The Death of Adult Children Through the Eyes of Grieving Parents Ronald R. Gaber, Jeana Bacon, 1999 The Death of an Adult Child Jeanne Webster Blank, 2016-11-03 This book was written to be a comfort and guide for bereaved parents whose adult child has died to show by sharing our experiences that we are not alone in our responses to our child s death that we are not weak defective in character or otherwise inadequate because of the way we grieve to spell out ways in which some of us have increased our understanding of our condition found solace dispelled guilt and anger overcome depression come to terms with survivors and memorialized our deceased children Questionnaires were sent to more than sixty bereaved parents of adult children who died and many anonymous examples from these questionnaires are used throughout the book

An Intimate Loneliness Riches, Gordon, Dawson, Pam, 2000-01-01 What impact does a child s death have on family relationships How might differences in the way mothers and fathers deal with bereavement contribute to increased marital tension Why are bereaved siblings so deeply affected by the way their parents grieve An Intimate Loneliness explores how family members attempt to come to terms with the death of an offspring or brother or sister Drawing on relevant research and the authors own experience of working with bereaved parents and siblings this book examines the importance of social relationships in helping parents and siblings adjust to their bereavement The chances of making sense of this most distressing loss are influenced by the resilience of the family s surviving relationships by the availability of wider support networks and by the cultural resources that inform each s perception of death This book considers the impact of bereavement on self and family identity In particular it examines the role of shared remembering in transforming survivors relationships with the deceased and in helping rebuild their own identity with a significantly changed family structure Problems considered include the failure of intimate relationships cultural and gender expectations the invisibility of fathers and siblings grief sudden and difficult deaths lack of information and the sense of isolation felt by some family members This book will be of value to students on courses in counselling health care psychology social policy pastoral care and education It will appeal to sociology students with an interest in death dying and mortality It is also aimed at professionally qualified counselling health and social service workers at informed voluntary group members the clergy teachers and others involved with pastoral care Adult Children of Abusive Parents Steven Farmer, 1990 A history of a childhood abuse is not a life sentence Here is hope healing and a chance to recover the self lost in childhood Drawing on his extensive work with Adult Children and on his own experience as a survivor of emotional neglect therapist Steven Farmer demonstrates that through exercises and journal work his program can help lead you through grieving your lost childhood to become your own parent and integrate the healing aspects of spiritual physical and emotional recovery into your adult life Death, Grief, and Mourning John S. Stephenson, 1985-04-01 How do Americans cope with death Do our feelings about dying influence the way we live How are our ideas of death different from those of our ancestors. These questions and others are addressed in this innovative new book a comprehensive interdisciplinary approach to the processes practices and experiences concerning death and dving in the United States Drawing on sociology and psychology as well as history and literature John S Stephenson surveys the range of individual and social responses to death from our very conception of its meaning to the complex ethical dilemmas surrounding suicide and euthanasia Stephenson synthesizes a theoretical perspective of death from the contributions of such important thinkers as Freud Jung Ernest Becker and Robert Jay Lifton He reviews the evolution of American attitudes and behaviors toward death from the Puritan era to the present and charts the significance of such organizations for the dying as hospitals hospices and nursing homes Bereavement as both personal reaction grief and social convention mourning is also discussed as is the denial of death as a coping mechanism for individuals and institutions alike In his final chapters Stephenson analyzes the ceremonies of death including gravestones as social indicators and provides a psychosocial overview of suicide as a final desperate attempt to assert control He concludes by exploring the implications of euthanasia at a time when technology can extend life dramatically but is not always capable of assuring its quality Throughout authentic case examples many drawn from Stephenson's own clinical work illustrate the multi faceted imagery and experiences that comprise the American way of death Stephenson's book will be welcomed by sociologists psychologists social workers religious leaders nurses and others concerned with caring for the dying and the bereaved It is a brilliant and elegantly written work that crosses disciplinary boundaries to provide a valuable synthesis of existing knowledge and offer educators and professionals a firm foundation for teaching practice and research Healing the Adult Child's Grieving Heart Alan D. Wolfelt, 2002-09-01 Offering heartfelt and simple advice this book provides realistic suggestions and relief for an adult child whose parent has died Practical advice is presented in a one topic per page format that does not overwhelm with psychological language but provides small immediate ways to understand and reconcile grief Some of the action oriented tips include writing down memories completing a task or goal left unfinished by your deceased parent or honoring the parent's birthday In addition the common challenges that face grieving adult children such as helping the surviving parent resolving sibling conflicts and legal and financial issues are addressed clearly and concisely Grief Ministry Terence P. Curley, 2016-02-11 Offering solace and encouragement to those who grieve is a critical aspect of the church's ministry of mercy and love To find your place within grief ministry and plan this important ministry from first response to spiritual guidance there is no better mentor than Fr Terence Curley In this guide Fr Curley pays attention to all of the factors contributing to a grief minister's multifaceted work including parish support and his or her own loss history Symptoms of loss trust and hints for conversations with the grieving are topics touched by this detailed and sensitive guide This book a fully revised edition of Fr Curley's earlier book The Ministry of Consolers is a necessary tool for parishes hospices educational institutions and all those attending to the bereaved Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, 2008 Hooyman and Kramer's starting point is that loss comes in many forms and can include not only suffering the death of a person one loves but also giving birth to a child with disabilities living with chronic illness or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach loss from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges the capacity of people to integrate loss into their lives and write sensitively about the role of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in a person s response to loss from publisher information Individuation for Adult Replacement Children Kristina E. Stevenson, Gerry R. Cox, 2017-02-02 The topic of death and related issues such as grief often begin with questions When the questions come from or are about children or adolescents they bring an additional