The Dawn At My Back Memoir Of A Black Texas Upbringing Constructs Series:

The Dawn at My Back Carroll Parrott Blue, 2003 Blue turns her lens on her mother's and her own lives as African American women in the segregated South before and during the Civil Rights era G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 2003 African American Review, 2003 Publications of the Modern Language Association of America, 2003 The Independent Film & Video Monthly, 2003 The Case for Single Motherhood Katherine Elizabeth Mack, 2023-12-05 Delves into the rhetorical work of elective single mothers (ESMs) in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries as they sought and continue to seek to legitimize their maternal identities and family formations. Scholars of rhetoric have largely overlooked the inherent rhetoricity of family. In The Case for Single Motherhood Katherine Mack posits family as a central concern of rhetorical studies by reflecting on how language is used by single mothers who seek to envision the personal, social, and political meanings of family. Drawing on intersectional and rhetorical theories, Mack demonstrates how the category of elective single motherhood emerged in response to the historically differential treatment of unwed mothers along racial and class lines. Through her readings of a range of self-sponsored ESM texts, guidebooks, memoirs, and interactive digital media written by and primarily for other ESMs and from her perspective as an elective single mother herself, Mack evaluates the rhetorical power as well as the exclusions and hierarchies that the ESM label effects. She analyzes how ESMs envision motherhood, visions that entail their musings about who can and should mother. Ultimately, Mack offers women who are considering nonnormative paths to motherhood a way to affirm their maternal identities and paths without disparaging others. Scholars in the fields of rhetoric and feminist rhetorical studies will find in this volume an illuminating perspective on the rhetorical power of self-sponsored texts. In particular, Crafting a methodology to identify and evaluate the goals and effects of legitimacy work and selecting sources that bring academic attention to varied genres of self-sponsored writings, Mack paves the way for future rhetorical studies of motherhood and family. The Dawn at My Back Carroll Parrott Blue, Kristy H. A. Kang, 2003 Incorporates photographs, video, oral histories of Houston's Black community, and text based on Carroll Parrott Blue's memoir using an interface inspired by the author's great grandmother's quilt The Advocate, 2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, LGBT monthly newsmagazine. Established in 1967, it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States. The Dawn at My Back Carroll Parrott Blue, 2003-01-01 Building on Carroll Parrott Blue's compelling written memoir and enriching it with video documentation, interviews, and animations, this DVD-ROM makes her personal story and the historical background come to life. It works both as a companion to the book and as a stand-alone interactive memoir. Featuring voice overs by Blue and by actors Ruby Dee, Ossie Davis, and Debbie Allen, as well as moving testimonies from Black Houstonians, the narrative unfolds through a gospel-like layering of voices and music and a quilting of vivid photographs and movies. Users navigate through the mindscapes of Blue's Homeland and Hell.
