William Clark Russell,2020-04-14 Excerpt A half hour passed and during that time I had sufficiently recovered from the distressful croak of the parrot to wonder as any sailor would how the ship was navigated for I could not doubt that the clock kept pretty close to the true time since the easting and westing made by the ship was small never perhaps exceeding ten degrees and the circumstance of noon having struck set me wondering in what fashion the captain and mates navigated the ship whether they used the cross staff or relied on dead reckoning or were supernaturally conned The Death Ship, Etc.

Russell,2020-04-14 Excerpt I had passed from the deck where I slept to the cabin in too great a hurry to notice the weather Now reaching the poop I stood a moment or two to look around being in my way as concerned about the direction of the wind as Vanderdecken himself It still blew fresh but the heavens lay open among the clouds that had thickened their bulk into great drooping shining bosoms as though indeed the crystalline blue under which they sailed in solemn procession 2 mirrored the swelling brows of mighty snow covered mountains The sea ran in a very dark shade of azure and offered a most glorious surface of colours with the heave of its violet hills bearing silver and pearly streakings of sunshine and foam upon their buoyant floating slopes and the jewelled and living masses of froth which flashed from their heights and stormed into their valleys as they raced before the wind which chased them with noisy whistlings and notes as of bugles The Death Ship was close hauled when was the day to come when I should find her with her yards squared but on the larboard tack so that they must have put the ship about since midnight and the sun standing almost over the mizzen topsail yard arm showed me that we were doing some westing for which I could have fallen on my knees and thanked God