component the fear some adults have of giving a wrong answer In this context a wrong answer is one that can cause more harm than good for the child or adolescent who asked the question This book provides information that can be used to address the death related questions from children and adolescents It also looks at questions from caring adults about the way children or adolescents view death and the grief that follows a death or any major loss Children Adolescents and Death covers topics that start with early studies of childhood grief and progress to expression of grief in cyberspace There is no one answer to most of the questions in this book There are contributors from a number of continents countries cultures and academic disciplines each of whom brings a unique view of the topic issues they discuss There are presentations of practical interventions that others may copy upon which they can build There are a number of chapters that look at death education in both family and school settings This work contains ideas and techniques that can be of value to parents educators counselors therapists spiritual advisors caring adults and of course will be of the most benefit to those who ask the most questions the children and adolescents themselves Constellations Jakob R Schneider, 2020-10-28 What helps love to flow freely What keeps us entangled in the lives and fates of others What can free us from entanglements Family constellations can help us to look at these issues and take steps towards a happier and more fulfilled life Family members often become entangled in the lives and fates of others in the family system This book describes this process how this appears in family constellations and how it can be resolved It clarifies the orders of love in the soul that support relationships between partners parents and children and others in the family system It looks at how family constellations can help lay the past to rest and redirect life energy towards the future Jakob Robert Schneider calls upon his rich background of experience in this accessible and well grounded look at family constellations from the basics to the depths of this work Constellation leaders at all levels of experience will find support and inspiration in the open and informed discussion Non professionals can get an overview and orientation to this approach to family systems This is a completely up to date basic introduction to family constellations that is well structured concise and supported by many clear and often touching case examples It summarises the development basic principles focus attitude and various procedures of constellations and it does so in a way that is always comprehensible logical differentiated and stimulating I know of no book that describes the broad scope of family constellations in such a clear compact yet comprehensive way Dr Gunthard Weber Grief and Bereavement in Contemporary Society Robert A. Neimeyer, Darcy L. Harris, Howard R. Winokuer, Gordon Thornton, 2021-09-08 Grief and Bereavement in Contemporary Society is the authoritative guide to the study of and work with major themes in bereavement The classic edition includes a new preface from the lead editors discussing advances in the field since the book s initial publication. The book s chapters synthesize the best of research based conceptualization and clinical wisdom across 30 of the most important topics in the field The volume s contributors come from around the world and their work reflects a level of cultural awareness of the diversity and universality of bereavement and its challenges that has rarely been approximated by other volumes This is a readable engaging and comprehensive book that shares the most important scientific and applied work on the contemporary scene with a broad international audience It s an essential addition to anyone with a serious interest in death dying and Kinship Bereavement in Later Life Brian de Vries, 2019-03-19 This collection of articles is an outgrowth bereavement of the Death Dying Bereavement and Widowhood Interest Group of the Gerontological Society of America and comprises empirical accounts of several distinct family losses the death of a spouse sibling parent child and grandchild These articles represent normative and non normative losses the juxtaposition of short term and long term bereavement reactions cross sectional and longitudinal comparisons sociological psychological and psycholinguistic research paradigms national and regional level data and qualitative and quantitative analytic strategies. The articles and their approaches are as diverse and varied as are the experiences they describe yet each contributes something of value to the more singular and superordinate goal of understanding kinship bereavement in the later years Children Mourning, Mourning Children Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-21 Based on the Hospice Foundation of America's second annual teleconference this book explores three basic themes in children's grief Firstly it maintains that children are always developing therefore their understanding of death and their reactions to illness and loss are also multifaceted and constantly undergoing change Secondly children grieve in ways that are both different from and similar to adults While they may need different therapeutic approaches from their elders each loss is different and the grief experience will be affected by many of the same factors that affect adults Thirdly it holds that they need significant support as they grieve Talking to children about loss and and illness is too important to wait until a crisis rather it is essential to provide opportunities to discuss loss in times that are not so Emotionally Laden This Book Aims To Demonstrate That Open Communication between parents and children will lead to skills and understanding that are essential to the child for coping with loss and reaffirming that death is part of the process of living Loss in Childhood and Adolescence Phyllis Cohen, K. Mark Sossin, Richard Ruth, 2014-01-31 In Healing after Parent Loss in Childhood and Adolescence Therapeutic Interventions and Theoretical Considerations experts explore the varied often complex and always tragic circumstances under which young people face losing a parent Profound grief and feelings of powerlessness may accompany loss of a parent at any age but distinctly so when such loss is experienced during formative years Whenever these individuals seek help therapists must be psychically prepared to enter into arenas of trauma bereavement and mourning The children teens and adults presented are diverse in age culture ethnicity and socioeconomic status A diverse group of contributors showcase a wide range of effective approaches from traditionally structured short and long term psychotherapies and psychoanalysis to psycho educational supportive and preventive interventions The writers in this volume do not shy away from tough matters such as urban violence AIDS and war they address concerns practicing clinicians face such as when to work with children adolescents and adults individually and when and how to involve their surviving parents and families Included in this book are issues related to the self care and professional development needs of therapists who take on this difficult but essential work including peer support and supervision This volume is likely to spark important re examinations across all fields of mental health practice It will equip and empower clinicians of all kinds who undertake work with those who are grieving Healing after Parent Loss in Childhood and Adolescence promises to be a vital and stimulating read for supervisors teachers and trainers of child adolescent and family clinicians Understanding Death and Dying Frank E.
