The Desert Realm ,1982     The Desert Encyclopedia Robert Hauptman,2024-08-06 This reference work is the first English language A Z compendium on all topics related to deserts including geography geology meteorology climatology hydrology botany zoology anthropology art music film culture sports as well as the specific and diversely different deserts that one finds in all parts of the world Definitions explanations and clarifications will be contained in more than 2 300 entries that vary in length from a brief sentence to detailed overviews of more complex subjects The Desert Encyclopedia will be invaluable as a source of data and information but it is also enjoyable to read straight through It is also replete with line drawings black and white illustrations maps and images from outstanding photographers     Desert Landscape Architecture John C. Krieg,2018-12-20 This book provides an understanding of desert environments their climatic conditions and unique physical beauty using the five American deserts of the southwestern United States as an example Through considerable research sensitivity and practical experience the author provides insight into how built environments are designed and installed in order to cope with the harsh unforgiving physiographic area Bridging the gap between professional jargon and common sense Desert Landscape Architecture displays detailed information for every facet of landscape design environmental concerns water issues cultural issues and plant material use This unique thorough book Provides information applicable to any desert region of the world Supplies a plant compendium with extensive plant lists comprising more than 750 species Examines desert flora and fauna as well as the fragile ecosystems they occupy Reviews human use areas Investigates grading from an aesthetic and practical standpoint Explains the significance of adequate site drainage Discusses schematic preliminary and working drawing plans Lists types of site furnishings and their specific purposes Describes how various hardscape elements are drawn and specified Explains plant growth in detail Discusses the dynamics of plant communities and their function in larger ecosystems Reviews the factors affecting plant selection in the design process Identifies desert planning zones Emphasizes the critical nature of irrigation design in the desert landscape architecture explaining it as an environmental necessity not a technical issue Outlines the basic principles of hydrology related to system design Discusses water conservation and presents alternatives for reducing water consumption Examines types of light and sun     Trade and Romance Michael Murrin,2024-05-31 In Trade and Romance Michael Murrin examines the complex relations between the expansion of trade in Asia and the production of heroic romance in Europe from the second half of the thirteenth century through the late seventeenth century He shows how these tales of romance ostensibly meant for the aristocracy were important to the growing mercantile class as a way to gauge their own experiences in traveling to and trading in these exotic locales Murrin also looks at the role that growing knowledge of geography played in the writing of the creative literature of the period tracking how accurate or inaccurate these writers were in depicting far flung destinations from Iran and the Caspian Sea all the way to the Pacific With reference to an impressive range of major works in several languages including the works of Marco Polo Geoffrey Chaucer Matteo Maria Boiardo Lu s de Cam es Fern o Mendes Pinto Edmund Spenser John Milton and more Murrin tracks numerous accounts by traders and merchants through the literature first on the Silk Road beginning in the mid thirteenth century then on the water route to India Japan and China via the Cape of Good Hope and finally the overland route through Siberia to Beijing All of these routes originally used to exchange commodities quickly became paths to knowledge as well enabling information to pass if sometimes vaguely and intermittently between Europe and the Far East These new tales of distant shores fired the imagination of Europe and made their way with surprising accuracy as Murrin shows into the poetry of the period
