Stories We Like:

Stories we live and grow by Muna Saleh, 2019-02-01 Interweaving my experiences as a Canadian Muslim woman mother grand daughter educator and scholar throughout this work I write about living and narratively inquiring Clandinin and Connelly Narrative Inquiry Clandinin alongside three Muslim mothers and daughters during our daughters transition into adolescence I was interested in mother and daughter experiences during this time of life transition because my eldest daughter Malak was in the midst of transitioning into adolescence as I embarked upon my doctoral research I had many wonders about Malak s experiences my experiences as a mother and the experiences of other Muslim daughters and mothers in the midst of similar life transitions I wondered about how dominant narratives from within and across Muslim and other communities in Canada shape our lives and experiences For while we are often storied as victims of various oppressions in media literature and elsewhere little is known about our diverse experiences par ticularly the experiences of Muslim mothers and daughters composing our selves and lives alongside one another in familial places The Stories We Tell Charlene Carr, 2017 After tragedy and betrayal trust comes slowly love takes work Lincoln and Kali are finally in a good place A place of hope But as Kali starts to accept her present and look to the future her past gets in the way forcing her question what she believes about her life and what she wants As Lincoln learns the truths Kali kept secret he must decide whether love is stronger than fear and if forgiveness is worth the pain The finale to the Behind Our Lives is a story about the power of love to conquer fear even when starting over feels impossible the power of forgiveness and the strength of the human heart The Stories We Tell is Book Three in a continuing three part story Please don t read it without first reading Book One Behind Our Lives and Book Two What We See If you do you ll probably be confused and frustrated and won t have a great reading experience

The Stories We Tell Joanna Gaines, 2022-11-08 AN INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Imagine if all the worn out untrue painful chapters of our lives started to quiet and the beautiful unique pieces of who we are were to rise Imagine if the stories we tell brought us back to our true selves back to one another Imagine if they spoke of how we loved and lost and tried our best How we saw it all even the parts that hurt Joanna Gaines new book The Stories We Tell invites us on an authentic and deeply vulnerable journey into her story and helps shine a light on the beauty of our own guiding us to release the weights that hold us back so we may live and share our story in truth We ve all dropped anchor in places that suited us for a time a city a perspective a lie we mistook as truth This book is an invitation to a kind of life where you know how to hold what you believe about yourself and the quiet worlds behind the people you pass with gracious and open hands To see your story as greater than any past or future thing but for all the beauty and joy and hope it holds today It s an invitation to take stock of the chapters you ve lived the good and the bad the beautiful and the ugly glean what s gold and carry only that forward Let it slow your feet and steady your life in motion so you can see where you stand today from a new point of view No longer through weary or uncertain eyes but a lens brimming with hope The only way to break free was to rewrite my story Because something would happen every time my pen stopped It was like my soul was coming back to my body Like the deepest parts of me that got knocked around and drowned out by all the crap I let the world convince me about who I was came back to the surface And what was left was only what was real and true I was finally standing in the fullness of my story I felt hopeful I felt full Our story may crack us open but it also pieces us back together We all have a story to tell This happens to be mine every chapter a window into who I am the journey I m on and the season I m in right now Because this is my story maybe you won t always relate or maybe it will feel like you re looking in a mirror Whatever we have in common and whatever differences lie between us I only hope my story can help shine a light on the beauty of yours That my own soul work will stir something of your own And that by the time you get to the end of my story you re also holding the beautiful beginnings of your own A story only you can tell And I hope that you will Joanna Stories We Tell Ourselves

Michelle Herman,2013-03-15 The two thought provoking extended essays that make up Stories We Tell Ourselves draw from the author s richly diverse experiences and history taking the reader on a deeply pleasurable walk to several unexpectedly profound destinations A steady accumulation of fascinating science psychoanalytic theory and cultural history ranging as far and wide as neuro ophthalmology ancient dream interpretation and the essential differences between Jung and Freud is smoothly intermixed with vivid anecdotes entertaining digressions and a disarming willingness to risk everything in the course of a revealing personal narrative Dream Life plumbs the depth of dreams conceptually biologically and as the nursery of our most meaningful metaphors as it considers dreams and dreaming every whichway from the haruspicy of the Roman Empire to contemporary sleep and dream science from the way birds dream to the way babies do from our longing to tell them to the reasons we wish other people wouldn t Seeing Things recounts a journey of mother and daughter a Holmes and Watson pair intrepidly working their way through the mysteries of a disorder known as Alice in Wonderland Syndrome even as it restlessly detours into the world beyond the looking glass of the unconscious itself In essays that constantly offer layers of surprises and ever deeper insights the author turns a powerful lens on the relationships that make up a family on expertise and unsatisfying diagnoses on science and art and the pleasures of contemplation and inquiry and on our fears regrets hopes and of course dreams The Stories We Tell Matt Bromley,2024-08-29
