The Denizens of New Boston Road Joseph Patrick Kiley, Jr., 2002-04-01      Letters from Uncle Fred Frederick Spencer Kiley, 2014-08-08 When I published Denizens of New Boston Road Fred asked me why I had listed our brother Joseph Patrick Kiley Jr as the author It was not a mistake on my part it was the only way I could get on with the project because I had been badgering him for weeks to allow me to list him as the author which he was At that time he was still teaching at Trenton State and I assume he was reluctant to let his students and associates see his published works He mellowed after a short time because everyone approved of his writings The publication of Denizens led to a discussion of his other writings and that brought up the subject of the letters which we had been exchanging over the years He told me that the letters meant a lot to him because he used them to force him to continue writing even when the mood to write wasn't on him He also told me that the freedom he enjoyed in writing letters was the limited audience to whom he was writing friends and family In this publication I am violating that limitation by allowing you to enter into the audience that can see and read the thoughts he had intended for a select few Fred felt that in letter writing there could be an intimate bonding between the writer and the recipient in the best case a touching of souls Fred was still an innocent in many respects even after the war had stripped him of most of his innocence He wrote using humor sarcasm and other artifices to conceal his true message which was love He had a love for natural beauty children and animals He had admiration for talent honesty and integrity I hope that you can discover that by reading his letters He was my big brother and I loved him      Showplace of America Jan Cigliano, Jan Cigliano Hartman, 1991 In cooperation with Western Reserve Historical Society Euclid Avenue which runs through the heart of downtown Cleveland was for 60 years one of the finest residential streets of any city in 19th century America Showplace of America is the fascinating account of the rise and fall of this elegant promenade including portrayals of the eminent architects who created its opulent residences and colorful details about the lives of the wealthy people who occupied them The families who resided within this linear four mile neighborhood epitomized Midwestern grandeur in the second half of the 19th century The 1893 Baedeker's travel guide to the United States labeled it one of the most beautiful residence streets in America as others hailed it Millionaires Row the finest avenue in the west and the most beautiful street in the world Modeled after the grand boulevards of Europe this magnificent neighborhood was distinguished for the prominence of its architects as well as the families who lived there Local architects Jonathan Goldsmith Charles W Heard Levi T Scofield Charles F Schweinfurth and Coburn Barnum and national firms Peabody Stearns and McKim Mead White created houses that were stunning monuments to Cleveland and America's growing prosperity Ironically the tremendous success of Cleveland's industry and commerce which had nurtured the rise of this grand avenue fostered its fall Downtown commerce expanded along the avenue at the sacrifice of its leading entrepreneurs residential have The houses were demolished as the avenue became what is today a neglected urban thoroughfare Photographs and illustrations from the archives of the Western
