course as well as advanced undergraduates Titles in the series are also ideal for language professionals returning to academic study. The books take an innovative practice to theory approach with a back to front structure. This leads the reader from real world problems and issues through a discussion of intervention and how to engage with these concerns before finally relating these practical issues to theoretical foundations Additional features include a glossary of key terms and discussion questions Following the back to front approach of the series the book takes problematic issues in language pedagogy as its starting points These are then examined in terms of second language acquisition Each chapter begins with a look at the pedagogical proposals found in teacher guides and then asks Do these proposals accord with what we know about how languages are acquired Pedagogical topics covered include teaching methods syllabus design explicit instruction comprehension versus production based instruction task based instruction authentic materials the role of the learners first language in the classroom error correction and catering for individual differences Including a glossary of key terms and questions for discussion at the end of each chapter and assuming no prior knowledge of second language acquisition this is the ideal text for all students studying language teaching methods language teacher education English teaching methodology and second language acquisition modules in advanced undergraduate and postgraduate graduate TESOL and Applied Linguistics courses Grammatical Categories in Linguistics and Education Holden Härtl, Katharina Zaychenko, 2024-11-04 This volume explores how grammatical categories as defined by theoretical linguistics are effectively implemented in language education Aiming to bridge the gap between linguistic research and language pedagogy it offers a detailed inquiry that spans theoretical frameworks and empirical data By presenting a series of insightful studies this work illustrates how findings from theoretical linguistics can be applied to enhance practical language instruction demonstrating the reciprocal enrichment of both fields Essential for linguists language educators and researchers interested in the intersections of grammar cognition and pedagogy the volume is organized into four engaging sections Each section illuminates the nuances of grammar teaching and language acquisition It begins with a theoretical analysis of linguistic categories across diverse languages progresses through the links between linguistic research and teaching methodologies and delves into the role of empirical data in classroom applications The final section focuses on the practical implementation of linguistic categories in language teaching promoting a deeper understanding of grammar as a dynamic component of language learning

Analysing Learner Language Rod Ellis, Gary Barkhuizen, 2025-01-06 This book provides a clear and accessible introduction to the main methods of analysing samples of learner language It examines the theoretical and research bases for the different methods and thereby serves as an introduction to the field of second language acquisition research The book is intended for students on postgraduate courses in TESOL or Applied Linguistics or for teachers wishing to do action research to find out more about how learners learn language

Space and Time in Languages and Cultures Luna Filipovi?, Kasia M. Jaszczolt, 2012-07-24 This volume offers novel insights into linguistic diversity in the domains of spatial and temporal reference searching for uniformity amongst diversity A number of authors discuss expression of dynamic spatial relations cross linguistically in a vast range of typologically different languages such as Bezhta French Hinuq Italian Japanese Polish Serbian and Spanish among others The contributions on linguistic expression of time all shed new light on pertinent questions regarding this cognitive domain such as the hotly debated relationship between cross linguistic differences in talking about time and universal principles of utterance interpretation modelling temporal inference through aspectual interactions as well as the complexity of the acquisition of tense aspect relations in a second language The topic of space and time in language and culture is also represented from a different point of view in the sister volume Space and Time in Languages and Cultures Language culture and cognition HCP 37 which discusses spatial and temporal constructs in human language cognition and culture in order to come closer to a better understanding of the interaction between shared and individual characteristics of language and culture that shape the way people interact with each other and exchange information about the spatio temporal constructs that underlie their cognitive social and linguistic foundations
