anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re-creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web San Diego Poetry Annual -- 2009-10 William Harry Harding,2010-03 The San Diego Poetry Annual is now part of the permanent collection of every college and university library in the San Diego region as well as the San Diego County Library system the San Diego City Library and the libraries of individual cities including Carlsbad Oceanside and Escondido This 4th edition is the biggest and most diversified yet featuring 146 poets and 222 of the best poems from every corner of San Diego Copies of each edition of the San Diego Poetry Annual are donated in the name of contributing poets to public and college libraries in San Diego County and to select libraries nationally PEN America 14: The Good Books , Women, Modernism and British Poetry, 1910-1939 Jane Dowson,2017-03-02 Primarily a literary history Women Modernism and British Poetry 1910-1939 provides a timely discussion of individual women poets who have become or are becoming well known as their works are reprinted but about whom little has yet been written This volume recognizes the contributions overlooked previously of such British poets as Anna Wickham Nancy Cunard Edith Sitwell Mina Loy Charlotte Mew May Sinclair Vita Sackville West and Sylvia Townsend Warner and the impact of such American poets as H D Amy Lowell Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore and Laura Riding on literary practice in Britain This book primarily maps the poetry scene in Britain but identifies the significance of the network of writers between London New York and Paris It assesses women s participation in the diversity of modernist developments which include avant garde experiments quiet but subtly challenging formalism and assertive new woman voices It not only chronicles women s poetry but also their publications and involvement in running presses bookshops and writing criticism Although historically situated it is written from the perspective of contemporary debates concerning the interface of gender and modernism The author argues that a cohering aesthetic of the poetry is a denial of femininity through various evasions of gendered identity such as masking male and female impersonations and the rupturing of realist modes

The Marginalization of Poetry Bob Perelman, 2021-02-09 Language writing the most controversial avant garde movement in contemporary American poetry appeals strongly to writers and readers interested in the politics of postmodernism and in iconoclastic poetic form Drawing on materials from popular culture avoiding the standard stylistic indications of poetic lyricism and using nonsequential sentences are some of the ways in which language writers make poetry a more open and participatory process for the readers Reading this kind of writing however may not come easily in a culture where poetry is treated as property of a special class It is this barrier that Bob Perelman seeks to break down in this fascinating and comprehensive account of the language writing movement A leading language writer himself Perelman offers insights into the history of the movement and discusses the political and theoretical implications of the writing He provides detailed readings of work by Lyn Hejinian Ron Silliman and Charles Bernstein among many others and compares it to a wide range of other contemporary and modern American poetry A variety of issues are addressed in the following chapters The Marginalization of Poetry Language Writing and Literary History Here and Now on Paper Parataxis and Narrative The New Sentence in Theory and Practice Write the Power Building a More Powerful Vocabulary Bruce Andrews and the World Trade Center This Page Is My Page This Page Is Your Page Gender and Mapping An Alphabet of Literary Criticism and A False Account of Talking with Frank O'Hara and Roland Barthes in Philadelphia
