The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1965 The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1969 The Decadence of Judaism Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1969 The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1965 The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time ,1965 The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1965 “The” Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1965 The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Mōšēh Menuhin,1969 The Left, the Right and the Jews W.D. Rubinstein,2015-10-16 First published in 1982 this book examines anti semitism in the Western world The author concludes that fringe neo Nazi groups notwithstanding significant anti semitism is largely a left wing rather than a right wing phenomenon He finds that Jews have reacted to this change in their situation and in attitudes towards them by making a shift to the right in most Western countries with the major exception of the United States Considering the contribution of Jews to socialist thought from Marx onwards and the equally lengthy history of right wing anti semitism this shift is one of the most significant in Jewish history This movement to the right is discussed in separate chapters as is Soviet anti semitism and the status of the State of Israel Examined in depth are the implications of this shift in attitude for Jewish philosophy and self identity Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Moshe Menuhin,1984-01 Traces of History Patrick Wolfe,2016-01-12 Traces of History presents a new approach to race and to comparative colonial studies Bringing a historical perspective to bear on the regimes of race that colonizers have sought to impose on Aboriginal people in Australia on Blacks and Native Americans in the United States on Ashkenazi Jews in Western Europe on Arab Jews in Israel Palestine and on people of African descent in Brazil this book shows how race marks and reproduces the different relationships of inequality into which Europeans have coopted subaltern populations territorial dispossession enslavement confinement assimilation and removal Charting the different modes of domination that engender specific regimes of race and the strategies of anti colonial resistance they entail the book powerfully argues for cross racial solidarities that respect these historical differences Faith in the Millennium Stanley E. Porter,Michael A. Hayes,David Tombs,2001-02-01 At the close of one millennium and the beginning of a new one this conference volume reflects on the past and looks forward to a new era in terms of the development of faith Although most of the papers in the volume address issues concerning Christian faith the volume is not confined to such a perspective since the concept of faith is treated here in an encompassing and broad manner The historical perspective reaches back several millennia addresses contemporary issues of economics and justice as they have a bearing on faith and looks to the future as a new millennium presents its own problems and potential opportunities Yes, In My Lifetime Yahya-Othman, Said,2013-11-11 Yes In My Lifetime is a collection of selected articles and essays by Haroub Othman written over the span of his career of nearly four decades Originally appearing in a wide range of fora the writings reflect Othman s growth as an intellectual and an activist They also encapsulate his life s passions the plight of the people and their struggles for their rights the state of the Union of Tanganyika and Zanzibar and international solidarity with the oppressed the world over A child of Zanzibar Othman fought long and hard for the unity of those islands and for their continued presence in the Union and the set of articles in that section pay homage to that work Haroub Othman was a professor of development studies at the University of Dar es Salaam having specialised in international law and political science He was still working with the University when he passed away in 2009 His many Kiswahili writings are unfortunately not included in this book

The Journey of An Arab-Jew in European Israel Dr. David Rabeeya, Palestine and Israel John B. Quigley,1990 The dispute over Palestine between the Palestinian Arabs and the Israelis is one of the most volatile and intractable conflicts in the world today Palestine and Israel examines the history of this battle from the perspective of international law and it argues that a long term solution to the conflict must protect legitimate interests to remain viable an element the author believes has so far been seriously neglected This extensively documented work details the complex politics and agonizing struggles that have characterized the clash between Jews and Arabs examining in depth the competing claims to Palestine and the extent to which legitimate interests remain to be fulfilled Beginning with the early Zionist settlement in Palestine that rose from the effort by Jews to escape long standing discrimination in Europe Qigley investigates the origins of the dispute including the British occupation of Palestine the British Mandate and the involvement of the United Nations He examines the 1948 War the establishment of Israel and explores the legal and political status of Jews there After a detailed analysis of the 1967 War and Israel s occupation of the West Bank and Gaza Strip he concludes with recommendations for resolving the conflict including discussions of the responsibility of other states for the persisting injustice the role of other states in settling the dispute and steps to a possible solution

For almost three decades Jean Calder has been working with children with disabilities in Lebanon Egypt and the Gaza Strip In 1981 Jean Calder left a comfortable life in Queensland and a respected academic career to work as a volunteer in Lebanon When the war broke out and many foreigners fled Jean stayed and cared for a group of children in Beirut They spent weeks sleeping on floors sheltering under a hospital staircase and being held at gunpoint Three of these children would change the course of her life forever Jean has made her home in the Gaza Strip where she deals each day with the ongoing fighting Yet for the last ten years she has built up a rehabilitation program that has improved the lives of hundreds of children with disabilities In 2005 her outstanding work was recognised when she received our highest civilian honour the Companion of the Order of Australia In WHERE THE ROAD LEADS Jean shares her life story and offers a rare insight into the daily existence of people in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip Motivated by a passionate desire to help those around her Jean brings hope to people living in some of the most dangerous areas of the Middle East

The Bible and Colonialism

Michael Prior, 1997-05-01 The biblical claim of the divine promise of land is integrally linked with a divine mandate to exterminate the indigenous people The narrative has supported virtually all Western colonizing enterprises e g in Latin America South Africa Palestine resulting in the suffering of millions of people and loss of respect for the Bible According to modern secular standards of human and political rights what the biblical narrative calls for are war crimes and crimes against humanity In this provocative and compelling study Prior protests at the neglect of the moral question in conventional biblical studies and attempts to rescue the Bible from being a blunt instrument in the oppression of people
