Lewis, 2024-05-31 Founded in 1965 and still active today the Association for the Advancement of Creative Musicians AACM is an American institution with an international reputation George E Lewis who joined the collective as a teenager in 1971 establishes the full importance and vitality of the AACM with this communal history written with a symphonic sweep that draws on a cross generational chorus of voices and a rich collection of rare images Moving from Chicago to New York to Paris and from founding member Steve McCall's kitchen table to Carnegie Hall A Power Stronger Than Itself uncovers a vibrant multicultural universe and brings to light a major piece of the history of avant garde music and art Lee Konitz Andy Hamilton, 2018-10-10 Meticulously researched detailed and documented this long awaited overview justly establishes Konitz as one of the most consistently brilliant adventurous and original improvisers in the jazz tradition a genius as rare as Bird himself John Zorn Hamilton's work may well mark the inception of a format new to writing on Western music one which avoids both the self aggrandizing of autobiography and the stylized subjectification of biography The Wire An extraordinary approach to a biography with the man himself speaking for extended sessions The main vibration I felt from Lee's words was total honesty almost to a fault Konitz shows himself to be an acute observer of the scene full of wisdom and deep musical insights relevant to any historical period regardless of style The asides by noted musicians are beautifully woven throughout the pages I couldn't put the book down it is the definition of a living history David Liebman The preeminent altoist associated with the cool school of jazz Lee Konitz was one of the few saxophonists of his generation to forge a unique sound independent of the influence of Charlie Parker In the late 1940s Konitz began his career with the Claude Thornhill band during which time he came into contact with Miles Davis with whom he would later work on the legendary Birth of the Cool sessions Konitz is perhaps best known through his association with Lennie Tristano under whose influence much of his sound evolved and for his work with Stan Kenton and Warne Marsh His recordings have ranged from cool bop to experimental improvisation and have appeared on such labels as Prestige Atlantic Verve and Polydor Crafted out of numerous interviews between the author and his subject the book offers a unique look at the story of Lee Konitz's life and music detailing Konitz's own insights into his musical education and his experiences with such figures as Miles Davis Stan Kenton Warne Marsh Lennie Tristano Charles Mingus Bud Powell and Bill Evans Andy Hamilton is a jazz pianist and contributor to major jazz and contemporary music magazines He teaches philosophy and the history and aesthetics of jazz at Durham University in the United Kingdom He is also the author of the book Aesthetics and Music Continuum 2007 Joe Lovano is a Grammy Award winning tenor saxophonist His most recent album is Streams of Expression Music Is Rapid Transportation Lawrence Joseph, Dan

Lander, Bill Smith, 2010 A truly alternative look at music lists not one that merely includes the obvious but shows the connections of popular music to the avant garde the obscure the experimental the quirky and the adventurous this edition leads the curious reader towards new musical experiences hitherto unknown to them Live at The Cellar Marian Jago, 2018-10-15 In the 1950s and 60s co operative jazz clubs such as Vancouver's Cellar Edmonton's Yardbird Suite and Halifax's 777 Barrington Street opened their doors in response to new forms of jazz expression emerging after the war and a lack of available performance spaces outside major urban centres Operated on a not for profit basis by the musicians themselves these hip new clubs created spaces where young jazz musicians could practise their art close to home Live at the Cellar looks at this unique period in the development of jazz in Canada Centered on Vancouver's legendary Cellar club and including co ops in four other cities it explores the ways in which these clubs functioned as sites for the performance and exploration of jazz as well as magnets for countercultural expression in other arts such as literature theatre and film Marian Jago's deft combination of new original research with archival evidence interviews and photographs allows us to witness the beginnings of a pan Canadian jazz scene as well as the emergence of key Canadian jazz figures such as P J Perry Don Thompson and Terry Clarke and the rise of jazz icons such as Paul Bley and Ornette Coleman Although the Cellar and other jazz co ops are long shuttered in their day they created a new and infectious energy that still reverberates in Canada's jazz scene today Experimentalism Otherwise Benjamin Piekut, 2011-04-04 In Experimental Otherwise Benjamin Piekut takes the reader into the heart of what we mean by experimental in avant garde music Focusing on one place and time New York City 1964 Piekut examines five disparate events the New York Philharmonic's disastrous performance of John Cage's Atlas Eclipticalis Henry Flynt's demonstrations against the downtown avant garde Charlotte Moorman's Avant Garde Festival the founding of the Jazz Composers Guild and the emergence of Iggy Pop Drawing together a colorful array of personalities Piekut argues that each of these examples points to a failure and marks a limit or boundary of canonical experimentalism What emerges from these marginal moments is an accurate picture of the avant garde not as a style or genre but as a network defined by disagreements struggles and exclusions The Composer's Black Box Theodore Gordon, 2025-12-02 Stories about new musical instruments are often told as quests for new kinds of sounds The Composer's Black Box asks What happens when new musical instruments produce not only new sounds but also new dynamics of musical agency and control And what consequences do those new dynamics have for musicality beyond sound With a focus on five key figures Morton Subotnick Pauline Oliveros Donald Buchla Alvin Lucier and Sun Ra this book explores how scientific and technological developments in mid twentieth century America galvanized musicians to reconfigure their conceptions of sociality freedom and the creative self Theodore Gordon shows how cybernetic thinking in a range of disciplines from experimental music to jazz and electrical engineering has shaped musical techniques and technologies and changed what it means to be a composer or more broadly a music making human in an increasingly informational world Jazz Eddie S.
