Lim, 2020-12-14 This book aims to capture the complicated development of Korea from monoethnic to multicultural society challenging the narrative of ethnonational continuity in Korea through a discursive institutional approach At a time when immigration is changing the face of South Korea and an increasingly diverse society becomes empirical fact this doesn t necessarily mean that multiculturalism has been embraced as a normative policy based response to that fact The approach here diverges from existing academic analyses which tend to conclude that core institutions defining Korea s immigration and nationality regimes nd which crucially also reflect a basic and hitherto unyielding commitment to racial and ethnic homogeneity ill remain largely unaffected by increasing diversity Here this title underscores the critical importance of discursive agency as a necessary
