Bonekemper,2015-10-05 History isn't always written by the winners Twenty first century controversies over Confederate monuments attest to the enduring significance of our nineteenth century Civil War As Lincoln knew the meaning of America itself depends on how we understand that fratricidal struggle As soon as the Army of Northern Virginia laid down its arms at

Appomattox a group of Confederate officers took up their pens to refight the war for the history books They composed a new narrative the Myth of the Lost Cause seeking to ennoble the sacrifice and defeat of the South which popular historians in the twentieth century would perpetuate Unfortunately that myth would distort the historical imagination of Americans north and south for 150 years In this balanced and compelling correction of the historical record Edward Bonekemper helps us understand the Myth of the Lost Cause and its effect on the social and political controversies that are still important to all Americans

The Early Morning of War Edward G. Longacre, 2014-10-22 When Union and Confederate forces squared off along Bull Run on July 21 1861 the Federals expected this first major military campaign would bring an early end to the Civil War But when Confederate troops launched a strong counterattack both sides realized the war would be longer and costlier than anticipated First Bull Run or First Manassas set the stage for four years of bloody conflict that forever changed the political social and economic fabric of the nation It also introduced the commanders tactics and weaponry that would define the American way of war through the turn of the twentieth century This crucial campaign receives its most complete and comprehensive treatment in Edward G Longacre s The Early Morning of War A magisterial work by a veteran historian The Early Morning of War blends narrative and analysis to convey the full scope of the campaign of First Bull Run its drama and suspense as well as its practical and tactical underpinnings and ramifications Also woven throughout are biographical sketches detailing the backgrounds and personalities of the leading commanders and other actors in the unfolding conflict Longacre has combed previously unpublished primary sources including correspondence diaries and memoirs of more than four hundred participants and observers from ranking commanders to common soldiers and civilians affected by the fighting In weighing all the evidence Longacre finds correctives to long held theories about campaign strategy and battle tactics and questions sacrosanct beliefs such as whether the Manassas Gap Railroad was essential to the Confederate victory Longacre shears away the myths and persuasively examines the long term repercussions of the Union s defeat at Bull Run while analyzing whether the Confederates really had a chance of ending the war in July 1861 by seizing Washington D C Brilliant moves avoidable blunders accidents historical forces personal foibles all are within Longacre s compass in this deftly written work that is sure to become the standard history of the first critical campaign of the Civil War

The Illustrated London News ,1858      New-York Observer ,1898      Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1904      The Christian Advocate ,1904      Horizon Chasers Gerry Max, 2007-03-07 Richard Halliburton was the quintessential world traveler of the early 20th century In 1930 his celebrity equaled that of Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart Halliburton called himself a horizon chaser and recommended that one should see the world before committing to a routine Not only did he live up to his ideal but he was eager to write about his adventures A prolific partnership with gifted editor and ghost writer Paul Mooney produced excellent work and theirs became a close personal relationship Sadly Halliburton and Mooney disappeared at sea on March 24 1939 along with the entire crew of Halliburton s Chinese junk Sea Dragon as they attempted to cross the Pacific from Hong Kong to the San Francisco World's Fair. This biography records the life and adventures of Halliburton and Mooney focusing as no other Halliburton biography has on the productive literary collaboration between the two. Drawing on the recollections of people who knew them both, the work discusses their backgrounds, the early years of their acquaintance, and their possible romantic relationship. Finally, their fateful journey to Hong Kong and the ill-advised voyage of the Sea Dragon is described in detail. A good deal of first-hand evidence is provided by William Alexander Paul, Mooney's best friend and designer of Halliburton's Laguna Beach house. Appendices contain seven poems by Mooney and facsimile letters including one of praise written by Richard Halliburton to William Alexander. Never before published photographs are also included. The Literary Digest, 1891 Digest, 1891 The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1894
