Stories From The Literary Review:

Stories from the Literary Review Charles Angoff, 1969 Not only does this fine anthology serve as a fitting commemorative volume for THE LITERARY REVIEW in which these stories first appeared but it testifies to the remarkable vitality and durability of the short story as a literary form throughout the world New Stories from the Southwest D. Seth Horton, 2008 The beauty and barrenness of the southwestern landscape naturally lends itself to the art of storytellers It is a land of heat and dryness a land of spirits a land that is misunderstood by those living along the coasts New Stories from the Southwest presents nineteen short stories that appeared in North American periodicals between January and December 2006 Though many of these stories vary by aesthetics tone voice and almost any other craft category one might wish to use they are nevertheless bound together by at least one factor which is that the landscape of the region plays a key role in their narratives They each evoke and explore what it means to exist in this unique corner of the country Selected by editor D Seth Horton the former fiction editor for the Sonora Review from a wide cross section of journals and magazines and with a foreword by noted writer Ray Gonzalez New Stories from the Southwest presents a generous sampling of the best of contemporary fiction situated in this often overlooked area of the country Swallow Press is particularly pleased to publish this wide ranging collection of stories from both new and established writers Contributors to New Stories from the Southwest are Alan Cheuse Matt Clark Lorien Crow Kathleen De Azvedo Alan Elyshevitz Marcela Fuentes Dennis Fulgoni Ray Gonzalez Anna Green Donald Lucio Hurd Toni Jensen Charles Kemnitz Elmo Lum Tom McWhorter S G Miller Peter Rock Alicia Rodriguez John Tait Patrick Tobin Valery Varble Selected Stories from the Southern Review Lewis P. Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books J.R. (Tim) Struthers, Ailsa Cox, Corinne Bigot, Catherine Sheldrick Ross, What in terms of Alice Munro's creative artistry and creative power allowed her to become the first and only short story writer the first and only Canadian and just the thirteenth woman in history to win the Nobel Prize in Literature And exactly when during Munro's career did her artistry and power advance to ensure that she would earn such world wide renown The answers lie in studying the boldly innovative yet greatly under examined group of her four mid career breakthrough books Our volume therefore provides a carefully orchestrated analysis of Munro's subtle yet potent handling of form technique and style both within individual stories and across these special collections Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books A Suite in Four Voices not only addresses a significant vacancy in Munro criticism and by extension in all short story criticism but equally importantly offers an exciting new model for how criticism can be collectively written
