Stories From Three Worlds:

Stories from Three Worlds John A. McKenzie, Judith K. McKenzie, 1978 History After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000 History as a discipline faces a crisis of identity as Eurocentrism fades in a world where globalized visions compete to explain historical processes Facing the challenge squarely this volume_ comprising specialists on Asia Africa and Latin America_ explores the state of historical analysis in various world regions and appraises current views on what defines and challenges historical knowledge It is widely accepted that Eurocentrism no longer seem acceptable in a world where others are reasserting their own notions of past and future The postDWorld War II spatialities that guided both historical analysis and the division of labor in historical work are in the process of disappearing into more globalized visions Constituencies left out of history in the past are making demands for the recognition of their historical presence History as epistemology is under attack as a marker of Eurocentric modernity from non historical ways of thinking as well as from ideologies of postmodernism that deny to history its claims to truth Indeed the current situation in the field has been described by one distinguished historian as a Ocacophonous confusion O The challenge historians face is how to imagine new ways of writing history that overcome this confusion without falling back upon ideological and methodological prejudices that reproduce the problems of the past in new guises The contributors discuss how these challenges are voiced and met in their different areas of specialization Unsurprising in a volume that addresses a variety of regions and issues that are not only technically historiographical but also deeply cultural and political the authors differ in their appraisal of the challenges presented by globalization postmodernism or postcolonialism Yet they are united in their recognition of the validity of historical ways of knowing and their reaffirmation of the importance of history in grasping contemporary cultural and political problems It is because history is entangled in a Eurocentric modernity that in a postmodern world it provides the medium for articulating alternatives to Eurocentrism_ and to history itself Stories John A. McKenzie, 1978 Culture in the Age of Three Worlds Michael Denning, 2020-05-05 Over the last half of the twentieth century culture moved to the foreground of political and intellectual life Suddenly everyone discovered that culture had been mass produced like Ford s cars the masses had culture and culture had a mass Culture was everywhere no longer the property of the cultured or the cultivated Radical social movements around the globe invented a politics of culture Culture In the Age of Three Worlds is a reflection on this cultural turn which was a fundamental aspect of the age of three worlds that short half century between 1945 and 1989 when it was imagined that the world was divided into three the capitalist first world the communist second world and the decolonizing third world Recasting the legacies of British cultural studies and the radical traditions of the American studies movement in a global context Michael Denning explores the political and intellectual battles over the meanings of culture addresses the rise of a distinctive American ideology and charts the lineaments of the global cultures that emerged as three worlds gave way to one Between Three Worlds John C. Stephens, 2023-02-10 This book explores the motif of the spiritual journey and its evolution in Western literature A spiritual journey can be broadly defined as a search for the divine Such a search can occur either internally as a psychological process or in some cases may involve an actual geographic journey Spiritual journeys can be conducted by individuals or groups In exploring this topic various kinds of texts will be reviewed including autobiographies novels and short stories as well as myths folktales and mystical writings The book classifies spiritual journey narratives into four categories theological journeys mystical journeys mythopoetic journeys and allegorical journeys Representative texts have been selected in the history of Western religious literature that illustrate the basic features of each of these four categories The Way Between the Worlds Ian Irvine,1999-09-07 World's Greatest
