Stories To Grow On:

Sesame Street: Stories to Grow on Erin Rose Wage, Pi Kids, Claire Winslow, 2019-04-15 Growing up is extra special with stories that come to life as they are read aloud by Nina from Sesame Street Little ones will love reading about milestones like using the potty sleeping in a big bed the first day of school and more 8 illustrated board books featuring Elmo and his Sesame friends come with a Me Reader Jr module that reads each book aloud at the touch of a button with charming narration fun sounds and songs Following along in the book while listening to the narration is an important first step toward independent reading Tales from West Africa, 2000 This lively collection comes from West Africa a place where stories grow on trees Here are the famous tricksters Hare Tortoise and the greatest of them all Ananse the spider The stories are full of larger than life characters and situations and include the tale of how Ananse got his thin waist how Crocodile learnt his lesson and how Monkey managed not to get eaten by Shark Tales from the West Indies Philip Sherlock, 2000-02-03 These colourful tales from the West Indies and Guyana are full of wonderful characters including Mr Snake Monkey Mancrow the bird of darkness and of course Anansi the spider and his old adversary Tiger Justice and Equity in Climate Change Education Elizabeth M. Walsh, 2022-02-21 This volume looks at the ways in which climate change education relates to broader ideas of justice equity and social transformation and ultimately calls for a rapid response to the need for climate education reform Highlighting the role of climate change in exacerbating existing societal injustices this text explores the ethical and social dimensions of climate change education including identity agency and societal structure and in doing so problematizes climate change education as an equity concern Chapters present empirical analysis underpinned by a theoretical framework and case studies which provide critical insights for the design of learning environments curricula and everyday climate change related learning in schools This text will benefit researchers academics educators and policymakers with an interest in science education social justice studies and environmental sociology more broadly Those specifically interested in climate education curriculum studies and climate adaption will also benefit from this book Tales from Africa, 2000 In this book of tales from Africa there are stories about an evil hearted shark an extremely cunning hare a very greedy spider and the strongest man in the world There are also answers to such questions as why the crab has no head why the sun and moon live in the sky and why flies buzz Drawn from all parts of Africa these stories illustrate the fierce sense of justice inherent in African peoples their powers of patience and endurance and their supreme ability as story tellers

Human-Plant Entanglement and Vegetal Agency in the Poetry of Thomas Hardy and Sylvia Plath Dilek Bulut Sarikaya, 2024-03-06 Dilek Bulut Sarikaya scrutinizes human plant entanglement in the poetry of Thomas Hardy and Sylvia Plath from the perspective of critical plant studies which is committed to restoring the lost connection between humans and plants The author offers a theoretical reading of Hardy and Plath's poetry focusing specifically on how plants are depicted by these two poets as self conscious and emotional individuals who are turned into vulnerable victims of humans exploitative practices The author develops a critical argument on the necessity of eradicating humans anthropocentric mindsets categorizing plants as sessile inert objects and replaces it with a plant centric world view perceiving plants as instantly active biological organisms who exist with their botanical accuracy rather than with the impositions of humans metaphoric meanings upon them Tales from China ,2000 This collection of Chinese stories begins with the great legends of how Earth and Heaven came into being There are folk tales too about ghosts rain makers students and magicians and a man who is nearly made into fishpaste

Therapeutic Journal Writing Kate Thompson,2011-05-15 The author of this book guides the reader through developing journal writing to use as a therapeutic tool The book includes advice on working with individuals facilitating a therapeutic writing group proposed clinical applications practical techniques useful journal prompts exercises and case vignettes

Shropshire Folk Tales Amy Douglas,2011-09-16 In places Shropshire has traditional patchwork fields and hedgerows in others small villages and market towns with black and white half timbered buildings But it also has places that are still wild hills where heather and bracken cling to the rocks while peewits call overhead and strange rock formations just to the sky casting their shadows over the countryside below The thirty stories in this new collection have grown out of the county s diverse landscapes tales of the strange and macabre memories of magic and other worlds proud recollections of folk history stories to make you smile sigh and shiver Moulded by the land weather and generations of tongues wagging these traditional tales are full of Shropshire wit and wisdom and will be enjoyed time and again Honoured in the Storytelling Collections at the Storytelling World Awards See more at <http://www.thehistorypress.co.uk/index.php/shropshire-folk-tales/html> sthash un5jLcDV dpuf

The Loneliness of Sonia and Sunny Kiran Desai,2025-09-25 When Sonia and Sunny first glimpse each other on an overnight train they are immediately captivated yet also embarrassed by the fact that their grandparents had once tried to matchmake them a clumsy meddling that only served to drive Sonia and Sunny apart Sonia an aspiring novelist who recently completed her studies in the snowy mountains of Vermont has returned to her family in India fearing she is haunted by a dark spell cast by an artist to whom she had once turned for intimacy and inspiration Sunny a struggling journalist resettled in New York City is attempting to flee his imperious mother and the violence of his warring clan Uncertain of their future Sonia and Sunny embark on a search for happiness together as they confront the many alienations of our modern world The Loneliness of Sonia and Sunny is the sweeping tale of two young people navigating the many forces that shape their lives country class race history and the complicated bonds that link one generation to the next A love story a family saga and a rich novel of ideas it is the most ambitious and accomplished work yet by one of our greatest novelists
