Stories of Authors, British and American Edwin Watts Chubb, 1910      Stories of Authors, British and American Edwin Watts Chubb, 1911      Stories of Authors, British and American Watts Edwin Chubb, 2009-04-01      British and American School Stories, 1910-1960 Nancy G. Rosoff, Stephanie Spencer, 2019-02-25 This book examines school and college fiction for girls in Britain and the United States written in the first half of the twentieth century to explore the formation and ideologies of feminine identity Nancy G Rosoff and Stephanie Spencer develop a transnational framework that recognises how both constructed and essential femininities transcend national boundaries The book discusses the significance and performance of female friendship across time and place which is central to the development of the genre and how it functioned as an important means of informal education Stories by Jessie Graham Flower Pauline Lester Alice Ross Colver Elinor Brent Dyer and Dorita Fairlie Bruce are set within their historical context and then used to explore aspects of sociability authority responsibility domesticity and possibility The distinctiveness of this book stems from the historical analysis of these sources which have so far primarily been treated by literary scholars within their national context Winner of the History of Education Society Anne Bloomfield Prize for the best book on history of education published in English 2017 19      A Critical Dictionary of English Literature, and British and American Authors Samuel Austin Allibone, 1870      A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1871      Stories of Authors Edwin W. Chubb, 1973-01-01      A Critical Dictionary of English Literature, and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Middle of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1891      A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors Living and Deceased from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century by S. Austin Allibone , 1870      Using Literature to Teach English as a Second Language Membrive, Veronica, Armie, Madalina, 2020-05-22 Innovation has replaced stereotypical and old methods as an attempt to make English language teaching and learning appealing effective and simple However teaching a second language through literature may be a paramount tool to consolidate not only students lexical and grammatical competences but also for the development of their cultural awareness and broadening of their knowledge through interaction and collaboration that foster collective learning Despite past difficulties literature s position in relation to language teaching can be revindicated and revalued Using Literature to Teach English as a Second Language is an essential research publication that exposes the current state of this methodological approach and observes its reverberations usefulness strengths and weaknesses when used in a classroom where English is taught as a second language In this way this book will provide updated tools to explore teaching and learning through the most creative and enriching manifestations of one language literature Featuring a range of topics such as diversity language learning and plurilingualism this book is ideal for academicians curriculum designers administrators education professionals researchers and students      British Short Fiction in the Early Nineteenth Century Tim Killick, 2016-05-23 In spite of the importance of the idea of the tale within Romantic era literature short fiction of the period has received little attention from critics Contextualizing British short fiction within the broader framework of early nineteenth century print culture Tim Killick argues that authors and publishers sought to present short fiction in book length volumes as a way of competing with the novel as a legitimate and prestigious genre Beginning with an overview of the development of short fiction through the late eighteenth century and analysis of the publishing conditions for the genre including its appearance in magazines and annuals Killick shows how Washington Irving's hugely popular collections set the stage for British writers Subsequent chapters consider the stories and sketches of writers as diverse as Mary Russell Mitford and James Hogg as well as didactic short fiction by authors such as Hannah More Maria Edgeworth and Amelia Opie His book makes a convincing case for the evolution of short fiction into a self conscious intentionally modern form with its own techniques and imperatives separate from those of the novel      The United States Catalog, 1921      The Literary Year-book Frederick George Aflalo, Joseph Jacobs, Herbert Arthur Morrah, Henry Gilbert, Basil Stewart, Mark Meredith, 1915      Robert van Gulik and His Chinese Sherlock Holmes Sabrina Yuan Hao, 2023-09-20 In the post war mid century Robert van Gulik produced a series of stories set in Imperial China and featuring a Chinese Judge Judge Dee This book examines the author's unprecedented effort in hybridising two heterogeneous crime writing traditions traditional Chinese gong'an court case fiction and its Anglo American counterpart bringing to light how his fiction draws elements from these two traditions for plots narrative features visual images and gender representation Relying on research on various sources and literary traditions it provides illumination of the historical contexts centring on the cultural interaction and connectedness that occurred during the multidirectional global flows of the Judge Dee texts in both western and Chinese markets This study contributes to current scholarship on crime fiction by questioning its predominantly Eurocentric focus and the divisive post colonial approach often adopted in accessing works concerning foreign peoples and cultures      Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WW1 from 1914 to the present This authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the war's upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production

Key Features Offers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWI Establishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genres Emphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present
