explores key issues in modern Chinese history including state society relations social transformation and gender relations in the context of the Republican Chinese experiment with liberal modernity Investigating both the codification process and the subsequent implementation of the Code Margaret Kuo deftly challenges arguments that discount Republican law as an elite pursuit that failed to exert much influence beyond modernized urban households She reconsiders the dominant narratives of the 1930s and 1940s as dark years for Chinese women Instead she convincingly recasts the history of these years from the perspective of women who actively and successfully engaged the law to improve their lives Public Passions Eugenia Lean,2007-04-24 In 1935 a Chinese woman by the name of Shi Jianqiao murdered the notorious warlord Sun Chuanfang as he prayed in a Buddhist temple This riveting work of history examines this well publicized crime and the highly sensationalized trial of the killer In a fascinating investigation of the media political and judicial records surrounding this cause c l bre Eugenia Lean shows how Shi Jianqiao planned not only to avenge the death of her father but also to attract media attention and galvanize public support Lean traces the rise of a new sentiment public sympathy in early twentieth century China a sentiment that ultimately served to exonerate the assassin The book sheds new light on the political significance of emotions the powerful influence of sensational media modern law in China and the gendered nature of modernity China John King Fairbank,Merle Goldman,2006-04-30 John King Fairbank was the West s doyen on China and this book is the full and final expression of his lifelong engagement with this vast ancient civilization The distinguished historian Merle Goldman brings the book up to date and provides an epilogue discussing the changes in contemporary China that will shape the nation in the years to come Artful History Aaron Sachs,John Demos,2020-02-18 A collection of memorable stirring and eloquent historical essays designed to help any historian write more artfully Is there any reason serious historical scholarship cannot receive literary expression Even the most committed empiricists and postmodernists might achieve better results by thinking of writing as a craft rather than a means of packaging research This book gathers some of the most compelling efforts to make history writing eloquent stirring and memorable demonstrating that even the most rigorous scholarship can take on a wide range of creative forms With selections from Jonathan Spence Simon Schama Saidiya Hartman Wendy Warren Jill Lepore Louis Masur Jane Kamensky and John Demos among others Women in World History: v. 2: Readings from 1500 to the Present Sarah Shaver Hughes,Brady Hughes,2015-04-29 This work is one of two volumes presenting selected histories from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas It discusses issues within a female context and features political and economic issues marriage practices motherhood and enslavement religious beliefs and spiritual development The Gate of Heavenly Peace Jonathan D.
