The Darkling:

Introduction to Shadow and Bone (TV series) Gilad James, PhD, Shadow and Bone is a fantasy television series that is based on Leigh Bardugo's Grishaverse novel of the same name. The show is developed by Eric Heisser and is produced by Shawn Levy and Dan Levine. The series premiered on Netflix on April 23, 2021. The series takes place in a world that has been torn apart by monstrous creatures that dwell in the Shadow Fold, which is an impenetrable darkness that has cut off a part of the kingdom of Ravka. The story follows a young soldier named Alina Starkov who discovers she has unique magical powers that could be the key to saving her country. She discovers she is a Sun Summoner, which gives her the ability to summon and control light. Along with her best friend Mal, she sets out to hone her powers and fight against the darkness that is threatening her kingdom. However, Alina soon finds herself in the middle of a political power struggle between the Grisha, a group of magical elites, and the Ravkan royalty, who fear and distrust them. Cyborg Saints Carissa Smith, 2019-09-02

Saints are currently undergoing a resurrection in middle grade and young adult fiction as recent prominent novels by Socorro Acioli, Julie Berry, Adam Gidwitz, Rachel Hartman, Merrie Haskell, Gene Luen Yang, and others demonstrate. Cyborg Saints: Religion and Posthumanism in Middle Grade and Young Adult Fiction makes the radical claim that these holy medieval figures are actually the new cyborgs in that they dethrone the autonomous subject of humanist modernity. While young people navigate political and personal forces as well as technologies that threaten to fragment and thingify them, saints show that agency is still possible outside of the humanist construct of subjectivity. The saints of these neomedievalist novels, through living a life vulnerable to the other, attain a distributed agency that accomplishes miracles through bodies and places and things, relics, icons, pilgrimage sites, and ultimately the hagiographic text and its reader spread across time. Cyborg Saints analyzes MG and YA fiction through the triple lens of posthumanism, neomedievalism, and postsecularism. Cyborg Saints charts new ground in joining religion and posthumanism to represent the creativity and diversity of young people's fiction.

Far from Home Paul Boyce, 2020-12-09 On April 21st, 1701, Yazama Jiutar, a young Japanese samurai, is devastated when he and his fellow warriors are informed of the ritual suicide of their master in punishment for a severe offence. The warriors are now ronin, masterless, and on the run, but they vow vengeance on the court official whom they blame, promising to return in force at the New Year, December 31st, 1702. They know that their revenge, no matter how justified, will only lead to their own deaths by the same ritual suicide. The band separates and scatters, and Jiutar heads south. As he crosses the sea from the main island of Honshu to that of Kyushu, his boat is hit by a tempest. When the storm abates, he finds himself in a world populated by races and species of peoples familiar, strange, and terrifying. Believing himself to be in one of the hells he has heard of in myths, theatre, and stories, he knows he has to find a way back to the home he is far away from. Posthumanism in Young Adult Fiction Anita Tarr, Donna R.
