Peering Behind the Curtain Kimball King, Tom Fahy, 2013-10-15 This volume addresses disability in theater and features all new work including critical essays, interviews, personal essays and an original play It fills a gap in scholarship while promoting the profile of disability in theater Peering Behind the Curtain examines the issues surrounding disability in many well-known plays including Children of a Lesser God, The Elephant Man, Night Mother and Wit as well as an original play by James McDonald

Asian American Playwrights Miles Liu, 2002-05-30 In the late nineteenth century Asian American drama made its debut with the spotlight firmly on the lives and struggles of Asians in North America rather than on the cultures and traditions of the Asian homeland Today Asian American playwrights continue to challenge the limitations of established theatrical conventions and direct popular attention toward issues and experiences that might otherwise be ignored or marginalized While Asian American literature came into full bloom in the last 25 years Asian American drama has yet to receive the kind of critical attention it warrants This reference book serves as a versatile vehicle for exploring the field of Asian American drama from its recorded conception to its present stage Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 52 Asian American dramatists of origins from India, Pakistan, Vietnam, the Philippines, Japan, Korea and China Each entry includes relevant biographical information that contextualizes the works of a playwright, an interpretive description of selected plays that spotlights recurring themes and plots, a summary of the playwright's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works The entries are written by expert contributors and reflect the ethnic diversity of the Asian American community The volume closes with a selected general bibliography which includes anthologies, scholarly studies and periodicals

Conversations with Contemporary American Writers: Saul Bellow, I.B. Singer, Joyce Carol Oates, David Madden, Barry Beckham, Josephine Miles, Gerald Stern, Stephen Dunn, Etheridge Knight, Marilynne Robinson and William Stafford Sanford Pinsker, 2021-11-08

The Cambridge Companion to Sam Shepard Matthew Roudané, 2002-05-27 Few American playwrights have exerted as much influence on the contemporary stage as Sam Shepard His plays are performed on and off Broadway and in all the major regional American theatres They are also widely performed and studied in Europe particularly in Britain, Germany and France finding both a popular and scholarly audience In this collection of seventeen original essays American and European authors from different professional and academic backgrounds explore the various aspects of Shepard's career his plays poetry music fiction acting directing and film work The volume covers the major plays including Curse of the Starving Class Buried Child and True West as well as other lesser known but vitally important works A thorough chronology of Shepard's life and career together with biographical chapters a note from the legendary Joseph Chaikin and an interview with the playwright give a fascinating first hand account of an exuberant and experimental personality Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1980s Sandra G.

Shannon, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Playwriting series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material The major playwrights and their plays to receive in depth coverage in this volume include David Mamet Edmond 1982 Glengarry Glen Ross 1984 Speed the Plow 1988 and Oleanna 1992 David Henry Hwang Family Devotions 1981 The Sound of a Voice 1983 and M. Butterfly 1988 Maria Irene Fornes The Danube 1982 Mud 1983 and The Conduct of Life 1985 August Wilson Ma Rainey's Black Bottom 1984 Joe Turner's Come and Gone 1984 and Fences 1987 Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research Contemporary African American Female Playwrights Dana A.

Williams, 1998-06-30 Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun 1959 was a major dramatic success and brought to the world's attention the potential talent of African American women playwrights But in spite of Hansberry's landmark contribution both the theater and the literary world have often failed to include contemporary African American female playwrights within the circle of production publication and criticism In African American drama anthologies female playwrights are seldom given the degree of attention that is accorded their male counterparts And because of space constraints anthologies of works by women playwrights are forced to exclude numerous female dramatists including African Americans Meanwhile some scholars have argued that the works of African American female playwrights are seldom produced in the mainstream theater because these plays frequently challenge the views of white America But as A Raisin in the Sun demonstrates plays by African American women dramatists can have a powerful message and are worthy of attention A comprehensive research tool this annotated bibliography sheds light on the often neglected works of contemporary African American female playwrights Included within its scope are those dramatists who have had at least one work published since 1959 the year of Hansberry's monumental achievement The first section provides a listing of anthologies that include one or more plays written by an African American female dramatist The second gives entries for reference works and for scholarly and critical studies of the dramatists and their plays The third presents a listing of published plays by individual dramatists along with a summary of each drama the works of each playwright that are related to drama and secondary sources that treat the dramatists and their plays Entries are accompanied by concise but informative annotations and the volume closes with a list of periodicals that frequently publish criticism of African American female playwrights a section of brief biographical sketches of the dramatists and extensive indexes

American Playwrights Since 1945 Philip Kolin, 1989-01-23 This is a study of the state of research on and history of performances of 40 American playwrights including major mainstream ethnic and regional playwrights The essays list their published and unpublished plays as well as their other works document the performances identify bibliographies biographies critical studies and analyses of the plays and discuss the critical reception The volume deals with production histories covering critics actors directors and theater companies that have contributed as much to theater as the playwrights themselves It also discusses original screenplays and identifies writing on younger playwrights on whom research has just begun ISBN 0 313 25543 1 66 00 For use only in the library
