The Consolations of Theology Brian S. Rosner,2008-04-29 Proceedings of a conference held in 2006 at Moore Theological College Sydney Australia

The Givenness of Desire Randall S. Rosenberg,2017-06-16 In The Givenness of Desire Randall S Rosenberg examines the human desire for God through the lens of Lonergan s concrete subjectivity Rosenberg engages and integrates two major scholarly developments the tension between Neo Thomists and scholars of Henri de Lubac over our natural desire to see God and the theological appropriation of the mimetic theory of Ren Girard with an emphasis on the saints as models of desire With Lonergan as an integrating thread the author engages a variety of thinkers including Hans Urs von Balthasar Jean Luc Marion Ren Girard James Alison Lawrence Feingold and John Milbank among others The theme of concrete subjectivity helps to resist the tendency of equating too easily the natural desire for being with the natural desire for God without at the same time acknowledging the widespread distortion of desire found in the consumer culture that infects contemporary life The Givenness of Desire investigates our paradoxical desire for God that is rooted in both the natural and supernatural

The Dark Side of Close Relationships Brian H. Spitzberg, William R. Cupach, 2013-06-17 This collection of essays represents a follow-up to the editors' 1994 publication The Dark Side of Interpersonal Communication In the preface to that collection of essays they argued that To fully understand how people function effectively requires us to consider how individuals cope with social interaction that is difficult problematic challenging distressing and disruptive In this companion volume the focus expands from social interaction to close relationships Aside from the inherent need to investigate the bad as well as the good of interpersonal relationships the editors and their colleagues simply find the dark side metaphor to be intellectually arousing It stimulates investigation of important yet often neglected phenomena and it especially encourages consideration of the hidden and forbidden and the paradoxical and ironic elements of human relating This volume assembles the cutting edge work of first rate scholars from the ranks of communication psychology sociology and cognate disciplines As in the previous text the subject matter and stylistic approaches are diverse reflecting the broad and interdisciplinary domain that is the dark side of human affairs The selection of topics is somewhat selective reflecting only a sample of emerging scholarship in the interdisciplinary study of relationships These internationally recognized scholars examine various topics related to the dark side including fatal attractions jealousy and envy misunderstanding gossip conflict codependence sexual coercion stalking relationship termination unrequited love and mental health problems in relationships Some chapters present original data and models whereas others reconfigure the way in which the understandings of relationships can be better understood In addition the bookend chapters examine the ideology nature and problems of dark side scholarship Collectively the scholarly journeys made in this volume are intended to illustrate the complexities both moral and functional involved in close relationship processes The intent is neither to valorize nor demonize the darker aspects of close relationships but rather to emphasize their importance to the day to day doing of relationships Only by accepting such processes as integral to relationships can their role be fully understood
