time Huie a friend of King writes that he went into his investigation of Ray believing that a conspiracy was behind King's murder. But after retracing Ray's movements through California, Louisiana, Mexico, Canada, Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis, and London, Huie came to believe that James Earl Ray was a pathetic petty criminal who hated African Americans and sought to make a name for himself by murdering King. He Slew the Dreamer was originally published in 1970 soon after Ray went to prison and was republished in 1977 but was out of print until the 1997 edition published with the cooperation of Huie's widow. This new edition features an essay by scholar Rich Richardson that provides fresh insight and it includes the 1977 prologue which Huie wrote countering charges by members of Congress, the King family, and others who claimed the FBI had aided and abetted Ray. In 1970, 1977, 1997, and now He Slew the Dreamer offers a remarkably detailed examination of the available evidence at the time the murder occurred and an invaluable resource to current debates over the King assassination.

No God but Man Atiya Husain, 2024-12-16. Reconceptualizing the relationship between race and Islam in the United States. No God but Man theorizes race as an epistemology using the FBI's post 9/11 Most Wanted Terrorist list and its posters as its starting point. Atiya Husain traces the origins of the FBI wanted poster form to the work of nineteenth-century social scientist Adolphe Quetelet, specifically his overvalued type of human called average man. Husain argues that this notion of the human continues to structure wanted posters as well as much contemporary social scientific thinking about race. Focusing on the curious representations on the Most Wanted Terrorist list that range from Muslims who lack a race category on their posters to the 2013 addition of Black revolutionary Assata Shakur, Husain demonstrates the ongoing influence of the average man and its relevance even today, proposing a counterweight to the category by engaging Shakur's turn to Islam in the 1970s in the legal context. In doing so, Husain shows the limitations of race as an analytical category altogether.

Motion Pictures From the Fabulous 1950's Terry Rowan, 2015-12-22. The 1950s marked a decade of great fads: hula hoops, Davy Crockett coonskin caps, Roy Rogers or Gene Autrey guns, or cowboy boots and poodle skirts. It gave us Elvis Presley and rock and roll crew cuts and sideburns, argyle sweaters, saddle shoes, and white bucks. College kids on panty raids and sock hops. In the corner of every sitting room was a small but ever-expanding eye fixed on an opening world. Television set. Films of the 1950s were wide variety and the studios sought to put audiences back in the seats of the theaters.
