The Designers Great Automobiles And The Men Who Made Them:

THE DESIGNERS: GREAT AUTOMOBILES AND THE MEN WHO MADE THEM Leonard J. K. Setright, 1976 The Automobile in American History and Culture Michael L. Berger, 2001-07-30 This comprehensive reference guide reviews the literature concerning the impact of the automobile on American social economic and political history Covering the complete history of the automobile to date twelve chapters of bibliographic essays describe the important works in a series of related topics and provide broad thematic contexts This work includes general histories of the automobile the industry it spawned and labor management relations as well as biographies of famous automotive personalities Focusing on books concerned with various social aspects chapters discuss such issues as the car s influence on family life youth women the elderly minorities literature and leisure and recreation Berger has also included works that investigate the government s role in aiding and regulating the automobile with sections on roads and highways safety and pollution The guide concludes with an overview of reference works and periodicals in the field and a description of selected research collections The Automobile in American History and Culture provides a resource with which to examine the entire field and its structure Popular culture scholars and enthusiasts involved in automotive research will appreciate the extensive scope of this reference Cross referenced throughout it will serve as a valuable research tool The Designers L. J. K. Setright, 1976 The Racers: How an Outcast Driver, an American Heiress, and a Legendary Car Challenged Hitler's Best (Scholastic Focus) Neal Bascomb, 2020-10-06 The heart pounding story of an unlikely band of ragtags who took on Hitler s Grand Prix driver In the years before World War II Adolf Hitler wanted to prove the greatness of the Third Reich in everything from track and field to motorsports The Nazis poured money into the development of new race cars and Mercedes Benz came out with a stable of supercharged automobiles called Silver Arrows Their drivers dominated the sensational world of European Grand Prix racing and saluted Hitler on their many returns home with victory As the Third Reich stripped Jews of their rights and began their march toward war one driver Rene Dreyfus a 32 year old Frenchman of Jewish heritage who had enjoyed some early successes on the racing circuit was barred from driving on any German or Italian race teams which fielded the best in class due to the rise of Hitler and Benito Mussolini So it was that in 1937 Lucy Schell an American heiress and top Monte Carlo Rally driver needed a racer for a new team she was creating to take on Germany s Silver Arrows Sensing untapped potential in Dreyfus she funded the development of a nimble tiger of a new car built by a little known French manufacturer called Delahaye As the nations of Europe marched ever closer to war Schell and Dreyfus faced down Hitler s top drivers and the world held its breath in anticipation waiting to see who would triumph Bug Phil Patton, 2002 Patton chronicles the remarkable journey of the Volkswagen Beetle the world s most famous car from Nazism to the sixties counterculture the Cold War and today s global manufacturing Six Men Built the Modern Auto Industry Richard Alan Johnson, This is the story of six extraordinary men who each built something from nothing redefined the automotive industry after World War II and redirected its course for the future Henry Ford II visionary autocrat with an iron will Shoichiro Honda most successful automotive entrepreneur since Henry Ford I Eberhard von Kuenheim founder of the modern BMW Lee Iacocca Ferdinand Piech builder of Volkswagen Group and Robert Lutz who left retirement at 70 and is still highly influential at General Motors What made them special was the sheer volume of fundamental change they brought to the largest industry in the history of the world They not only re shaped the auto business the six made a sizable dent in the societies they lived in To a man they were great cognitive thinkers Their minds worked with animal speed even instinct speed But more than anything these were brave and cantankerous souls who rode the waves of history Each could see the future They could just make it out sometimes imperfectly but could see it nonetheless They took a business that had begun to mature and decline by the 1930s and found ways to make it fresh and whole again The compelling story of the global car business over the past half century A lively and engaging narrative that recounts some times collaborative sometimes archly antagonistic interactions among the men Full of business revelations at the highest level written by a journalist operating at the heart of the industry Global appeal that shows how automotive groups in the USA Europe and Asia have influenced each other A business story interlaced with personal details that explains why the six were determined to be successful About the Author For two decades Richard Johnson has worked for Crain Communications publisher of the world s leading automotive business publications Founding editor of Crain s Automotive News Europe he has been a reporter and editor for the group in Detroit Tokyo Frankfurt and London He is currently a senior editor with Automotive News in Detroit and regularly talks to the most senior executives in the leading car manufacturing groups
