The Dead Seagull:

The Dead Seagull George Barker, 1980 The Dead Seagull George Barker, 1965 The Dead Seagull George Barker (književnik.), 1965 The Poetry of the Forties in Britain A. Trevor Tolley, 1985 Adapting Chekhov J. Douglas Clayton, Yana Meerzon, 2013 This book considers the hundred years of re-writes of Anton Chekhov's work presenting a wide geographical landscape of Chekhovian influences in drama The volume examines the elusive quality of Chekhov's dramatic universe as an intricate mechanism an engine in which his enigmatic characters exist as the dramatic and psychological ciphers we have been decoding for a century and continue to do so Examining the practice and the theory of dramatic adaptation both as intermedial transformation from page to stage and as intramedial mutation from page to page the book presents adaptation as the emerging genre of drama theatre and film This trend marks the performative and social practices of the new millennium highlighting our epoch's need to engage with the history of dramatic forms and their evolution The collection demonstrates that adaptation as the practice of transformation and as a re-thinking of habitual dramatic norms and genre definitions leads to the rejuvenation of existing dramatic and performative standards pioneering the creation of new traditions and expectations As the major mode of the storytelling imagination adaptation can build upon and drive the audience's horizons of expectations in theatre aesthetics Hence this volume investigates the original and transformative knowledge that the story of Chekhov's drama in mutations offers to scholars of drama and performance to students of modern literatures and cultures and to theatre practitioners worldwide Everyone in This Room Will Someday Be Dead Emily Austin, 2021-07-06 In this fun page-turner of a novel Sarah Haywood New York Times bestselling author that's perfect for fans of Mostly Dead Things and Goodbye Vitamin a morbidly anxious young woman stumbles into a job as a receptionist at a Catholic church and soon finds herself obsessed with her predecessor's mysterious death Gilda a twenty-something atheist animal-loving lesbian cannot stop ruminating about death Desperate for relief from her panicky mind and alienated from her repressive family she responds to a flyer for free therapy at a local Catholic church and finds herself being greeted by Father Jeff who assumes she's there for a job interview Too embarrassed to correct him Gilda is abruptly hired to replace the recently deceased receptionist Grace In between trying to memorize the lines to Catholic mass hiding the fact that she has a new girlfriend and erecting a dirty dish tower in her crumbling apartment Gilda strikes up an email correspondence with Grace's old friend She can't bear to ignore the kindly old woman who has been trying to reach her friend through the church inbox but she also can't bring herself to break the bad news Desperate she begins impersonating Grace via email But when the police discover suspicious circumstances surrounding Grace's death Gilda may have to finally reveal the truth of her mortifying existence With a kindhearted heroine we all need right now Courtney Maum New York Times bestselling author Everyone in This Room Will Someday Be Dead is a crackling and delightfully weird reminder that we will one day turn to dust and that yes this is depressing but it's also what makes life beautiful Jean Kyoung Frazier author

Miss MacIntosh, My Darling Marguerite Young, 2024-04-09 This novel is one of the most ambitious and remarkable literary achievements of our time It is a picaresque psychological novel a novel of the road a journey or voyage of the human spirit in its search for reality in a world of illusion and nightmare It is an epic of what might be called the Arabian Nights of American life Marguerite Young's method is poetic imagistic incantatory in prose of extraordinary richness she tests the nature of her characters and the nature of reality Miss MacIntosh My Darling is written with oceanic music moving at many levels of consciousness and perception but the toughly fibred realistic fabric is always there in the happenings of the narrative the humor the precise details the definitions of the characters Miss MacIntosh herself who hails from What Cheer Iowa and seems downright and normal with an incorruptible sense of humor and the desire to put an end to phantoms Catherine Cartwheel the opium lady a recluse who is shut away in a great New England seaside house and entertains imaginary guests Mr Spitzer the lawyer musical composer and mystical space traveler a gentle man wholly unsure of himself and of reality his twin brother Peron the gay and raffish gambler and virtuoso in the world of sports Cousin Hannah the horsewoman balloonist mountain climber and militant Boston feminist known as Al Hamad through all the seraglios of the East Titus Bonebreaker of Chicago wild man of God dreaming of a heavenly crown the very efficient Christian hangman Mr Weed of the Wabash River Valley a featherweight champion who meets his equal in a graveyard these are a few who live with phantasmagorical vividness in the pages of Miss MacIntosh My Darling The novel touches on many aspects of life drug addiction woman s suffrage murder suicide pregnancy both real and imaginary schizophrenia many strange loves the psychology of gambling perfectionism but the profusion of this huge book serves always to intensify the force of the central question What shall we do when fleeing from illusion we are confronted by illusion What is real what is dream Is the calendar of the human heart the same as that kept by the earth Is it possible that one may live a secondary life of which one does not know In every aspect Miss MacIntosh My Darling stands by itself in the lyric beauty of its prose its imaginative vitality and cumulative emotional power It is the work of a writer of genius
