The Deserter Studies In Austrian Literature Culture And Thought Translation Series:

Modern Austrian Literature ,1993 The Deserter Anton Fuchs,1991 In the anti war tradition of The Red Badge of Courage All Quiet on the Western Front and A Farewell to Arms Anton Fuchs s novel is a suspenseful odyssey of flight and personal discovery His unheroic hero s experiences descriptions of everyday life in the crumbling Third Reich and conversations with the people he encounters on his desperate journey create a fast paced adventure novel The protagonist s thoughtful observations form a provocative eyewitness account of Nazi arrogance hypocrisy and political manipulation Of Reason and Love Carl Steiner,1994 Marie von Ebner Eschenbach stands out as one of the most unusual Austrian writers of the latter part of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth century Known as the grande dame of Austrian literature she started her writing career as a dramatist who had the ambition of becoming a female Shakespeare She ended it as an aphorist and author of short stories novellas and novels Although she was not a leading figure in the women s movement of the turn of the century her writings which were much acclaimed in her maturing years went a long way toward putting women s literature on an equal footing with the literary output of her male peers in her own native land and abroad

Austrian Studies Newsletter ,1989 Structures of Disintegration David Darby,1992 This study examines the narrative structure of Elias Canetti s novel Die Blendung Auto da Fe The author first provides a survey of the reception of the novel and then examines its structural forms primarily on the basis of an intertextual analysis of three major episodes He questions the capacity of sign systems to produce meaning Finally he compares Canetti s novel with the modernist urban novel and the French nouveau roman in terms of the representation of chaotic worlds The Convent School Barbara Frischmuth,1993 Barbara Frischmuth portrays the convent school s authoritarian conditioning and a young teenager s struggle to become her own person in spite of it The fourteen briefly sketched chapters are a kaleidoscope of the confusion teenagers face when caught in a well meaning but unfeeling legalistic educational process Frischmuth has a superb ear for language as a repressive and an expressive tool She adroitly blends many voices of the girls exploring certain passages of the Old Testament or of the nuns preaching a strange mix of common sense survival techniques with outrageous strategies for controlling a husband Life for the young charges in the convent is schooling with a vengeance a rigid and authoritarian system drills the girls in answers to all the problems of life Frischmuth presents the reader with the story of an individual who manages to find a voice of her own in spite of the strict pedagogical system which does not encourage independence of spirit or thought In the final chapter we hear her for the first time communicating in a voice completely her own marking the dramatic shift away from her oppressive tutelage to the first stirrings of genuinely critical self awareness Three Late Plays Arthur Schnitzler,1992 The Baron and the Fish Peter Marginter,1992 American Book Publishing Record ,1992

The Sphere of Glass Marianne Gruber,1993 The Sphere of Glass is an alarming portrayal of life in the modern age It is the diary of a nameless man who lives like everyone else in his noisy city in a sound insulated glass ball His lies life deceptions and false promises exist in concert with his genuine attempts to escape from the city and to find the inaccessible friend who has written him a letter Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1990 From Here to There Peter Rosei,1991 Karl a petty drug addict and dealer is always on the move never reaching a final destination defying death on his motorcycle in the spirit of Easy Rider while on his search for an authentic existence The typically Austrian juxtaposing of a lust for life and a longing for death lends the novel a fascinatingly precarious quality of static dynamism Suspended between salvation and perdition in a subliminal timeless drift Karl s existence is transformed into an aesthetic quest by the lyrical quality of the language which elevates the banality of everyday life to the status of the remarkable Relationships Adolf Opel,Donald G. Daviau,1991 This anthology presents an image of the Austrian people through short narrative prose works by forty of the leading modern and contemporary authors The dimensions of being human from the soaring heights to the abysmal depths are most striking in the relationships of the individual to his or her surroundings For this reason prose pieces were chosen that illustrate relationships not only those between man and wife man and woman murderer and victim father and daughter or mother and daughter but also those between man and man human being and God man and city as well as relationships between familiar and alien forms of life The Spectator ,1926 Studies in Austrian Literature, Culture and Thought ,19?? New Statesman and Nation ,1954 The New Statesman and Nation ,1954 Studies in Austrian Literature, Culture and Thought ,19?? The Clearing Peter Steiner,2007 The Clearing is at once a point of departure and a point of return Reminiscent of the Austrian prose stylist Adalbert Stifter Peter Steiner lovingly describes seemingly insignificant details of a young boy s life and environment The narrator returns from his worldly travels as a mature man who now in a single day reconstructs his youth in the presence of the deserted inn where he first encountered the world BOOK JACKET Austrian Writers and the Anschluss: Understanding the Past - Overcoming the Past Donald G. Daviau,1990
