapacitating chemical agent weapons The Arms Trade and International Law Zera Yihdego, 2007-11-16 Shortlisted for the 2008 Young Authors Inner Temple Book Prize There are believed to be about 700 million small arms and light weapons SALW in the world often contributing to highly destabilising security and other concerns in international law SALW are the primary source of violations and abuses of humanitarian and human rights principles by states rebels terrorists and criminals Many consider them the real weapons of mass destruction of our time causing about half a million deaths annually The unrestricted international transfer of SALW by states 99 states and 1000 companies involved in manufacturing and supply is one of the major contributory and aggravating factors of this crisis another is the illicit traffic in small arms This book deals with the proliferation of SALW and their unregulated trade and transfer across borders It addresses questions of definition manufacturing trade transfer and issues relating to state responsibility The primary focus is on conventional small arms in particular military style weapons The book tackles the core and most divisive legal problem of whether or not the laws relating to arms control and relevant norms of international law provide substantive restrictions upon the transfer of small arms by states The application of the norms of international peace and security non intervention humanitarian and human rights laws and evolved relevant customary rules of arms control relating to these norms are considered particularly carefully Questions of application and enforcement of relevant rules and institutional responses to the problem are also examined The UN began considering an arms trade treaty in 2006 the publication of the book at this critical moment in time will make a positive contribution towards shaping the debate and aims to further enhance understanding in an area where close analysis is required International Handbook of Violence Research Wilhelm Heitmeyer, John Hagan, 2005-08-12 An international manual is like a world cruise a once in a lifetime experience All the more reason to consider carefully whether it is necessary This can hardly be the case if previous research in the selected field has already been the subject of an earlier review or even several competing surveys On the other hand more thorough study is necessary if the intensity and scope of research are increasing without comprehensive assessments That was the situation in Western societies when work began on this project in the summer of 1998 It was then too that the challenges emerged any manual especially an international one is a very special type of text which is anything but routine It calls for a special effort the state of the art has to be documented for selected subject areas and its presentation made as compelling as possible The editors were delighted therefore by the cooperation and commitment shown by the eighty one contributors from ten countries who were recruited to write on the sixty two different topics by the constructive way in which any requests for changes were dealt with and by the patient response to our many queries This volume is the result of a long process It began with the first drafts outlining the structure of the work which were submitted to various distinguished colleagues Friedheim Neidhardt of Berlin Gertrud Nunner Winkler of Munich and Roland Eckert of Trier to name only a few supplied valuable comments at this stage
