The Diary of Frances, Lady Shelley, 1787-1817 Lady Frances Winckley Shelley, 1913 The Diary of Frances Lady Shelley 1787-1817 Frances Lady Shelley, 1913 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1912 Fighting Terror after Napoleon Beatrice de Graaf, 2020-10-01 After twenty six years of unprecedented revolutionary upheavals and endless fighting the victorious powers craved stability after Napoleon's defeat in 1815 With the threat of war and revolutionary terror still looming large the coalition launched an unprecedented experiment to re-establish European security With over one million troops remaining in France they established the Allied Council to mitigate the threat of war and terror and to design and consolidate a system of deterrence The Council transformed the norm of interstate relations into the first modern system of collective security in Europe Drawing on the records of the Council and the correspondence of key figures such as Metternich Castlereagh Wellington and Alexander I Beatrice de Graaf tells the story of Europe's transition from concluding a war to consolidating a new order She reveals how long before commercial interest and economic considerations on scale and productivity dictated and inspired the project of European integration the common denominator behind this first impulse for a unification of Europe in norms and institutions was the collective fight against terror Quarterly List of New Books Public Library of Brookline, 1912 Quarterly List of New Books, 1911 Cambridge Public Library Bulletin Cambridge Public Library (Cambridge, Mass.), 1913 Cambridge Public Library Bulletin, 1913 Quarterly Bulletin, 1910 Book Bulletin Chicago Public Library, 1912 Monthly Bulletin of the Philippine Library and Museum National Library (Philippines), 1912 Travel Writing and Tourism in Britain and Ireland Benjamin Colbert, 2011-12-13 From the mid eighteenth century to the twentieth tourism became established as a leisure industry and travel writing as a popular genre In this collection of essays leading international historians and travel writing experts examine the role of home tourism in the UK and Ireland in the development of national identities and commercial culture Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1913 Includes its Report 1896-19 Notes and Queries, 1912 "Exhibiting Outside the Academy, Salon and Biennial, 1775-1999" Andrew Graciano, 2017-07-05 In recent years there has been increasing scholarly interest in the history of museums academies and major exhibitions There has been however little to no sustained interest in the histories of alternative exhibitions single artwork solo artist artist mounted entrepreneurial privately funded ephemeral etc with the notable exception of those publications that deal with situations involving major artists or those who would become so for example J L David's exhibition of Intervention of the Sabine Women 1799 and The First Impressionist Exhibition of 1874 despite the fact that these sorts of exhibitions and critical scholarship about them have become commonplace and no less important in the contemporary art world The present volume uses and contextualizes eleven case studies to advance some overarching themes and commonalities among alternative exhibitions in the long modern period from the late eighteenth to the late twentieth centuries and beyond These include the issue of control in the interrelation and

elision of the roles of artist and curator and the relationship of such alternative exhibitions to the dominant modes structures of display and cultural ideology

Vienna, 1814 David King, 2009-03-24 Reads like a novel A fast paced page turner it has everything sex wit humor and adventures But it is an impressively researched and important story David Fromkin author of Europe's Last Summer Vienna 1814 is an evocative and brilliantly researched account of the most audacious and extravagant peace conference in modern European history With the feared Napoleon Bonaparte presumably defeated and exiled to the small island of Elba heads of some 216 states gathered in Vienna to begin piecing together the ruins of his toppled empire Major questions loomed What would be done with France How were the newly liberated territories to be divided What type of restitution would be offered to families of the deceased But this unprecedented gathering of kings dignitaries and diplomatic leaders unfurled a seemingly endless stream of personal vendettas long simmering feuds and romantic entanglements that threatened to undermine the crucial work at hand even as their hard fought policy decisions shaped the destiny of Europe and led to the longest sustained peace the continent would ever see Beyond the diplomatic wrangling however the Congress of Vienna served as a backdrop for the most spectacular Vanity Fair of its time Highlighted by such celebrated figures as the elegant but incredibly vain Prince Metternich of Austria the unflappable and devious Prince Talleyrand of France and the volatile Tsar Alexander of Russia as well as appearances by Ludwig van Beethoven and Emilia Bigottini the sheer star power of the Vienna congress outshone nearly everything else in the public eye An early incarnation of the cult of celebrity the congress devolved into a series of debauched parties that continually delayed the progress of peace until word arrived that Napoleon had escaped abruptly halting the revelry and shrouding the continent in panic once again Vienna 1814 beautifully illuminates the intricate social and political intrigue of this history defining congress a glorified party that seemingly valued frivolity over substance but nonetheless managed to drastically reconfigure Europe's balance of power and usher in the modern age

The Prince's Mistress, Perdita Hester Davenport, 2011-10-21 Mary Robinson nicknamed Perdita by the Prince of Wales after her role on the London stage was a woman in whom showmanship and reckless behaviour contrasted with romantic sensibility and radical thinking Born in Bristol in 1758 she moved to London with her family at a young age and was trained by Garrick for the theatre After a royal command performance as Perdita in The Winter's Tale she was hotly pursued by George the 17 year old Prince of Wales and she became his first mistress He gave her GBP 20 000 a house in Berkeley Square and another in Old Windsor the popular press followed the affair with glee and gusto But when he left her she blackmailed him for the return of his letters A string of other high profile lovers followed including Lord Malden Charles James Fox and most notably Lt Col Tarlton However a miscarriage left Mary semi paralysed and when her last lover deserted her to marry someone else she wrote two novels in revenge Her growing literary reputation brought in many friends including Coleridge but her death saw the bailiffs trying to evict her from her cottage This lively account of one of the most extraordinary women of her age is set against the social literary political and military background of the times
