The Complete Of South African Wine:

The Complete Book of South African Wine John Kench, Phyllis Hands, David Hughes, 1983-01-01 The Wine Industry of South Africa. A Sector Report Cyril Alias, 2015-05-07 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject Business economics General grade 1.0 University of Applied Sciences Bielefeld course Internationale Wirtschaftsbeziehungen language English abstract Although South Africa was not very famous for its beverages esp its wines for long times and has gained fame in recent years only the heritage of its vine growing culture goes back to the mid of the 17th century European settlers predominantly from The Netherlands started to plant first seedlings in the Cape region It was Jan van Riebeeck founder of the Cape colony who brought the seedlings along from Europe in 1655 Some four years later the first South African wine was ready to be drunk However as the Dutch were not too experienced with viticulture real development took place only when French Huguenots settled in that region in the end of the 17th century In the mid of the 18th and the beginning of the 19th century these wines e.g. the very sweet Constantia wines were very popular all around Europe particularly in the royal houses But afterwards the demand shrank to nearly zero In 1973 viticulture was resumed in the African country However the wines were boycotted by the rest of the world due to the Apartheid problems within the country Only from 1990 onwards South African wine industry is recovering and nowadays belongs to the so called New World wines which also include products from Chile Argentina Australia New Zealand and the United States California Wines of the Southern Hemisphere Mike DeSimone, Jeff Jenssen, 2012-10-02 The southern hemisphere is fast becoming the hottest source of delicious affordable wine and this is the first book to focus entirely on this burgeoning industry Created by the renowned World Wine Guys Wines of the Southern Hemisphere provides the latest information on the best wineries in Argentina Australia Brazil Chile New Zealand South Africa and Uruguay In addition the guide features interviews with top winemakers and recipes to pair with their wines 300 Great South African Wines David Hughes, 1983 Wines of the New South Africa Tim James, 2013-07-01 Sought after by European aristocrats and a favorite of Napoleon Bonaparte the sweet wines of Constantia in the Cape Colony were considered to be among the world's best during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries During the first democratic elections in 1994 South Africa began to re-emerge onto the international wine scene Tim James an expert on South African wines takes the reader on an information packed tour of the region showing us how and why the unique combination of terroir and climate together with dramatic improvements in winemaking techniques result in wines that are once again winning accolades James describes important grape varieties and wine styles from delicate sparkling to rich fortified and everything in between including the varietal blends that produce some of the finest Cape wines Anchoring his narrative in a rich historical context James discusses all the major wine regions from Cederberg to Walker Bay complete with profiles of more than 150 of the country's finest producers South Africa Monica Cole, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1961 this book was the first comprehensive work on South African geography that also presented a balanced account of all facets of the economic life It was written to provide background information on South Africa the nature of the country its resources and deficiencies its historic settlement by peoples of different races and of the progress made and the difficulties encountered in the major areas of economic activity agriculture mining manufacturing and trade In discussing these factors the book acknowledged that in South Africa the complexities of the relationships between peoples of different racial origins and widely differently economic and cultural standards are met in one country Official Year Book of the Union [of South Africa] and of Basutoland, Bechuanaland Protectorate, and Swaziland ,1925 Table Wines M.
